CITY OFFICIAL PAPER

DEMPSEY WEARS CROWN BUT HEAD RESTS UNEASILY

World's Champion Heavy-weight Carries Laurels on Scowling Brow and Face Beneath is Altered by Stiffest Conflict.

BRENNAN ASSERTS HE WILL ASK NEW MATCH

Victor is Badly Battered After Longest Distance of Career and Dangerous Rocking at Hands of Big Chicago Husky.

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—(A. P.)—Bill Brennan, knocked out in the twelfth round by Jack Dempsey last night, said today he intended to ask for another match. "I am not satisfied that Dempsey is my superior," he declared.

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—(By Henry Farrell, U. P. Staff Correspondent.)—The world's heavyweight crown still rests on the scowling brow of Jack Dempsey, but the face under it is somewhat altered today. The champion's left ear was smashed and torn, his lips are puffed out and cut, his jaws are swollen and his eyes are puffed and red. He was in bed today tired and worn from the longest distance of his career, and from taking his recent beating.

Bill Brennan, big husky Chicago heavyweight, stayed 12 rounds with the "man killer" last night and in those twelve rounds he made the champion work the hardest he has ever worked and take more than he has ever taken. Two vicious punches in the stomach and a smashing right on his head in the middle of the twelfth round folded Brennan up and he fell on his head and elbows in a neutral corner, knocked out.

LENIENCY OF PAROLE STIRS DISSATISFACTION

Paroles from the bench are being advocated in this county by District Attorney R. L. Keator as a result of the wholesale paroling of criminals sent from here to the state penitentiary. The local official today expressed considerable dissatisfaction with the manner in which men convicted from here are sent to Salem only to be let out after serving short sentences.

Harry Samuels, self confessed murderer of Omer Olinger, of Milton, sentenced to life imprisonment about 18 months ago, is already seeking parole, according to the district attorney. This man pleaded guilty in court and heard his sentence pronounced without having gone to trial by a jury. He admitted that he committed the murder in cold blood.

Austin Mann, who was convicted and sentenced from here not more than a year ago for auto theft, was paroled after serving a short time. He went out of the state, breaking the first provision of his parole, spirited a minor girl away from her home and after getting into trouble with federal authorities married the girl. He was arrested for breaking the parole and ordered returned to the penitentiary. He is reported to have again been turned out by the parole board.

Earl Allen, colored, is a third example of the parole violator. For several years he has been implicated in various crimes, large and small, hereabouts. He was sentenced to the reform school and paroled and served but a few months in the penitentiary this year for assault when he was let out. Now he is to be brought back here to answer to a hold-up charge.

Albin Lindgren, forger and member of the sextet that broke jail on the day Sheriff Taylor was slain, is understood to be up for consideration for parole. Inquiries regarding his case have come to the county clerk from the parole board.

SINGING PRISONER SAYS WAY OF 10 TO LIBERTY

TULSA, Okla., Dec. 15.—Wearry Willie, the pied singer of Tulsa, led 18 prisoners from the city jail early today. The prisoners who were serving from 15 to 30 days for vagrancy and other minor offenses, sang their way to freedom.

Jazz rang through the corridors of the old jail from 7 last night until midnight and the bars of the jail were saved during the singing officials declared. Although detectives have scoured the town, no trace of the fugitives has been found.

Jail officials are at a loss to understand why the men escaped because the singers, for the most part, belonged to the class of men who prefer to spend their winters in a nice warm jail and do their best to "break" in when the first snow falls.

The wire was taken by the sheriff's office in which the millionaire has accepted news that the man in jail here for forgery is his long-missing brother.

Jim Coplen, as he is known in jail here, was thought dead by his brother, owing to his having been in prison almost continuously for 13 years. HARDING RAISES IRE OF G. O. P. IRRECONCILABLES

MARION, Dec. 15.—By Raymond Clapper, U. P. Staff Correspondent.—Tumbles of a possible insurrection among the republican irreconcilables in the senate are reaching President-elect Harding through various channels today. He may call some of their leaders to Marion shortly with a view of stippling in the land any insurgent movement such as wrecked the Taft administration.

Primarily, the irreconcilables fear that Harding is leaning too far in favor of the League of Nations, according to advices reaching here. Among other sources of apprehension is the new cabinet and the belief that Harding intends to appoint Hoover. Another is the fear that he is not planning a sufficiently progressive domestic program.

Harding is in closest touch with the senate situation, often by long distance telephone and knows every shift in the line-up there almost as soon as it occurs.

He told of the controversy over the former German cables, showing how France and Britain had seized cables and shut the United States out of direct communication with Central Europe and Scandinavia.
