

People Here and There

J. H. Sturges was a homecoming passenger from Portland this morning on No. 24.

Henry Tichner, special agent for the Fireman's Fund Insurance Co., left here this morning after spending the day here on business.

Dan Clark, livestock agent for the O. W. & N. Co., arrived here this morning from Portland on No. 24 to look after business in this city and vicinity.

Among the Pendleton business men who went to Athena today to transact business were A. H. Cox, manager of the Oregon Lumber Yard, Raymond Hatch, architect, and Earl Williams, contractor.

State Senator Roy W. Ritner returned this morning from Portland where he has been for the past several days in consultation with fellow senators regarding plans and programs for the coming session of the legislature.

Hermiston is already making plans for its 1921 Dairy and Hog Show, says Fred Bennion, who visited the west end town yesterday. The annual stock holders' meeting will be held next Monday and the dates for the show will be set.

The case of W. S. "Doc" Rudd, on trial in Portland yesterday for selling liquor to Indians, went to the jury last evening, according to Charley Myers, night patrolman on the local force, who returned this morning after serving as a witness in the case Monday and Tuesday. Mr. Myers will return to his beat tonight.

Police Judge Thomas Fitz Gerald and Chief of Police Al Roberts will be home from Portland this afternoon on No. 18 after being witnesses in the Rudd trial in the metropolis. Neither fancies a night trip home, especially with a prisoner, as the chief has in the person of Earl Allen, whom he is bringing from Portland. The chief has been absent for 10 days.

Drilling for oil in the vicinity of Atalla is still progressing and the company holds out hopes that a gusher will be struck. Carl Kupers, vice president of the Atalla Oil Co., in the city last evening, said. The boring is now through Mississippi limestone and evidences of oil in the ground have already been seen, according to Mr. Kupers. While he retains his farm home near Helix.

Mr. Kupers spends most of his time at Atalla, where he also has a home.

A visit of almost six months to cities in the east was enjoyed by H. J. Lafourelle, who returned to Pendleton yesterday. Mr. Lafourelle, who had not been east for eight years, visited Portland, Maine; New London, Connecticut, and spent some time with his sister in Burlington, Vermont, and another sister in Essex, New York. At Keeseville, New York, he caught fish in Lake Champlain and fish also at Tupper Lake, where his brother resides. For the past two months, Mr. Lafourelle has been in Montreal as the guest of his married daughter. The local man gained 20 pounds during the trip.

NEWS OF THE COUNTY OFFICES AND OFFICERS

The first action is to collect on a promissory note for $1,526.76 given jointly by the defendants while the second is for $581.43 for a bill for goods and merchandise. Peterson, Bishop & Clark represent the plaintiffs.

NEWS NOTES OF PENDLETON

Eleven Candidates Take Work
Eleven candidates last night were given work in the first degree by Eureka Lodge of Oddfellows and five more were elected to membership and will be initiated at a later meeting.

Victory Bond Interest Due
Interest on the fifth liberty loan or victory notes is due today, December 15, and holders of the bonds were engaged today in clipping coupons and cashing in on their investments. This is the third payment of interest on this issue.

Boy Hurts Hand
Robert Bishop has his left hand bandaged as a result of an encounter with a pain of glass. In the words of the youngster, he "tackled a window from the stairway." The accident occurred this morning and the cuts are not serious but provide an opportunity for the use of a Round-Up handkerchief as a sling.

Church to Have Minstrel
Twenty Pendleton men will take on a licentious colored complexion Friday night and present a minstrel show for the entertainment of the ladies of the Presbyterian church, and other members and friends. The black faces will be in costume, with A. M. Crystal, Dr. David B. Hill, Rev. J. M. Cornelison and Clyde Phillips as end men. Rev. George L. Clark will act as interlocutor. Songs and jokes will form the program, which is to be followed by the serving of refreshments.

Twenty Attend Meeting
Twenty Hermiston farmers attended a meeting of the Hermiston Farm Bureau yesterday and each signed a membership card for 1921, says Fred Bennion, county agent who attended the meeting. J. P. McNaught resided and explained the plan for joining the American Farm Bureau federation, while Henry Sommerer, George A. Cressey and Mr. Bonnon explained the Farm Bureau work. Plans were made for a big meeting in January, at which time a definite 1921 program will be outlined and officers will be selected.

