BRILLIANT BACKFIELD ARTISTS EARN PLACE ON ALL-AMERICAN 11

Lourie, Davies, Way and Gipp Recognized by Farrell in Choice of Stars; Guards and Ends Lacked in Lustrous.

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—(By Henry L. Farrell, U. P. Staff Correspondent.)—It's a shame that eleven are only eleven.

If an All-American eleven could be stretched into a dozen and a half or two dozen, picking the season's combination of stars might not be a problem so closely akin to settling the Irish question.

After a season in which the gridirons of the east, west, north and south were almost crammed with high-class football performers, it is a task far beyond one pair of eyes to judge the eleven best.

The season of 1920 developed a preponderance of brilliant half-backs, quarter-backs and centers with a good number of tackles. No guards stood out like "Swede" Youngstrom of last year's team, or no ends blazed across the field like Bob Higgins and Heinie Miller.

Writer Judges From Reports Based upon the teams seen in action, news accounts of the games and the judgment of others delegated to look them over, the following teams have been selected—subject to anything but personal violence on the writer:

First Team: Carney, Illinois, end; Keck, Princeton, tackle; Griffith, Penn State, guard; Alexander, Syracuse, center; Callahan, Yale, guard; Guillick, Syracuse, tackle; E. Anderson, Notre Dame, end; Lourie, Princeton, quarter-back; Way, Penn State, half-back; Davies, Pittsburgh, half-back; Gipp, Notre Dame, full-back.

Second Team: Robertson, Dartmouth, end; Dickens, Yale, tackle; Hess, Penn State, guard; Cunningham, Dartmouth, center; Woods, Harvard, guard; Stein, Wash. and Jeff, tackle; Weston, Wisconsin, end; McMillin, Centre, quarter-back; French, Army, half-back; Garrity, Princeton, half-back; Crangle, Illinois, full-back.

It will be observed there are representatives on the teams from every section except the Pacific Coast and the far west. With the full realization that in those fertile fields of football there are many players of sufficient ability to hold their own with some of these three mythical aggregations, the writer had to ignore that section on account of lack of detailed information regarding these players.

The hardest task in sifting out the stars came among the quarter-backs, the centers and the half-backs.

Bob McMillin is a great quarter-back, but the writer after watching Lourie in three major games, can't imagine how the Southerner can be superior to him.

Lourie does everything that McMillin does and he kicks in addition. He is as crafty a general as roams the chalk-lined field and he kept his colors high through a much harder schedule and much greater opposition than McMillin.

Mike Callahan, Princeton, and Stein, Pittsburgh, are two great centers, but they are both bad passers. Stein was removed from consideration because his bad pass kept Pitt from beating Penn State.

Gipp, the star Notre Dame back, stood out as the greatest half-back of the year and the one who had to be on the mythical eleven. Davies and Way were picked because almost alone they carried Pittsburgh and Penn State to the record that makes it possible for them to claim the eastern championship.

French and Garrity by all means should be on an All-American team, and Crangle, also, but they suffered by having their stars shine in a firmament filled with meteors.

SPITBALL PITCHING IS UP FOR CONSIDERATION

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Dec. 8.—(A. P.)—Discussions regarding use of the "spitball" in the Pacific Coast Baseball League are expected to take up some of the time at the annual league meeting, which, President William H. McCarthy, San Francisco, has announced, will be held here December 16.

At the present time any "spitball" pitcher in the league can use the moist ball but newcomers are barred from delivering it. Several league managers, it is said, would like to have the "spitball" back so all pitchers could use it.

Rumors regarding transfer of the Salt Lake City franchise to Vancouver, B. C., probably will be either confirmed or denied finally at the meeting. According to reports received here Vancouver baseball people are willing to purchase the Utah city's membership.

NORTHWEST SCHEDULES TO BE DRAWN FRIDAY

SPOKANE, Wash., Dec. 8.—(A. P.)—Intercollegiate athletic schedules for 1921 will be drawn up at the annual meeting here next Friday of the Northwest Conference.

The meeting will be attended by representatives of the seven conference member schools, University of Idaho, Whitman College, Washington State College, University of Montana, University of Oregon, the Oregon Agricultural College and Willamette University.

Gonzaga University of Spokane may apply to the meeting for admission to the conference. Gonzaga's football team during the season just closed made an excellent showing against conference teams.

