SIDEWALKS IMPROVED BY CEMENT AT ADAMS

ADAMS, Dec. 13.—Adams has completed part of the concrete sidewalks going to the school house, the cold weather putting a stop for a while. Three new crosswalks of concrete and one new electric light on the corner have been placed. The city marshal, Ira Stoll, hauled gravel on the bad part of some of the roads which improves them a great deal.

Another committee was appointed to draw up several important measures to be placed on the ballot at the election of officers Jan 5. Mrs. Stanley, Mrs. Gilbert and Mrs. Lester will serve on this committee.

After the business meeting a short program was presented. Mrs. Pomroy read "One Hundred Questions Everyone Should Know," and Mrs. Best read a paper "American Composers."

The meeting next week will be held on Thursday night, the home economics committee to have charge of the program.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chapman were in Pilot Rock Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lou Knotts are moving to their farm on East Birch Creek. Their many friends in Pilot Rock regret their departure from the city.

Mrs. Frank Jordan has purchased the Knotts property and will make her home in Pilot Rock in the future.

The new bungalow on Bluff street is nearly completed. It will be occupied by Grandma Horn.

Boots Matthews was in Pilot Rock Thursday.

Mrs. Louis Beck suffered an attack of acute indigestion Wednesday evening. Dr. Parker was called from Pendleton to attend her.

Ed Hyrd and Frank Byrd, cattlemen, were in Pilot Rock Thursday.

Lester Haswell was transacting business in Pilot Rock Thursday.

Mrs. Verona Fullerwelder was a Pendleton shopper Tuesday.

Looking for the Benefits

"How does the election taste to you?" was asked by a visitor of a city politician.

"When I was a kid," he replied, "my mother used to make me take castor oil—raw. I hated the very sight of it. But she always contended it was good for me." Then he smiled and walked away.—Kansas City Star.

"BUY A BARREL OF FLOUR"

Store Mobbed

Fully 250 people were standing in front of the store waiting for the doors to open Saturday morning.

And there were eleven people showing goods—and selling—and wrapping—at a speed never seen before.

Again today—while I am writing this adlet—the store is jammed to capacity and another big day will be recorded when we check up tonight.

You can get almost anything at this sale—from delicious bread at 9c a loaf to a horse halter—and all at such a big saving that it will make your eyes snap.

And we are selling Boss of the Road and Blue Buckle Overalls for $1.89 and $2.00; work shirts for $1.19.

Then there is the Hope Muehlen at 21c a yard and all of our dry goods are marked proportionately low.

Now is your one best bet to buy Wool Pants and Corduroys at a big saving.

On certain days from now on during this sale we will put out certain lines of goods at Extra Special Reduced Prices:

And tomorrow will be Shoe Day. Come tomorrow and let your feet flirt with our shoes.

And Remember, the staff of life—Bread—at our store is selling at 9c a loaf.

Think of it! Here are the finest stocks reputable Merchandise from famous makers, all selling on a bargain counter basis.

Why, it's a tragedy!

And, Remember, this sale ends on Christmas Eve.

You may have seen other sales and heard of sales, but in your whole life you never saw a sale like this before.

Then it's goodbye to opportunity to buy at these prices.

For a business—like a baby—has the measles only once in awhile.

Call on us tomorrow.

Thank you.
