CLUB ENJOYS DANCING

Kill Kare Klub members last evening enjoyed the fifth of their program of dancing parties marked by pleasing informality, characteristic of the series. The affair was held in Eagle-Woodmen hall, dancing filling the hours between 8:30 and 11:30 with supper in the banquet room following. The host committee for last evening was composed of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Vaughan, Mr. and Mrs. John Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Snavely, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Hobart, Dr. and Mrs. L. D. Illeman, Dr. and Mrs. Floyd Croup, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. McCook, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Tazert, Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Vaughan and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Bell.

BETROTHAL MADE KNOWN

A betrothal of interest is that of Miss Evelyn Ford and Harold Whisler well known young folk of Pendleton, whose marriage is to be an event of the near future. The attractive bride-elect is being showered with pre-nuptial compliments, an interesting one among which took place Wednesday evening when Miss Jasminta Du Puis and Miss Clara McKenize entertained for her pleasure at the home of Miss Du Puis, 712 Calvin street.

A myriad of crimson hearts, fluttering from streamers of white, made an appropos foil for the event—a miscellaneous shower. A delightful supper marked the final hour and friends who shared the pleasure of the compliment were beside the honor guest and hostesses, Mrs. Stella Dupuis, Mrs. Tom Gillette, Mrs. Clyde Thacker, Miss Evelyn McAllister, Miss Eula Simpson, Miss Dorothy Robertson, Miss Helen McKenize, Miss Lois Rauch, Miss Pauline Dehnert, Miss Blanche Smock, and Miss Leona Bowman.

The bride-to-be is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Hurd, of Pilot Rock, her father being a well known farmer of the southern section of the county. Mr. Whisler is the son of Mrs. Eva Whisler, of Pendleton, and he is associated with the East Oregonian Publishing Company.

CLUB MEETING ENJOYED

Inspiration Club members enjoyed a delightful afternoon Wednesday as guests at the home of Mrs. Frank Greulich. A pleasing luncheon completed the informal hours and Mrs. J. E. Sharp assisted the hostess in serving. Mrs. Boyd was welcomed as a new member at yesterday's meeting.

The next club day will be the first Wednesday of the new year, when Mrs. L. A. McClintock will be hostess.

MR. AND MRS. PREBLE IN PORTLAND

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Preble arrived from Seattle yesterday to pass the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Preble.—Morning Oregonian.

MRS. ADAMS HOSTESS

In a veritable garden of fragrant Christmas greens and brilliant red carnations, guests bidden to the home of Mrs. Walter Adams at 395 Wilson street, yesterday enjoyed chatting and needlework combined with the opportunity to greet Mrs. Wayne Eddy who recently returned from Minneapolis to make her home in Pendleton. Thoroughly delightful were the informal hours and later laying aside the needles and thimbles, guests found places at daintily appointed luncheon tables. They were guided by attractive cards bearing a Christmas motif and such table was centered by a single crimson blossom. Besides Mrs. Eddy, the friends who enjoyed Mrs. Adams' hospitality were, Mrs. H. E. Green, Mrs. James Welch, Mrs. A. L. Schaefer, Mrs. A. C. Ebert, Mrs. A. J. Mathewson, Mrs. Snow, Mrs. R. Buchanan, Mrs. M. S. Keen, Mrs. D. D. Hobart, Mrs. R. H. Hodge, Mrs. L. D. Drake, Mrs. J. K. Thompson, Mrs. M. J. Kavanaugh, Mrs. Frank Kincaid, Mrs. J. E. Montgomery, Mrs. L. C. Scharpf, Mrs. D. B. Hill and Mrs. Fred A. Llewellyn.

OPEN MEETING IS PLEASURE

An open meeting of the Pendleton Woman's Club proved an interesting event, indeed, when it was held in the club room of the library yesterday. Hostesses for the day were Mrs. Kenneth McElae, Mrs. G. W. Phelps, Mrs. Allen, Mrs. Perkins, Mrs. Chrystal, Mrs. C. S. Terpening and Mrs. Robert Simpson.

With the Industrial and Social Condition as an Aid to Americanization, the topic of the day, Rev. G. L. Clark, pastor of the Presbyterian church, gave an exceptionally interesting talk. Americanization, declared the speaker, is the making of a good American, and so the factors of obedience, intelligence and loyalty were stressed as esentials. Derived from these are conduct, education and patriotism which are taught through the home, the school, the church, and the industrial world. Rev. Mr. Clark made a plea for Americanizing the foreigner instead of foreignizing a community and for production for service instead of the production for profit.

