

GO TO THEATRE

ARCADE TODAY

No more appropriate title could be given a play dealing with the perils and excitement of a newspaper reporter's life than "Go and Get It." And this is just the one that Marshall Neilan has given his newest big photoplay—"Go and Get It," which comes to the Arcade beginning today as a First National attraction.

When a mysterious crime has been committed and the entire city is on its toes for the solution—when riots and bloodshed are raging—when great strikes are pending—it is then that the reporter is called to the city editor's desk and told to "go get it." And chances are one hundred to one—he'll get it. He may be the source for wear upon his retina but he'll have the story.

And such is the case in the new Neilan picture—Kirk Connelly is told of a series of most mysterious crimes and told to get the story. After a lot of the most fascinating and exciting adventures Connelly not only returns with the story, but he gets the beautiful mystery girl as well. It's some picture.

PASTIME TODAY

Mary Anderson as Bubbles at the Pastime Theatre Overflows With Vim, Vigor and Vitality.

Today we are to have a delightful visit from the present day apostle of the strenuous life, in the person of "Bubbles," who will reign on the screen at the popular Pastime Theatre for a limited engagement. Bubbles is a girl whose sprightly old grandfather never ceased lamenting, was not born a boy. So when Bubbles grew up she said farewell to skirts and burnt up the roads of her home town on her motor bike, and painted the village red with her irrepresible strenuousity.

All the countryside knew her. A blue streak would shoot down the main road, and the farmers resting on their rakes would say, "There goes Bubbles." All the roaming pigs and tailies from their dogs would go into ecstasies at her approach. But time brings changes, and Bubbles was left in the charge of a very aristocratic aunt. Back again for a brief season into hats and skirts, and then occurs the great marvellous adventure of Bubbles' life. Escaping for a few hours, she dons her boy suit, tunes up her motor bike and gives full vent to her irrepresible nature. On the road she meets a very handsome young stranger, whose auto has gone to sleep. It's a twinkling Bubbles is at the engine, chimes spark plugs, twists a few wires, and presto! the auto is running again. Then he looks into Bubbles' eyes and oh what a pain she feels in her heart. You know how it ends.

Mary Anderson is a sprightly personification of Bubbles, and her supporting company includes several well known players.

GAY PAPA IS RIVAL OF HIS SON IN COMEDY

Pa's pretty frisky after all! There are lots of self-satisfied young fellows who seem to think their fathers are out of the running until something happens to wake them up.

That's what occurs in "An Amateur Devil," Bryant Washburn's new Paramount comedy which will be displayed at the Alta Theatre today. Carver Endicott, a father too precise young man, tries his fiancée with his "peppery" love-making. In desperation she announces her engagement to his father, a gay widower.

Carver decides that the only way to end the match is to disgrace the family so the girl won't dare marry into it. He tries various sorts of "disgraceful work," even to accepting a job as bus boy in a restaurant, only to find that instead of being thought less of, the newspapers made great capital of his "exemplary" to the pampered and lazy workman!

Of course, everything comes out all right after a series of typically Washburn situations, replete with humor. The turn of the story is novel and the whole production is most excellently cast. Ann May is the leading woman.

Barry Absorbs Punishment.
PORTLAND, Dec. 31.—(U. P.)—Barry surprised the fans by sticking 10 rounds against Langford and made a hit for the cheerful way he took punishment. He got it aplenty from his heavier opponent. Langford was awarded the decision.

Jimmy Darcy forced the fight against Egan, but the latter was clever for him. It was a draw. Herman was awarded the decision over Lodge, who showed, little besides, much weight. The Vernon Blue and Gordon-Rose bouts were draws.

EIGHT BLACKS SOUGHT BY POSSE AFTER RIOT

COLUMBUS, Ga., Dec. 31.—(U. Mystery Shrouds Going
The barbarians who destroyed the ancient cathedral at Rheims belong to the same class, kin and family, as those who destroyed the ancient cathedral at Kiev," she cried, referring to the Polish warfare against Moscow, which was carried on with allied aid.

Madame Zetkin arrived late in the afternoon and spoke for half an hour, she then left with a small escort of friends. No one else was allowed to leave for 20 minutes to enable her to depart secretly as she had come.

Her visit was unexpected. It is believed she came by motor and it is supposed that after leaving the hall she proceeded to the German frontier.

OUTLAW TEUTON WOMAN STIRS FRENCH SESSION

TOURS, France, Dec. 31.—(A. P.)—Clara Zetkin, member of the German reichstag and of the executive committee of the third internationale, whose passports, it is alleged, the French refused to give, came suddenly into the hall where the French socialist congress was in progress yesterday and the session became a bedlam. M. Prossard, secretary of the French socialist party, who was speaking, was interrupted and the delegates escorted the woman to the platform.

Clara Zetkin is a white-haired woman of 80. She was attired in a simple brown dress and was cheered wildly.

Defies Warnings
"The French have forbidden me to come," she said to the delegates, "but like a good communist I came anyway."

The doors of the hall were locked and the telephone and telegraph wires in the hall disconnected, and no one was allowed to leave the building. She then continued her speech, denouncing "the Scheidemanns, Noskes and Renaudies of all nations." She also denounced the moderates and all those seeking to form an internationale in opposition to Moscow.

"Split your party to achieve more precious unity," Madame Zetkin advised the congress. "I urge you to split from your party all social patriots and all vacillating centrists, and form a