The conference track and field meet will be held June 4 at the Washington State College at Pullman. It was announced recently by representatives of the northern schools at the Pacific Coast Conference meeting at Berkeley.

WILLIE HOPE TAKES CINCH ON TITLE BELT BY BEATING SCHAEFER

Champion at 18.2 Billiards is Assured Honor if Winner Today in One of Two Matches at New York City.

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—(A. P.)—Willie Hope, holder of the world's professional 18.2 billiard championship, won his second game of the titular tournament here last night, defeating Jake Schaefer of San Francisco, 499 to 176, in 14 innings. The champion, to retain his title, has only to win one of his two games Wednesday with Schaefer and Welker Cochran of San Francisco, each of whom has won once and lost twice.

Hope set a high record for the tournament, when he ran off 179 points in his third inning.

Cannexfax Comes Back. CHICAGO, Dec. 8.—(A. P.)—Rok Cannexfax of New York, staged a remarkable comeback last night in his first appearance in the final round of play for the national three cushion billiard championship, the present title-holder defeating Augie K. Schaefer of Chicago, 5 to 6 in 32 innings. After the Chicagoan had led through most of the game, Cannexfax had a high run of 14.

BOXER'S SKULL THOUGHT FRACTURED BY KNOCKOUT

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Dec. 7.—(A. P.)—At Roberts, Staten Island heavyweight, knocked out Mickey Shannon, of Pittsburgh, in the sixth round of a 15-round match last night. Shannon called to regain consciousness and was taken to a hospital. It was thought he might have fractured his skull when he struck the floor. Roberts weighed 142 pounds and Shannon 195.

Gene Tunney, A. E. F., heavyweight champion, fought Leo Houck of Lancaster, Pa., in a 10-round contest. Mal Coppage, middleweight, fought Eddie Warren in a 10-round contest. Both are expected to fight tonight.

OHIO STATE WILL MAKE EIGHTH TO COME WEST

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 8.—(A. P.)—Ohio State College, which meets the University of California at football at Pasadena, Cal., New Year's Day, will be the eighth big school from across the Rocky Mountains to send its eleven west for inter-sectional games, according to records available here.

Twenty one years ago, in 1899, the records show, the Carlisle Indians, the first of the eastern teams to journey west, defeated California here 2-0. Three years later the University of Michigan defeated Stanford University 19-0 at Pasadena.

No more games were played between eastern and western teams until 1915 when Syracuse, on a winter trip west, defeated the Oregon Agricultural Col-

'In Every Respect' says the Good Judge

You get more genuine chewing satisfaction from the Real Tobacco Chew than you ever got from the ordinary kind. The good tobacco taste lasts so long—a small chew of this class of tobacco lasts much longer than a big chew of the old kind. That's why it costs less to use. Any man who has used both kinds will tell you that.

Leave for West Dec. 18. COLUMBUS, Ohio, Dec. 8.—(A. P.)—The Ohio State football team which will play the University of California at Pasadena New Year's day, will leave Columbus on Dec. 18 and arrive in Pasadena Dec. 24, according to a traveling schedule made public last night. Two practice sessions will be held en route, one at Denver, on Dec. 20, and one at Palo Alto, Calif., Dec. 23, where the Stanford University field will be used.

The Ohio State team, on a field lighted by large electric flood lights, the fans of which are shifted from one part of the gridiron to another, following the play, has been practicing daily and will be in good shape for its departure.

How a prospective mother prepared for baby's coming

Of all the vital adventures in life, the birth of a baby is the climax of nature's most wonderful evolution.

During this period, nature is supposed to be preparing the internal organism of a woman for a safe and speedy delivery; but it is more the exception than the rule when nature, unaided, performs her part at the crisis in a manner to relieve pain and contribute to comfort.

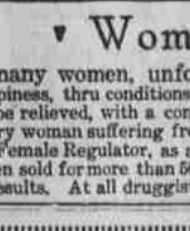

"I was afraid" writes a prospective mother, "until an experienced mother told me about MOTHER'S FRIEND."

"—but now I cannot recommend MOTHER'S FRIEND too highly for I know it helped me wonderfully, and I can almost say my baby was born without pain. At the present time I am using it again, as I do not want to go thru the ordeal without it."

Three generations of prospective mothers have used MOTHER'S FRIEND. When gently applied, during the period of expectancy, it soothes the fine network of nerves, lubricates the broad, flat, abdominal muscles and prepares the way for an easier, quicker and practical delivery.
