District Attorney Evans said Ethridge declared he "bad no idea when he left that things were in such an awful shape. I hope I shall be able to make up, dellar for dollar, everything missing." thing missing."

Ethridge Has Smile

PORTLAND, Jan. 2.—(U. P.)— Ethridge is as quick to smile as ever, but his lips are locked in grim silence. Mrs. Ethridge did not stand the strain of trouble as well as her husband. Her face is gray and drawn and her eyes seemed tear-washed and fired. Eth-ridge told the district atorner he believes when all the assets are checked up the alleged deficit of Morris Brothers will be obliterated. He will attempt to got ball imposilately so as attempt to get ball immediately so as to help in clearing up the accounts.

MAN ENTERS IN DARK: WOMAN CAPTURES HIM WITH SPOCN OF SILVER

NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—(A. P.)—Awakened early today by the clicking of a key in the front door of her apartment, Bertha Miller, architect, crept from her bed, drew a shining object from a buffet drawer and waited. A man entered. He felt something press against his ribs and heard an order, "Behave now, keep your hinds up and sit down on that chair." He obeyed. Miss Miller called her sister who opened a window and blow a police whistle, Police came. Miss Miller sighed, sank in a chair and tossed a silver spoon on the table.

The man was held in $2,500 ball on a technical charge of burglary.

Would Raise Prices in This Country and be Hurtful to Natural Processes.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3 .- (A. P.) -The resolution to revive the war fisenate over the president's veto 53 to five. Similar action by the house is forecast by supporters of the resolu-tion. The president's message said the corporation was created to stimu-late exports during the war, and the object of the proposed revival was to increase exports so as to raise prices in this country. He said it would raise false hopes among the very peo-ple who would expect most and would give farmers cheaper and more abundant fert(lizers. Emergency tariff legidation and the soldier's bonus will be taken up by the senate finance committee with Senator Penrope, committee chairman, in charge for the first time in many months. Pencore is expected to quash both measures. The house ways and means committee will begin hearing Thursday on tariff revision, laying the foundation for a general tariff bill at
