IOWANS ENJOYING VISIT AT WESTON MOUNTAIN

(East Oregonian Special.) WESTON, Mt., Dec. 18.—Mrs. and Mr. Johnson of Iowa are visiting John Wroe and family and Mrs. E. E. Faust and family this week. They are old school mates of Mrs. Faust and Mr. Wroe. Mr. and Mrs. Jackson have been traveling in California a year and are on their way east to spend Christmas with their children. They like the west very much.

was pretty early in the morning but... Mrs. J. C. Hays of Beaver Springs, Colorado who has been visiting her daughter and family Mrs. J. W. Howers, left to visit her son Frank Gilliland a prominent sheep man of Butter Creek last week. Mrs. Bowers and Mrs. Frye visited the Louis Gilliland home on Pine Creek two days before Mrs. Frye left to visit her son and family.

old school friend from Baker to spend the holidays with her. Miss Dorothy Bowers of Weston will be home Christmas week. The roads are in a bad shape, being just a state of ice. One farmer has broken two wagon tongues and later the front wheels of one wagon and a hind wheel of another and one bobbed trying to haul his grain. Several others have had lots of trouble. Five loads of sugar went down the last of the week, but it was too cold to haul this week.

J. C. Hopkins and Verne Marr are building barley in Athens this week. Some of the grain will not be hauled until good weather in the spring. Harry May slipped on the ice at school and fell on the mud scraper on the porch cutting quite a gash over his eye and cheek.
