

MEN'S SUITS

AND

OVERCOATS ONE-HALF PRICE

This is a straight-from-the-shoulder Clearance of Men's Suits and Overcoats. Prices determined with only one idea—moving merchandise quickly.

We've Marked Them One-Half Price which means a tremendous loss to us, but it's a great saving for you.

Take advantage of this great offer. You'll not be able to buy a suit or overcoat so cheaply again soon if ever.

Store closed all day Saturday, Jan. 1, 1921. Please do your shopping accordingly.

PENDLETON'S GREATEST DEPARTMENT STORE
The People's Warehouse
PURE FOOD GROCERY WHERE IT PAYS TO TRADE HARGAIN BASEMENT

Store closed all day Saturday, Jan. 1, 1921. Please do your shopping accordingly.

LAST HARD WORKOUT IS GIVEN FOOTBALL FOES

PASADENA, Cal., Dec. 29.—(A. P.)—Both the Ohio state and University of California eleven were given hard practice yesterday behind locked gates at Tournament park, but according to the best information that could be found trickling out, there will be no more strenuous work for the players until they clash New Year's day. The only definite word concerning the day's practice was that the Californians were drilled relentlessly on a forward pass defense, mindful of Ohio's success with the aerial attack in its "big ten" conference games.

TURN IN CHAMBERLAIN'S CONDITION UNFAVORABLE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—(A. P.)—The condition of Senator Chamberlain of Oregon, who underwent an operation here last week, was reported to be improved last night following an unexpected rise in the senator's temperature, which necessitated postponement of a second operation. Attending physicians said they believed Senator Chamberlain's condition would permit the final operation to be performed either today or Friday.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—(A. P.)—Because of an unfavorable turn in Senator George Chamberlain's condition the second operation was not performed Wednesday.

Undecided.

"I cannot make up my mind," he said, "whether to go abroad this year or not. Sometimes I say 'no' and then after thinking a bit, I say 'yes.'"

"Too bad," she replied. "Suppose you were to ask yourself firmly this question: 'Does Europe need me?'"

Mental Exhaustion.

The golfer who was employing him was playing very badly, and the caddy threw himself down on the grass at one point and watched him. When the man had at last succeeded in getting his ball out of the bunker, he glanced toward the boy and remarked: "You must be tired, lying down at this time of day."

THREE GRADUATES OF REED COLLEGE AMONG NEW RHODES SCHOLARS

PORTLAND, Dec. 29.—Lloyd Haberly of Silverton, Ore., is the third Reed college graduate to win a Rhodes scholarship in the past year and a half. Haberly, in competition with American college men from all parts of the country, won one of the two Rhodes scholarships issued at large, and he leaves in September to join the Reed contingent already at Oxford. Frank Fine of Salem, Ore., Reed graduate of 1918, is now in residence in Balliol college, Oxford, the alma mater of Matthew Arnold and Stephenson Smith of Portland, member of Reed's first graduating class, was recently enrolled in Lincoln college, Oxford.

Haberly, after graduating from Reed, won the Carnegie fellowship in international law, and he has been instructing at Radcliffe college the past year. He will specialize in maritime, admiralty and international law at Oxford.

Food Saving.

"Well, Earl, how'd yer make out with yer summer boarders this year?" "Fine! Best season I ever had. There were seven, all told—three couples in love an' a dyspeptic."—Life.

CONVICT NEAR DEATH AT WALLA WALLA PRISON

WALLA WALLA, Dec. 29.—(U. P.)—Williams, a convict, is believed to be dying in the prison hospital and Turnkey Joe Smith has a fractured skull as the result of a desperate attempted jail break late Tuesday. The convicts, armed with knives which they had made, attacked the guards on their return from the juke mill to their cell tiers.

The alarm brought the guards with rifles and a fusillade was volleyed at the mutineers.

Missing Accomplishment.

"It is a strange thing," said the professor. "I was shaved this morning by a man who really is, I suppose, a little above being a barber. I know of my own knowledge that he studied in Heidelberg and spent several years in other foreign educational centers. I also yesterday evening for Pendleton. They may stop a few days in Eugene with relatives. Wheeler, the photographer, keeps right at the head of his profession. His latest wrinkle is photographing on cloth, China, stone, wood—in fact any white or light colored material. Frank G. Hull, Editor of the Milton Eagle, was in town this morning. R. H. Semple, who now presides at the Alpha post office, is in the city greeting friends.

28 YEARS AGO

(From the Daily East Oregonian, Dec. 29, 1892.)

A large and handsome collection of arrow and spear heads manufactured from flint by aborigines in the long ago, is displayed in Mark John's window, and everybody stops to take a look at it. The specimens are of every shape and size and some are perfect beauties. The collection was recently purchased by Mr. John.

W. F. Matlock arrived in the city last evening from Portland. His son, W. N. Matlock and wife left San Francisco yesterday evening for Pendleton. They may stop a few days in Eugene with relatives.

Wheeler, the photographer, keeps right at the head of his profession. His latest wrinkle is photographing on cloth, China, stone, wood—in fact any white or light colored material. Frank G. Hull, Editor of the Milton Eagle, was in town this morning. R. H. Semple, who now presides at the Alpha post office, is in the city greeting friends.

FIRST PICTURE OF THE BURNING OF CORK

This picture rushed here from Cork, Ireland, by special courier, shows St. Patrick's, the principal thoroughfare of Cork, in flames. The burning of the Shin Fein city, on Dec. 11, wiped out the great retail business section with a loss variously estimated at from $15,000,000 to $20,000,000. The Irish claimed the fire was incendiary and charged the "Black and Tan" police with starting it. Sir Hamar Greenwood, British secretary for Ireland, denied this in the House of Commons.

A Resolution

New Year's, that day of resolutions, will soon be here. Every housewife should make her resolution to buy her table supplies where every care is given to quality, sanitation and to service. You will always find the TABLE SUPPLY a market of the highest standard in which only quality groceries and meats are carried.

The U. S. Inspector's stamp on our meats is a guarantee to our customers of the highest standard in meats.

"The Table Supply"

Phone 187 and 188 739 Main Street
CHAS. D. DESPAIN & CHAS. W. GOODYEAR
Proprietors