PRAIRIE CITY ELEVEN SETS CLAIM TO TITLE

Prairie City high school, located away on its Grand county, has set up a claim for the Eastern Oregon football title because Pendleton high will not play a post season game.

Franklin high lost to Washington high in Portland and Washington, as well as the other teams of Portland, declined a game with Pendleton. The La Grande and Baker eleven both bowed to Pendleton. Franklin scored twice the number of points against Baker that the locals did but their scoring power after one day of rest, and playing a high altitude, handicapped them considerably.

SIMPLEST CUT-OUTS TO SKILLFUL POSTER WORK PUT ON DISPLAY

Wealth of Color and Design Marks Exhibit at County Library Which is Feature of City's School Week Program

From the simple cut-outs made by the "first graders" to the skillfully executed posters painted by high school students, art is expressed in the exhibit of work of Pendleton school pupils shown this week at the county library as a part of the School Week program.

All Designs Original All design work done in the various grades is original. One conventional drawing shows shades of rose, gold and brown, and was inspired by the arrangement of beads in a half section of an apple. Butterflies and Indian motifs are used in other drawings.

Gifts are Made Third grade pupils of the Washington school have made "something for Mother" under the direction of Miss Lura Hendricks. The results of their drawing shows shades of rose, gold and brown, and was inspired by the arrangement of beads in a half section of an apple.

LODGE DETERMINED TO BLOCK KNOX PEACE RESOLUTION, STARTS MOVE BY INSURGENTS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—(By L. C. Martin, U. P. Staff Correspondent.)—The refusal of Senator Lodge, republican leader of the senate, to sanction the introduction and passage of the Knox peace resolution at this session of congress, today started an insurgent movement which may result in the presentation of the measure despite Lodge's disapproval.

Senator Lodge was much interested in the reports that President Wilson might resubmit the Versailles treaty. Nothing would be done with it, Lodge made clear. If resubmitted, it would be referred to the foreign relations committee and left there, Lodge indicated.
