NEW YEAR WELCOMED.
The new year was ushered in by a group of young folk in an informal way when they gathered in the ball room of the Elks Temple during the final hours of the old year. Just a few dances were on the informal program and floating balloons of gay colors filled the air until their place was taken by others of noisier mode which with the blast of horns, greeted the advent of 1921 in a riot of merrymaking.

About 40 couples came in for the midnight affair.

FIRST BALL SCORES SUCCESS.
The first annual ball of the Pendleton Woman's Club passed into history with a shower of joyous greetings for the year 1921 as scores of guests disbanded in the wee sma' hours this morning. Eagle-Woodman hall, the scene of the event, was a veritable mountain garden with its borders of evergreens, brightly touched with snow, but not so chill a retreat for the warm glow of many shaded lights and the colorful gowns of the dancers made a hospitable scene of the big hall.
Guests were greeted by Mrs. E. C. Wade, Mrs. Owen, Mrs. L. L. Rogers, Mrs. E. B. Aldrich, Mrs. S. R. Thompson, Mrs. J. B. Perry, Mrs. James Johns, Mrs. J. C. Snow, Mrs. L. Koepfen, Mrs. H. D. Jones, and Mrs. Charles Greulich, officers of the club and chairmen of the committee, and as they danced, a punch table proved inviting and a supper table above rent out its tempting call.
Scores of additional guests watched the merrymaking from above, enjoying the affair more informally while chatting in the balcony.
The affair was one of the most perfectly appointed events of the winter and the annual Woman's Club ball, simultaneously with the new year, was ushered in last night to fill a noteworthy place among Pendleton festivities.
A coffee table in charge of Mrs. Henry Dixon Jones, was presided over by Mrs. I. U. Temple, Mrs. Joe Cox, Mrs. G. W. Byers, Mrs. J. L. Vaughan, Mrs. M. S. Kern and Mrs. W. N. Matlock. Delicious sandwiches were prepared by Mrs. A. C. Koepfen, Mrs. H. S. Garfield, Mrs. L. A. McClintock and Mrs. E. J. Mathewson.
Decorations of the hall were in charge of Mrs. S. H. Thompson who was assisted by Mrs. Carmen Cole and others.
A bevy of dainty maids presided over the punch bowl which had been arranged by Mrs. J. C. Snow. They included Vivian Estes, Lois McCook, Mildred Wyrick, Kathleen McClintock, Elizabeth Simpson, Rosemary Whiteman and Gladys Snyder.
Mrs. E. T. Wade, president of the Pendleton Woman's Club and Mrs. Charles Greulich, general chairman of the ball were ably assisted by the club members in scoring so pleasing a success.
Music of which Mrs. L. L. Rogers was in charge was unusually delightful, a seven piece orchestra playing for the dancing.
About $150 is estimated to have been cleared by the ball.

TEA HONORS VISITORS.
The home of Mrs. Anna Storie on River Drive housed a charming event yesterday when a meeting of the Spizerinkum Club for which Mrs. Storie and Mrs. C. S. Terpening were hostesses, preceded a reception for the pleasure of Mrs. Buchanan of Colfax, and Miss Mary Ritner of Portland. The visitors are sisters of Mrs. Storie and they are being welcomed as her house guests.
American Beauty roses combined with delicate fern to deck the rooms and center a dainty tea table. The coffee urn was in charge of Mrs. James H. Raley and Mrs. Terpening. Mrs. Edmund Mable and Mrs. Smith of Riverside assisted in serving the guests.
Mrs. Buchanan and Miss Ritner are being greeted by many Pendleton friends.

WALLA WALLA FOLK VISIT.
Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Winans of Walla Walla are being welcomed as New Year's visitors in Pendleton. They were guests at the Woman's Club ball last evening and house guests of Mayor and Mrs. George A. Hartman.

WHY HAVE CATARRH?
Disagreeable to Yourself and All About You.
Catarrh is generally conceded to be a constitutional disease. Therefore it requires a constitutional remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla which reaches every part of the system by thoroughly purifying and enriching the blood. This medicine removes the cause of the trouble, which if not checked may lead to more serious disease.
In 46 years of use and test Hood's Sarsaparilla has relieved many cases as told by voluntary letters of commendation. Why not get a bottle today and give it a trial? It combines economy and efficiency. Keep Hood's Pills on hand as a family cathartic.
