

CONFESSION PRODUCES BODY OF VALE TAILOR

VALE, Ore., Dec. 21.—(A. P.)—The body of George R. Sweeney, Vale tailor, missing since September 14, was unearthed Sunday at Watson, following admission by George Howard that he had buried the body after dragging it from the Owyhee River, in which he had sunk it in a trunk, according to Sheriff Noss today. Firm in the belief that Howard, who, according to the sheriff, confessed some time ago to killing Sweeney, had removed the body from the river where he said he had put it, the sheriff said by persistent questioning he and Acting District Attorney Lytle obtained from Howard an exact diagram showing where the body was buried. Deputies dug for an hour in frozen ground yesterday before finding it.

The alleged confession said Howard wanted to get possession of an automobile. He hid the body under a lap robe all day and then put it in a trunk and put it in the river. Late in September he decided to leave Watson and fearing the body would come to the surface he dragged it out and buried it. He worked all night.

An inquest is being held today.

LITTLE FOLK ARE TO BE INVISIBLE GUESTS

Some of Europe's little folk will be invisible guests at the Christmas dinners of Pendleton people, for local men and women are opening their hearts and their purses in response to the appeal for $10 to save the life of a child in the war-devastated foreign lands until next harvest comes.

Headed by H. E. Inlow and George Hartman, managers of the city campaign for $4000 or 400 lives, L. L. Rogers, Willard Bond, L. C. Scharpf, Jim Estes, Si Reets, J. W. Maloney, Rex G. L. Clark, James Johns, Jr., and Frank Griggs, are soliciting funds today.

The quota outside Pendleton is $4000 and community chairmen are also at work today. Sunday Judge C. H. Marsh, James Sturgis and H. E. Chloupek motored to the west end of the county and conferred with chairmen, and Monday Mr. Sturgis and Mr. Chloupek are on a similar mission in the east end.

J. V. Tallman is county chairman and has enlisted the aid of men all over the county. The state's quota is 25,000 lives and the drive closes Christmas Day.

FLORIDA CITIZEN TAKEN TARRED AND FEATHERED

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Dec. 21.—(U. P.)—Police today are investigating the kidnaping of John D. Biscoff, a real estate operator, who was dumped from a closed automobile at one of Jacksonville's busiest corners last night, dressed in a suit of underwear and a coat of tar and feathers. Several days ago Biscoff sent a letter to the publisher of the Jacksonville Metropolitan, objecting to the use of the word "Hun" in news dispatches printed in the paper, stating that among other things, such dispatches were detrimental to a friendly interest with Germany. Police believe that citizens, objecting to Biscoff's attitude toward the publication of the dispatch, took this means of showing their displeasure.

INCOME TAX

Holding Your Wheat

What should the farmer do about his Income Tax return if he is holding his wheat until next year? By all means open up books on the inventory basis and make the return showing wheat on hand as income this year. Do not let it go until next year and have a double shot of Income. We will open up these books and keep them for you. This will save you money on your Income Tax. It will give you a permanent business record. It will take the grief out of your Income Tax.

Permission for making your return on the inventory basis must be secured from the Commissioner before February 15th, 1921.

Come in and let us explain this in detail.
