Golf Tournament Planned.

The tournament committee of the Pendleton Golf Club is perfecting arrangements for an 18-hole handicap tournament to be held over the club's course on Saturday as a New Year day sport event. Some sort of trophy possibly a cup, will be put up for the player making the best net score. Between a dozen and 20 players are expected to enter the play.

Invited to Bank Opening.

Invitations to the opening of the Citizens National Bank at The Bibles on Monday, were received today by local bankers. The new bank makes the fourth in that city and it is to start with a capital of $100,000 and a surplus of $16,000. P. J. Stadelman is president of the bank and H. L. Kuck, father of Harry Kuck, local newspaperman, is one of the directors. Pat Foley, hotel man, also well known here, is a director.

Quarantined for Smallpox

The home of G. W. Rugg, on West Court street, was placed under quarantine today for smallpox. Miss Grace Rugg, who has been ill for the past week, has contracted the disease.

Infant Born Yesterday Dies

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Bieker, who was born on Wednesday, passed away and funeral services were held from Poison's undertaking parlor this afternoon, with only members of the family present. The little one was to have been named Jane Lenore. Mrs. Becker is reported recovering. Mrs. A. Becker, mother of Mr. Becker, arrived from Cannon Beach, Ore., this morning.

Attractive Folders Out.

Attractive folders, printed in four colors, heralding the return of the Union Pacific system to pre-war train service, were received in Pendleton today by T. F. O'Brien, local agent. Service and equipment on the O.-W. R. & N. and Union Pacific to the northwest, the steamer service of the company between Portland and San Francisco and the California resorts reached by the Southern Pacific are included in the folder, which is in four pages.

NEWS OF THE COUNTY OFFICES AND OFFICERS

Will Peterson Gets Judgment.

Judgment for $90 and costs against Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Hunter was given Will M. Peterson in circuit court today. The case went by default.

License Issued to Couple.

A marriage license was issued by the county clerk late Wednesday afternoon to George E. Sherman, of Pilot Rock and Miss Iva Southwell of Pendleton.

Suit Filed for Divorce.

Lovena Bentley today brought suit in circuit court for divorce from Richard N. Bentley, to whom she was married in February, 1916. Impotency is the grounds for the action. J. B. Perry represents the plaintiff.

Gray Brothers Get Judgments.

Judgments were rendered today in favor of Gray Brothers Grocery Co. for $1526.76 and costs against O. S. Van Orsdall and W. H. Van Orsdall, and for $581.43 against O. S. Van Orsdall. Both judgments were taken by default.

Assessor Extending Tax List.

Extension of the various items of taxation on the 1920 roll is now under way in the assessor's office. The work is proving heavier than ever before, because of the large number of classifications for taxation. There are five irrigation districts and the state, county, school and local taxes all have to be extended on the roll.

Bond and Oath Not Ready.

H. O. Hawks, who becomes assessor on January 2, has not yet taken his oath of office because his bonds have not yet been finally arranged. He expects the bond to arrive today or tomorrow and will be sworn in as soon as possible. Mr. Hawks has not yet selected an office deputy and will be assisted by the retiring assessor, C. P. Strain, until a new man is employed and is qualified to handle the work, he said today.

Max Dudley is here from La Crosse, Wash.

L. A. Friedman of Mountain Home, Idaho, is here today.

Home I. Waits, Athena attorney, is a business visitor in Pendleton today.

FATHER OF DR. CROUP DIES WHILE ON VISIT

Funeral services for Dr. O. J. Croup, veteran Walla Walla dentist and father of Dr. Floyd Croup of this city, were held in the neighboring Washington city this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Dr. Croup passed away day before yesterday at Colfax, Wash., while visiting a daughter, Mrs. Ida Camp, there.

Dr. Croup was 61 years of age and had practiced dentistry for 20 years at Walla Walla. Death came from heart disease, from which he had suffered for a long time.

Dr. and Mrs. Croup were in Colfax for the holidays and he was in fairly good health. Besides his widow, he is survived by his daughter, Mrs. Camp, and two sons, Allen Croup, of Walla Walla, and Dr. Floyd Croup, of this city. He was a member of the Oddfellows' lodge.

man college's 1921 basketball squad started practice on Wednesday under coach Vincent Borleske. The coach put his charges through a stiff workout and will endeavor to build up a team that will equal the record of last season's five, which proved the champion of the intercollegiate teams of the northwest. Dement, star center, and Peterson and Wilson, guards, of the 1920 team, are being missed. Several good men are bidding for their berths, however, among them Knudson and Gurian, of Portland, Rich, York and Bleskey, of Walla Walla, and Carver, of Elhenabur, and Pickering of Yakima. All are forward candidates. Reynolds of Portland, who spent his freshman year at O. A. C., is showing up well for the center position left vacant by Dement's graduation. Schroeder and Penrose of Walla Walla, and Comrada and Layden, of Seattle, are guard possibilities. PILES CURED IN 8 TO 14 DAYS. Druggists refund money if PIAZO OINTMENT fails to cure itching, Blind, Bleeding or Protruding Piles. Instantly relieves itching Piles, and you can get restful sleep after first application. 60c.—Adv.
