

AT HIS WORST, CHARLIE CHAPLIN REPORTED BEST

When Mack Sennett named his master comedy, which is now being revived and shown at the Pastime Theatre today, "Tillie's Punctured Romance," featuring Charlie Chaplin, Marie Dressler, Mack Sennett and Chester Conklin, his first thought for a title was "Miss Sinned Against Than Necessary." That is a good description of the comedy.

The story is a side-splitting satire on the old sad tale of the country girl who is led off the straight and narrow path into the cruel city by a wise city chap. Marie Dressler, as Tillie Banks, is the innocent country maiden, and the loose, seductive and why city guy is Charlie Chaplin.

The trials of the bewildered Tillie, along in the big city, her first drink in the bad saloon, her hilarious fling as a waitress, and then her sudden rise and even more sudden drop, is a comedy of roaring laughter.

What happens to Charlie is another story—a trusty Charlie Chaplin side-splitting, uproariously funny comedy. "Tillie's Punctured Romance" will make the whole world laugh.

It is something, at least, for a motion picture to get "Below the Surface." Even the best of them seldom do this. In the spoken drama, as well as on the screen, authors have a way of skimming the shallows—the superficialities of life. "Below the Surface," newest of the Thomas H. Ince productions, which is at the Rivoli this week, goes below, chiefly by physical fact, but the ingenuity of that physical fact made it interesting and drew forth a salvo of spontaneous applause at its conclusion yesterday afternoon.

CHRONIC CATARRH

Follows Repeated Colds When Blood is Impure.
Your body suffering from a cold does not properly attend to digestion and elimination. As a result your blood becomes impure. It inflames the mucous membrane and brings about that condition in which chronic catarrh occurs and which it depends.

DEBATE ON TARIFF STARTS SKIRMISH

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—(U. P.)—Debate on the emergency tariff measure in the house yesterday brought a skirmish and indication that party lines would not figure in passage of the measure. The attainment promised to be producing areas of the South and West against the East and other consuming communities. Chairman Fordney in opening the debate said the committee had made an honest effort to provide relief for farmers and had included products which are causing them the heaviest losses.

CHARGE OF SCRAMBLE FOR COAL IS PROBED

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23.—(U. P.)—The calling of Attorney General Palmer before the senate investigating committee and steps looking toward the prosecution of government officials said to have made big profits in the "wild scramble for coal," stood out yesterday as possible developments in the senate's inquiry into coal profiteering. Charges that these things went on were made before the senate committee by George Cushing, director of the American Wholesale Coal Association, today.

APRON TUNIC

None of this season's fashion whims has been played up with more success than the apron tunic which is shown in this attractive dress.
It is cinder gray with a long waisted bodice, having long sleeves cut in one, attached to a plain skirt. From this in front is dropped an apron tunic of the same cloth, all-over embroidered in dull reds and blues with much black and dark gray.
