FORMER RESIDENT TAKES BRIDE

Pendleton friends will be interested in announcement of the marriage of Miss Edna Converse of Berkenfeld, Oregon, to Robert Best who until recently was connected with the Simpson Auto Company here. The wedding took place in Berkenfeld the day before Christmas and after a wedding trip Mr. Best and his bride will make their home there, where the former Pendletonian has become associated with the lumber industry.

ARTISANS ENJOY MEETING

United Artisans spent an enjoyable evening last night when they met in the smaller Eagle-Woodman hall for the transaction of important business, including on candidates and the initiation of two new members, Mrs. Laura McKenney and Martin W. Rahe were the candidates received last night, and after the business session the members adjourned to enjoy a social hour and delightful refreshments.

Christmas as the guest of friends of Salem.

WILL MAKE HOME HERE

A newly married couple who will be welcomed to Pendleton to make their home are Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Hargett whose wedding was a recent event at Holdman. The service was a double affair, Miss Muriel Harp becoming the bride of Thaddeus Hargett the same day. Mrs. Clayton Hargett before her marriage was Miss Edyth English, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Z. English of Riverside and a graduate of the Pendleton high school. She has recently been teaching in District 28. Mrs. Thaddeus Hargett is the daughter of Robert Hargett and a graduate of St. Joseph's Academy in the 1920 class.

The double service took place at high noon Thursday and was unusually charming in appointment, the brides being becomingly attired in flesh pink Georgette, with appointments of cream satin and their bouquets were arm clusters of pink rose buds, maiden hair fern and narcissus blossoms.

The two couples went to Walla Walla for a short journey. Mr. and Mrs. Thaddeus Hargett are to make their home at Holdman.

DANCING PARTY DELIGHTFUL

One of the most thoroughly charming events of the holiday season was a dancing party for which Mrs. Wesley N. Matlock was hostess last evening for the pleasure of her daughter, Mrs. Emmett Estes (Lulu Matlock), of Walla Walla, who is her houseguest. One hundred and fifteen friends were entertained at the elegant home of Mrs. William Matlock and the spacious rooms, thrown open to the dancers, were aglow with a myriad of gay lights, softly to cast a radiant sheen over Christmas greens and a veritable garden of crimson poinsettias.

Two dainty maids, Miss Kathryn Furnish and Miss Florence Fletcher, beckoned the dancers to an inviting alcove where light refreshments were dispensed and a charming note of informality marked the gracious hospitality.

Several Walla Walla folk were bidden to share the evening's pleasure with local friends.

FORD COMPANY PLANT INDEFINITELY CLOSED

DETROIT, Dec. 23.—(U. P.)—The Ford Motor Company's Highland Park plant, where 50,000 men are employed, is closed for an indefinite period, it was officially announced today. The plant was practically shut down last week, when it was announced that an inventory would be taken from December 24 to January 3.

"General financial and business conditions" are given as the cause of the shutdown. The Ford company has been operating with practically a full force in the past weeks, while other automobile plants in and around Detroit have been laying off men or working only part time.

COPY OF ALASKA'S FIRST NEWSPAPER IS FOUND IN ABANDONED OYSTER SHOP

JUNEAU, Alaska, Dec. 23.—(A. P.)—One copy of Alaska's first newspaper, The Sitka Alaska Times, published Sept. 19, 1868 and written with pen and ink of foolscap, has been found in an abandoned oyster house and presented to the Alaska Historical Library here.

Editorially the publisher, Barney O'Hagan first voiced in print an old Alaskan dream of railroad connections with the "states" outside.

NO PEACE IN KOREA

TOKIO, Dec. 23.—(A. P.)—Reports reaching Tokio gave no prospect of immediate peace in Korea. It was indicated that Japan will probably send an additional army division to Korea soon.

MAMMOTH SUIT DISMISSED
NEW YORK, Dec. 23.—(A. P.)—A $150,000,000 suit against William Rockefeller and other former directors of the New Haven railroad was ordered discontinued in federal court after a compromise had been effected.

COERCION HELD FUTILE TO CALM IRISH SEA

LONDON, Dec. 23.—(A. P.)—A scathing denunciation of government methods in Ireland and a strong expression on the futility of coercive methods to suppress either the Sinn Fein movement or the republican army, occupy for the most part the report of the labor commission which visited Ireland to study conditions there.

The report deals with all aspects of the present situation and the sentiment in Ireland as well as a specific study of reprisals. It shows incidentally that an appeal to Premier Lloyd George, signed by Arthur Henderson and William Adamson, as late as December 23, had failed to bring a response to the commission's desire to institute an "unofficial truce." So that steps toward peace might be taken.

Declaring the Irish republican army to be formidable, because intangible, the report says if it were concentrated as an army it could easily be defeated and it exists only because it has the sympathy and support of the vast mass of the population.

"So great has been the provocation by the crown forces that 80 per cent of Irish men and women," the report continues, "now regard the shooting of policemen and throwing of bombs at lorries with the same philosophic resignation that Mr. Lloyd George displays towards arson and pillage and the shooting of civilians in the presence of their wives and children."

The destruction of creameries, etc., only serves to stimulate recruiting by increasing the numbers of desperate men.

The report declares that in the black and tans and auxiliaries, "the government has created a weapon which it cannot wield; it has liberated forces which it is not at present able to dominate."

The report ridicules the official contentions that Sinn Feiners themselves burned and destroyed property in towns of marauding Sinn Fein sympathies as "unreasonable and indeed stupid."

IT HAS BEEN SAID

that half the money spent on advertising is wasted.

THAT PROBABLY WAS TRUE SIX YEARS AGO.

IT CERTAINLY IS NOT TRUE NOW.

TO THE AUDIT BUREAU OF CIRCULATION IS DUE much of the credit for the difference.

SIX YEARS AGO SPACE WAS BOUGHT BY GUESSWORK

Now it is bought with a definite knowledge of circulation:— how many copies are printed, how they are distributed; how many paid for and how many given away.

THE ADVERTISER WHO DOES NOT PROTECT HIMSELF by asking to see the A. B. C. reports of the publications he uses is reactionary and invites a return to the wasteful methods of former years.

THE EAST OREGONIAN IS A MEMBER OF THE A. B. C. Its advertisers are fully protected.
