EMBEZZLEMENT CHARGE IS FILED BY HANSCOM

Charges of embezzlement were filed against Joe Kerley by Wm. E. Hanscom on Saturday as the outgrowth of a suit by R. W. Ayers against Mr. Hanscom to collect on $7515 on notes originally given to Mr. Kerley by Mr. Hanscom. The latter alleges that $4500 in notes held by Mr. Kerley were paid up and that he holds receipts for the amount.

Mr. Kerley was arrested and released by Justice of the Peace Joe H. Parkes in $1000 bond to appear for examination on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. He is charged with disposing of the notes after they had been paid up.

While the new angle is being developed, the jewelry store of Mr. Hanscom's, which was attached by Mr. Ayres, is still closed. A replevin action was instituted Saturday evening by Joel Hanscom, father of the defendant in the Ayers' action, and Sheriff W. E. Taylor ordered to turn over the store, keys and stock to the elder Hanscom.

JAIL TRUSTIES MAKE BREAK FOR LIBERTY

George McElroy and C. J. Brown, trustees at the county jail, were sent to Pilot Rock Saturday to get $100 in the bank there on order of James Parker, who is in jail on a charge of stealing auto robes at Pilot Rock. The boys got the money, returned to Pendleton, hired a taxi to take them to Freewater and proceeded to make for liberty. They were back in jail within five hours of their escape.

During their few hours of liberty the boys paid $15 for the ride to the east end town and there bought some clothing. They then took the interurban into Walla Walla where officers met and arrested them. Meanwhile Sheriff Taylor was en route in pursuit of them and he brought them back to jail Saturday night.

LONDON, Dec. 29.—(U. P.)—Never before in London have Church and stage been so closely linked together. While most of the plays now running in London are of a sermonizing disposition, preachers are taking advantage of this to attract large congregations to their churches by preaching sermons on the subjects which hold forthright sway.

first sermon was on the "Unknown," a play by Somerset Maugham, which has for foundation the problem "Has the war killed faith?"

The next sermon dealt with "The Wandering Jew," a play in which Matheson Lang is showing the sufferings of the Jews through the ages.

Another sermon has for its basis "The Crossing," a play dealing with an earthbound soul in which the deal appears in "spirit form" on the stage and converse with the living.

"The Right to Strike," a play which is drawing multitudes to the Lyric Theater, also drew multitudes to the Rev. May's church when he announced it as his text for the next sermon on his list.

May intends next to discuss the problem of human hypocrisy as it reveals itself in "The Prude's Fall," now being played at Wyndham's Theatre.
