DAIRY AND HOG SHOW HAS ANNUAL MEETING

(East Oregonian Special)
 HELENSBORO, Dec. 22.—The annual meeting of the board of directors of the Dairy and Hog Show was held at the library building last Saturday afternoon. A large number of persons interested in this annual show were present. George H. H. C. D. Jackson, Thomas Fraser, J. W. Campbell and George Brown were elected as the Board of Directors for the year 1921.

It was advocated by a number present that the next show, together with the State of Livestock and that a display of farm products on the grounds together with other new features would add greatly to the interest and the benefits derived. This was left optional with the board of directors.

Mrs. Joyce Hayes will spend the holidays with relatives and friends in Salem.

Miss Marion Briggs returned this week from Portland. She has accepted a position in the First National

WILL NOT SEE CONSTANTINE

ATHENS, Dec. 22.—(A. P.)—Earl Granville, the British minister, visited Premier Rallis last night and said he would remain in Athens but would not come into contact with Constantine.

The premier stated that if Constantine were soon to fly to Italy it will be a trial of inspection and will have no political significance.

CLARA SMITH TO GIVE UP TODAY IS BELIEF

ARDMORE, Okla., Dec. 22.—(A. P.)—At a point along the international border between the United States and Mexico, not far from El Paso, Clara Barton Smith, sought on a charge of murder in connection with the fatal shooting of Jake L. Harmon, here, will surrender to Sheriff Buck Garrett of Carter county late today, according to an announcement here last night by James H. Mathers, of the law firm of Mathers and Conkley, retained as counsel for Miss Smith.

If Miss Smith surrenders a search for her that has become nationwide will be ended.

SENATOR SMITH APPOINTED

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—(A. P.)—Senator Marquis A. Smith, of Arizona, was selected by the president as a member of international joint commission, which deals with questions arising between the United States and Canada, such as fisheries.

COMISKY SAYS SALE OF SOX IS NOT TRUE

CHICAGO, Dec. 22.—(A. P.)—Rumors recently circulated that President Charles A. Comiskey of the Chicago American League baseball club planned to sell his interests to a Tulsa, Oklahoma, man, caused Mr. Comiskey to issue a statement last night denying that he had any such plans.

That you get more genuine satisfaction at less cost when you use this class of tobacco.

A small chew lasts so much longer than a big chew of the ordinary kind. And the full, rich real tobacco taste gives a long lasting chewing satisfaction.

Any man who uses the Real Tobacco Chew will tell you that.
