AMUSEMENTS

Could anything be more harmless than a pink chemise? And for that matter could anything be more insignificant than an acorn from which great oaks grow? So it was from a pink chemise—which, unfortunately, had a tell-tale inscription—that all the complications arose that made Garry Almsworth so unhappy, his wife so jealous, and made one of the great farce hits of the decade of "Up in Mabel's Room," the famous New York success which A. H. Woods will present at the Oregon Theatre, Wednesday, December 22. Playgoers all over the country are familiar with Mr. Woods' flair for farces, and his never-to-be-forgotten hits "Faylor, Bedroom and Bath," "The Girl from Rector's," "The Girl in the Taxi," "Potash and Pearlmuter," and a host of others. Yet all New York was unanimous in declaring that "Up in Mabel's Room" was the funniest farce that had come from the Woods' office in its whole history. It filled the Edifice Theater, New York City, for months after having broken all records in Boston. The production to be seen here is beautiful and elaborate and ought to have a special appeal to women on account of its display of new modes in gowns and lingerie. The carefully selected company includes Julie Ring, Sager Midgeley, James Norval, Josephine Saxe, Harry Bradley, Grace Fielding and others.