The talk was ably supplemented by a paper presented by Miss Ruth Smith, which discussed in an interesting way the subject from the standpoint of America's children. Mrs. J. B. McCook and Mrs. Raymond Hatch contributed a charming vocal duet and the high school glee club, of sixty-five voices was heard in several numbers, which were a pleasure. Indeed, concert singing was also enjoyed by the club with Mrs. S. H. Forshaw as director.

A tea hour furnished a delightfully informal finale, the table gaily decked with crimson carnations being presided over by Mrs. G. L. Clark and Mrs. James Johns.

MISS PURINGTON IS BRIDE

An interesting wedding occurred at Burns this week when on Wednesday evening Miss Helen Purington became the bride of Charles E. Dillman. The service took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Purington and Mrs. Gladys H. Saurman and E. C. Eldridge were chosen as the couple's attendants. The bride was attired in white satin worn with a veil of tulle and her bouquet was a cluster of bride's roses. Her matron of honor wore pink Georgette and silver cloth. Pink roses fashioned her bouquet.

A wedding supper followed the exchange of vows and Mr. and Mrs. Dillman departed for a short trip to coast points.

The bride, a former Pendleton girl, is a graduate of the University of Oregon, a member of the faculty of the Harney county high school, a member of the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority and a talented young woman. Her husband is a veteran of the recent war and is now clerk of Harney county.

WREATHS ARE BEING MADE

An interesting number among church "sales" of the season is an event planned by the Church of the Redeemer which will take place just before Christmas. It is a sale of Yuletide wreaths and the fragrant or shining Christmas greens are being fashioned into a host of lovely clusters by women of the parish who are at work in a veritable garden, transplanted for the time being to Parish hall. The sale, however, will take place at the Elling Schiller reception room on the corner of Main and Water streets. Mrs. Charles Greulich is chairman of preparations.

MIRACLE PLAY TO BE GIVEN

An adaptation of one of the Old English miracle plays is to be presented at a midnight service of the Church of the Redeemer on Christmas eve. Music of especial excellence is being prepared for the event which will be given for the public, and in addition to musical numbers directed by Miss Edna Gates, Miss Faye Price, harpist, is to come from Seattle to assist. The event gives promise of noteworthy success.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Booster Club Gives Program—The Booster Club of the school gave an interesting program at an assembly held this morning. Sam Oliver, president of the club, acted as chairman. Byron Warner talked upon the prospects for a winning basketball team. Miss Estella Mills told of the possibilities of a winning girl team. John Simpson told the students what real school spirit should be and encouraged interest in all activities for the coming year. Miss Mary Douglas Chisholm told of Pendleton high school debating teams and the date for the tryouts and the first debate of the year. Thelma Blanchette told of the things that the students should do to allow their courtesies to teachers and classmates. David Swanson gave a number of New Year resolutions which he said students should make and keep.

Two Members of Faculty Leaving

Today was the last day in Pendleton high school for two members of this year's faculty, S. J. Rietter, head of the science department and E. O. Draper, head of the commercial department. Mr. Rietter will leave this evening for Mosier where he has business interests. His place will be taken by Marion Hays who has been confined in bed since the beginning of the school year with rheumatism. Mr. Draper will become cashier in the Peoples Warehouse. Mr. Draper was in this line of business before taking the school position this year. As a tribute to him several of the commercial department today presented Mr. Draper with a set of gold cuff links.

Boxing Class to Be Organized

Boxing Class to Be Organized—Beginning with the opening of school a new branch of athletics, boxing will be taken up. Dick Hanley announced that if enough wanted the course it would be offered. More than a dozen boys have signed and more are expected to enter the class. It will be held the last period in the day three times a week. This course has been wanted in the school for a long time but these are the first steps toward its organization.

Art Class Sculpturing—Members of the art class are studying the sculpturing and relief work. Several of the students have posed as models and the class is getting good results from the work. Miss Wurtenberger is in charge of the work. Other members of the class are studying cartooning and poster work.

Juniors Choose Play—The junior class has chosen "Green Stockings" as their annual play. It will be given in February and the proceeds will go to defray the expenses of the Junior prom which is given in honor of the senior class.

WHAT "NOTHING" WILL DO!

NEW YORK—Here is what "nothing"—in other words—nothing, mere emptiness—will do. R. S. M. Mitchell of a ship service corporation on Long Island, has perfected a "mechanical leech" which lifts 25 tons, taking hold of any smooth surface. He is shown here operating a set of two of the "leeches," capable of lifting 50 tons. One pull of the lever he is holding gives the "leech" a grip which says 40 of them will lift a sunken ship.
