CHARGES OF MURDER AWAIT 77 RIOTERS

MANILA, Dec. 20.—(A. P.)—Charges of murder will be filed in court today by the city prosecutor against 77 Philippine constabulary soldiers as a result of the rioting Wednesday in which four Americans and seven Filipinos were killed, Governor General Francis Burton Harrison announced today. He said charges eventually would be made against all who participated in the firing or were connected with the alleged conspiracy. The 77 soldiers have been confined in the insular penitentiary for safe keeping, on addition charges filed yesterday by the city prosecutor. Governor Harrison has ordered the removal of the constabulary barracks outside the city of Manila.

"Investigation of other men and officers of the constabulary who may be culpable or may be implicated in the unspeakable affair Wednesday night is being continued by my instructions," said Harrison. "Action will be taken according to circumstances as they develop. The soldiers were made in order to hold the soldiers pending a more serious accusation."

MEDICINE AND DRUGLESS HEALING CONTEST IS OFF

SPOKANE, Dec. 20.—(A. P.)—A proposed contest of skill between "Scientific Medicine" and drugless healing is tentatively planned by a number of leading Spokane physicians and drugless healers, will not be held under direction of the league for conservation of public health. It was announced today following a meeting of the county medical associations with a number of league officials from Seattle.

ECONOMIC UNCERTAINTY SMOTHERING HATREDS

BRUSSELS, Dec. 20.—(By Carl D. Grant, U. P. Staff Correspondent.)—The serious economic situation in Europe is gradually smothering hatreds out of the world war, in the opinion of many members of the inter-allied financial conference. Realization that conditions cannot become stabilized until Germany is on the way to reestablishment, together with an apparent desire of German representatives to lay all their cards on the table, resulted in a feeling that there is much to be accomplished.

In the present meeting regarding restoration of commercial relations with the former enemy country.

TWO COAST STUDENTS GIVEN SCHOLARSHIPS

BOSTON, Dec. 20.—(A. P.)—Two Pacific Coast students were appointed to Rhodes scholarships at large as the result of this year's election, announced by professor Frank Adelote of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, fellowship offered by the commission American secretary to the Rhodes trust for the relief of Belgium.

tees. They are Lloyd Haberly, of St. Vercator, Oregon, and Richard H. Schofield of Los Angeles.

Haberly, who was graduated from Reed College, Portland, in 1918, is holder of a Carnegie fellowship in international law and is now a student in Harvard graduate school. Schofield, a graduate of the University of California in the class of 1919, and recipient of the degree of master of arts from the university after a year of post graduate study is now in Brussels on a fellowship offered by the commission
