LIGHT SENTENCE FOR MOONSHINER AROUSES IRE OF NEWSPAPER

Spokane Review Grills $200 Fine Imposed on Man Captured by Sheriff Jinks Taylor After Hard Chase.

Two hundred dollars fine for a moonshiner does not strike the fancy of the Spokane Spokesman-Review, which, in an editorial this week, takes a slap at the recent action of the justice court at Athena which fined A. Benson, Milton moonshiner, that sum. In the same article the paper praises Sheriff Jinks Taylor and his men for their vigilance in ridding this county of stills.

"Moonshining made easy, genteel and profitable," would have been a fitting caption for a news item from Milton, Ore., says the editorial. The sheriff at Pendleton and his deputies, by wading waist deep in an icy river, surprised and captured a Kentucky expert in flagrant delicto. The illicit manufacturer was at work in a cave, surrounded by 400 gallons of corn mash, several gallons of distilled whiskey, a large quantity of mash not quite finished, and a copper still which held 50 gallons.

The distiller was taken before Judge Richards at Athena, promptly convicted and fined in the trifling sum of $200, which he promptly paid from a plethora roll in his sock, undoubtedly the profits of previous operations, and set at liberty to rig up a new outfit in a new place of concealment.

"This is simply trifling with justice. The extent of the man's operations, his apparent skill at the unlawful business, and his undeniable guilt called for a prison sentence. He was not only defying the law, but was making and distributing liquid poison. It is not improbable that victims have already died from his operations, yet he is turned loose with an insignificant fine to endanger the lives and health of others.

"The illicit traffic will be broken up and the law will be obeyed and respected when courts and juries come to a proper consciousness of their responsibilities and duties. So long as the moonshiners and boot-leggers know that the worst that can befall them, even if they should be caught and convicted, will be a light fine, which they can readily satisfy from ac-

SAYS 15 MILLION WILL STARVE WITHOUT AID

EAU CLAIRE, Wis., Jan. 5.—(A. P.)—Of the forty millions of Chinese in the famine area at least 15,000,000 are literally starving, writes J. L. Childs from Peking.

Mr. Childs, accompanied by his wife, left for Peking 14 years ago as a representative of the University of Washington in Y. M. C. A. student work.

"We are doing our best to get relief for them," but thus far the response are terribly inadequate," he wrote.

"It is estimated that to see one person through the famine period $10 Chinese money will be required. That means only $6 American money."

POLAND WILL PROVIDE CARE FOR FATHERLESS CHILDREN BY NEW LAW

LONDON, Jan. 5.—(A. P.)—Poland's new constitution probably will contain a provision for care of children, by the state which will make it unique, in opinion of officials here who have seen the draft. The article which now is before the Polish Diet reads:

"Each child deprived of parental care, or who is neglected morally or materially, has the right to secure care and aid from the state. The sphere of the state's duties in this capacity will be defined separately by laws, which will foresee as well the protection of mothers who may require aid, before the birth of the child and the protection of the child in infancy.

As far as known here no constitution in the world includes such a provision.
