ALTA TODAY

PITY THE COOK!

Posing as a cook has its drawbacks, especially if you can't cook, if the cop on the beat insists upon making love to you...

"Flying Pat", her latest Paramount comedy-romance, which will be on view at the Alta Theatre for two days commencing today.

The story is about a young bride and her husband, who insists that she become more than a kitchen drudge and that she go out and make a "career" for herself.

ALTA SUNDAY AND MONDAY

"The Forbidden Woman," which will be seen at the Alta Theatre Sunday and Monday, is said to have an unusually elaborate background for the display of Clara Kimball Young's justly celebrated gowns.

These exquisite creations are the result of hours of study and labor by French designers, Miss Young, and her technical director, all of whom have made a deep study of the harmony of colors and the value of color combinations for screen purposes.

The average outsider knows nothing whatever of the distinctions to be obtained by certain colors under the minute photographic lens.

the color scheme of the gowns worn must harmonize with the various interiors, drapes and hangings used in the different sets...

"If one were to judge my gowns from the standpoint of street wear and availability, some of the color combinations would seem hideously out of place and clash outrageously.

Miss Young declares that picking over exquisite materials, plush velvets, dainty chiffons and cobweb lace is quite the most fascinating sport in the world, and we agree with her.

ARCADE SUNDAY AND MONDAY

WHEN OUR "FATTY" A-MOTORING GOES

Roscoe ("Fatty") Arbuckle, the noted screen comedian, is fast becoming known in Los Angeles, where he makes his headquarters, as a man of parts—automobile parts.

The body was especially constructed in a Los Angeles factory and was fourteen months in the making. The front interior is aluminum lined, unique features such as cigar lighters, lights that ignite automatically when doors are opened, and a built-in cigarette distinguish this living room on wheels.

When he can be induced to leave his new possession, Roscoe gives his attention to the new series of comedy dramas in which, by arrangement with Joseph M. Schenck, he is to appear as a Paramount star.

PASTIME SUNDAY AND MONDAY

WILD AND RUGGED NORTHLAND. BACKGROUND OF THE GIRL FROM NOWHERE

"The Girl from Nowhere," which is to be the main offering at the Pastime Theatre Sunday and Monday is one of the season's novelties.

The scenic background of this picture is set in the majestic and rugged mountains of the northwest.

Here amid all this beauty of the great outdoors is enacted a unique drama and many startling and unique twists and turns.

The climax of the story is reached when the villainous Klondyke Jim, who has forced the helpless girl to the marriage altar against her will, is unmasked and made to pay for his wrongdoing.

Great care and lavish expenditure marked the production of this picture. The scene representing the dance hall of the so-called "Palace" of the little mining town is one of the biggest settings of its kind ever attempted in picture taking.

CLEO MADISON WILFRED LUCAS

A DRAMA OF THE GREAT NORTHWEST

As swift as a mountain torrent, as wild as a raging cat-act, rushes the tale of the beautiful and mysterious. The pines of the forest sighed, the woman trembled, the fiend smiled—who will save her from a fate worse than death? The fiend smiled again, but forgot that God is in his heaven and all is well with the world.