Many from Umatilla in South
Long Beach, Cal., has a large and enthusiastic Umatilla county delegation, according to a letter received here from Mr. and Mrs. Victor S. McDonald, formerly of Athena, who reside in the southern California city. The Umatilla folk frequently have reunions and they declare that they are able to become better acquainted there than at home where they are kept busy and the size of their farms keeps them from visiting. Among those who make up the "colony" are: Mr. and Mrs. McDonald and family, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Morrison and family, of Adams; Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Hales and family, of Adams; Mr. and Mrs. F. E. King, of Pendleton; Mr. and Mrs. H. H. King and family, of Weston; John Geiss and family, of Adams; George Bradley and family, of Pendleton; George Woodward and family, of Adams; Joe Bagwell and daughter, of Helix; Charles McAlvey and family, of Helix; J. T. Leavelle and family, of Adams; and E. A. Dudley and fam-

Weak Lungs
Those who have weak lungs can not be too careful about taking cold, as unless promptly treated, pneumonia may follow. As a prompt cure for bad colds no one could wish for a better medicine than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The success that has attended the use of this preparation, not only throughout the United States, but in many foreign countries, shows that it is a remedy that can be relied upon. It is pleasant and safe to take and only costs 25 cents; large size 50 cents.

A Good Cough Medicine
It speaks well of a cough medicine, when druggists use it in their own families, in preference to any other. J. Goldsmith, druggist, Van Ethen, N. Y., writes: "I have sold Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for years, with complete satisfaction to myself and customers. I have always used it in my own family, both for ordinary coughs and colds and for cough following the grip and find it very efficacious."

For Indigestion and Constipation
There may be people in this vicinity who are affected with indigestion and constipation, and if so, they will be interested in the experience of Mrs. H. C. Getty, Indiana, Pa. When visiting in Mt. Jewett, Pa., Mrs. Getty was advised to try Chamberlain's Tablets for indigestion and constipation, and says: "This medicine not only cured me, but toned up my whole system, so that my health has been better than for years, since taking it."

The Joy of Living
No one can reasonably expect to get much pleasure out of life when his bowels are constantly constipated. A few doses of Chamberlain's Tablets will move the bowels, strengthen the digestion and give you a chance to realize the real joy of living.

PILOT ROCK ODDFELLOW LODGE WILL ENTERTAIN

(East Oregonian Special.)
PILOT ROCK, Dec. 15.—On Wednesday evening Dec. 15, the Pilot Rock Odd Fellows and Rebekah will entertain the Pendleton orders in I. O. O. F. hall. The committees composed of Carl Stewart, Charles Miller and C. DuPois from the Odd Fellows and Mrs. Ida Royer, Mrs. Sarah Harvey and Mrs. Ellen Chittenden from the Rebekah, are planning a full program for the affair. The feature of most interest is a big supper. All members with their wives and husbands are invited to be present. The Commercial club and Woman's Community club will hold a joint meeting Tuesday evening to which all citizens of the town are invited. The matter to be discussed is a municipal Christmas tree.

The play "Troublesome Inventions" given by high school students under the direction of Miss Marie Badura was a decided success. In spite of the high wind the seats were all sold and the comedy was enjoyed by all. The following people were in the cast: George Jordan, Eleanor Hascall, Dwight Schanep, Velma Royer, Wilbert Horn, Lila Fletcher, Master Edwin Fletcher, Willie Kidwell, Ted Roy, Albert Pollock, Caroline Lovins and Hugh Curran. Prizes were awarded to the best characters, three judges being selected from the audience. Eleanor Hascall, George Jordan and Dwight Schanep received first, second and third prizes respectively.

Between the acts, several special numbers were given, one of the most pleasing of these being the high school male quartet composed of George Jordan, Victor Bracher, Ted Roy and Willie Kidwell. Others who appeared in the specialties were, Elmo Russell, Zella Johnston, Hetcha Hemphill, Ella Stanton, Thelma Pollock and Marvin Roy.

The Saturday night dance in I. O. O. F. hall was well attended. Albrecht's orchestra furnishes unusually good music for these dances, and the public is invited to attend. Robert Shafer came up from Pendleton Thursday.

Rollin McBroom attended the high school play here Friday night. John Bradburn has been employed
