

People Here and There

Dan Smythe, sheep and wool man, arrived this morning from Portland where he has been on business.

Dan Clark, livestock agent for the O. W. R. & N. Co., arrived in Pendleton on No. 24 this morning on business for the company.

J. H. Morris, local freight agent for the Northern Pacific railroad, left last night for Portland on a business trip of two days' duration.

Arthur Warren, Jr., left yesterday for his home in Portland after spending the holidays at the home of his sister, Mrs. H. Breeding.

C. E. Prestbye, law partner of Homer L. Watts, at Athena, is a business visitor in Pendleton today. He is a former college basketball star.

George Ferguson, of the men's department, Peoples Warehouse, experienced all the thrills of losing his auto by theft, at Heppner on Saturday. He found it, however, unharmed, after he had called up Mrs. Ferguson to tell her that he would not come back to Pendleton until the following day. It seems that he took his machine on the trip to Heppner for the dedication of the new Elks home there. He was preparing to come home on Saturday evening but his passengers, Dr. H. M. Hanavan, Claude Miles and John Hamley, did not feel so inclined. So the Ferguson car was "stolen." Friends were persuaded to drive the machine to a garage about a mile out of town where it was kept behind nailed doors. Decided that he could not find his car before Sunday, Mr. Ferguson telephoned home that he would spend the night in Heppner. Then the car was "found."

John Anderson, manager of the Turn-a-Lum Lumber Co.'s yard at Helix, came in to Pendleton this morning on business.

John Gervais returned this morning from Southern, where he visited his relatives during the Christmas holidays. He also visited in Corvallis, where his brother, Dewey Gervais, formerly of this city, is a student at O. A. C.

Autos should be able to drive across the Snake river bridge between Franklin and Walla Walla counties in another month, Gus Bertholet, of Pasco, said today. One more span remains to be put in place and then the bridge will be paved. It eliminates the old ferry between Pasco and Burbank and will cut down the running time between Walla Walla and Pasco by a good many minutes. Pasco is now thinking strongly of the bridge that will soon be under way to connect it with Kennewick. In Benton county, across the Columbia. A five story hospital being built in Pasco is also nearing completion so far as exterior work goes, Mr. Bertholet says.

J. P. Walker, clerk of the local chapter of the Woodmen of the World, here today upon the twenty-eighth year of his service in that office. Of the entire order, there is but one clerk who has been longer in office than Mr. Walker. Mr. Walker has seen the lodge grow from a membership of 41 to the present enrollment of 555. Thomas Fitz Gerald is another veteran among the officers of the lodge, being now in his seventeenth year as banker for the order.

Marshals'hip is Uncertain

"Who will be the chief of police" is secure the place and will make none as and there is very little official authority as to what the answer will be. There are many who believe that the city would gain through the appointment of a new chief and various petitions asking for a change are in circulation. The report these petitions were sponsored by the W. C. T. U. was erroneous according to the president of that organization. It appears that circulators are working on their own initiative and as "fathers and mothers" rather than as representatives of any organization. A petition that was out in behalf of Chief Roberts yesterday is said to have been withdrawn. George Tonkin who has been listed as a possibility for the position declares he has never sought the position as a candidate but that he was approached by city officials to see if he would accept. He declares he has made no effort to secure the place and will make none as he is a federal employe and barred from such efforts.

portable surplus of this country, it is frequently averred, is already sold and if foreign demands continue good, the United States cannot help but get a better price for its wheat.

Rosenbaum's Review, which is one of the trade publications recognized as an authority, continues to be optimistic and declares that wheat will yet be four cents a pound. This means $2.40 a bushel at Chicago. At the present differential, wheat at that price would bring the grower at Pendleton $2 and possibly above.

"The wheat men here should receive $2 a bushel for their crop in 1920 in order to protect them against loss on the 1921 crop," a local authority said today. "The crop now in the ground is a high priced one as well as the crop in the warehouses now."

Indications are that the 1921 crop may make up in yield what will be lost in price. With an open, mild winter, the wheat condition is as near 100 percent as it has ever been at this time, it is pointed out.

The psychology of business at present is good, it was said today, and not only in wheat but in all general lines better things are coming. Several promising factors have already appeared, local men say, to substantiate their belief that the recovery this winter and spring will be rapid and permanent.

Nut Butter Brought to Perfection

We offer a pound of Troco Free to every family in this city—to those who think they can use nothing but butter—to those now using various brands of margarin.

We built Mr. Hoffman a new plant of white tile and concrete—the last word in modern food plant construction. Laboratory, mechanical and sanitary equipment are perfect.

It is an acquaintance pound to introduce you to the finally perfected nut butter—to a sweet, delicate table product churned from nut fats and Pleasant Valley milk, wonderful in flavor, highest in food value.

The cost of this free offer is enormous, but we can afford to make it for this reason:

Because we know that everyone who once tastes Troco, who once enjoys its wonderful flavor, will surely continue to use it in preference to any other product.

This gift pound wins countless permanent customers who find that Troco gives the quality they want, the food value they need, at the price everyone wants to pay.

Made by a butter expert in a new plant

A. E. Hoffman, famous for over 30 years as butter maker, butter judge and teacher of butter making, supervises the production of every pound of Troco.

He has been distinguished for the peculiarly sweet and delicate flavor of his butter.

He puts this same butter sweetness and delicacy into Troco. If you are using butter you get the same flavor in Troco at half the price. If you are using margarin change to Troco and enjoy true butter flavor.

With flavor the same and food value the same, it costs 25 to 40 cents a pound less than best butter. Your money brings two pounds of Troco for every one of butter.

Think what this big saving means when all food prices are so high and grocery bills climb out of sight. Figure it for yourself, by the week, by the month, by the year.

Think what it means not to be skimmed—to be able to serve the most healthful, necessary and appetizing of all foods in abundance—to use all you want and all you should have without thought of economy.

Think what it means to know you are serving the best—sweet, dainty, nut butter brought to perfection.

We offer a pound of Troco free—an acquaintance offer. We know Troco will please you, that you will always hereafter use it. So we can afford to buy you this first pound for the sake of your future custom. Please accept this gift pound and see.
