FATE AGAIN THROWS REID AND MOTOR CAR TOGETHER IN PICTURE

By some peculiar twist of fate, it seems that Wallace Reid, Paramount star is destined to have some connection with automobiles, automobile racing and the automobile business in each of his starring vehicles. In three former pictures, "The Roaring Road," "Excuse My Dust," and "What's Your Hurry?" Mr. Reid played the roles of an auto race driver. In another picture, "Double Speed," an automobile played a big part in the plot of the story. And in "The Charm School," his new picture which comes to the Arcade Theatre Sunday and Monday, he is seen as an automobile salesman. However, during the course of the picture, he descends the automobile business for the yet more delightful position of principal of a young ladies' boarding school. Pretty Lila Lee is his leading woman.

ALTA TODAY

"The Slim Princess," Mabel Normand's latest Goldwyn starring vehicle, centres around the figure of a Moravian princess, who, because of her daintiness and slim, supple figure is considered ineligible for marriage in Moravia, only young ladies whose graceful proportions bring the scales up to three hundred pounds are considered beautiful (in the extreme). Therefore, the poor, slim princess, (Mabel Normand) stands very little chance of realizing the happy state of matrimony. She is hidden away, until one day, because of an offer that her father has for the hand of her younger sister, a lawn fete is given in her honor, in an endeavour to find her a husband, so that her younger sister may be married. The law of Moravia says: "No girl can marry, who has an older, unmarried sister." For the celebration, the slim princess dons a rubber suit, and has it blown up until she assumes the proportions of her countrywomen. But unfortunately, a piece of wicker in the chair upon which she sat, punctured the rubber and the poor princess, glued to the spot, with shame and fright grew slimmer and thinner, and her late admirers watched in startled disappointment.

The slim princess retired to a quiet corner under the wall to dwell upon the inconvenience of her beautiful, little figure. Over the wall, came an adventurer, a young American, Pike. With straightforward, Yankee impulsiveness, he began making love to the princess, but the servants see him and chase him away. Not to be easily outdone, Pike returns to ask the slim princess' father to allow her to marry him.

Her father desires to know his rank, whether he has any social position, and just in what manner and way he is qualified for the hand of his daughter. Now Pike is a Yankee, and as Yankees are not kings, nor knights, nor anything else in this line, Pike has to do some quick thinking to find the qualifications necessary to gain his desire. He does it! But how? See Mabel Normand in "The Slim Princess" which comes to the Alta Theatre for two days, commencing Sunday.

PASTIME SUNDAY AND MONDAY

Helene Chadwick, "the most photographed girl in America" whose beautiful face adorns thousands of calendars, posters and other art creations, is Will Rogers' new leading woman in his new Goldwyn picture "Cupid—the Cowpuncher," which comes to the Pastime Theatre for two days, commencing Sunday.

Hitherto used to playing parts in which she wore handsome evening gowns and trailed her satins and laces over expensive rugs and hard wood polished floors, Miss Chadwick suddenly found herself on a ranch near the California desert surrounded by whooping cowboys. She plays the part of the daughter of the ranch owner, returned from an Eastern boarding school. "Roughing It" didn't bother Miss Chadwick at all as she is an outdoors girl, golfing and mountain climbing particularly appealing to her.

HUNTS THE LINE

Senator Mark Smith, Arizona Democrat, who was beaten for reelection, has been named by President Wilson as a member of the International Joint Commission on Canadian boundaries. He succeeds R. E. Glenn of North Carolina.

Made by a butter expert in a new plant

A. E. Hoffman, famous for over 30 years as butter maker, butter judge and teacher of butter making, supervises the production of every pound of Troco.

He has been distinguished for the peculiarly sweet and delicate flavor of his butter.

He puts this same butter sweetness and delicacy into Troco. If you are using butter you get the same flavor in Troco at half the price. If you are using margarin change to Troco and enjoy true butter flavor.

We built Mr. Hoffman a new plant of white tile and concrete—the last word in modern food plant construction. Laboratory, mechanical and sanitary equipment are perfect.

Same food value as butter

Troco is as delicious as butter, as your first taste will prove. Equally important, it has the same food value.

It is churned from Pleasant Valley Farms milk and snowy coconut fat, the vegetable equivalent for butter fat. Analysis proves nutritive value is the same.

With flavor the same and food value the same, it costs 25 to 40 cents a pound less than best butter. Your money brings two pounds of Troco for every one of butter.

28 YEARS AGO

(From East Oregonian, Jan. 3, 1893.) Deputy Sheriff Halley spent Friday and Saturday in the Valley and Helix region serving subpoenas, summons and papers in civil cases.

Saturday evening Col. and Mrs. Wm. Parsons entertained a number of their friends with a Resolution party, and the guests were requested to bring their resolutions for future good conduct written in rhyme. Mrs. J. E. Thorp was called upon to read them and a great deal of poetical ability was brought to light. The rest of the evening was devoted to cards and the Hanjo club dispersed sweet music.

The guests took their departure promptly at 12 o'clock, having wished one and all a happy new year. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Clifton, Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Burroughs, Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Halley, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Marshall, Misses Grady, Bell Bishop, Cozette Raley, Viola Cahoon, Flora Morse, Grace I. Welch, Anna Marshall, Neva Lane; Messrs. J. T. Lambirth, J. E. Lathrop, W. E. Lathrop, Will Parsons, Fred Whilmer, P. J. Moale, W. L. Kiddle, C. S. Marston, G. L. Edscombe, C. E. Roosevelt, Clyde Beach.

Mrs. H. Robbins has arrived from Spokane to visit her son J. H. Robbins and daughter Mrs. C. J. Carlson. Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hagen enjoyed a New Year's day with Mr. Hagen's parents at Adams.

Representative Jerry Stone was in the city last evening from Adams on his way below to be in attendance upon the next session of the legislature. Reports are that geese still abound in large numbers four or five miles northwest of Pendleton. A man who knows how to hunt them cannot fail to find excellent sport. Hepper Record, The East Oregonian of Pendleton is progressive.
