DANCE IS ENJOYED

Launching the social season of the new year, Mrs. William F. Matlock, Mrs. Wesley N. Matlock and Mrs. Wade E. Privett were hostesses last night for a formal dancing party in the spacious home of the elder Mrs. Matlock.

Scarlet holly berries, brilliant poinsettias, mistletoe and an abundance of evergreen formed the decorations. Effective clusters, sprays, and festoons with green and crimson as the color note, were charmingly used about the rooms, where long mirrors reflected the hundred couples who danced. Punch was served from an alcove, where the same color scheme was carried out.

Mrs. Emmett Estes, daughter of Mrs. Wesley N. Matlock, and Miss Emily Carney, assisted the hostesses in receiving. Among out-of-town guests for the enjoyable affair were

Dr. and Mrs. Roscoe Smith, Mrs. H. Pope and George Hedger, of Walla Walla.

MRS. GRAY DEPARTS

Mrs. Charles Gray left last evening for Seattle, where she will be at the bedside of a friend who is seriously ill.

RETURN FROM PORTLAND

Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Hegeman, who have been visiting in Portland over the holidays, returned to their home in Pendleton on No. 18 Tuesday afternoon.

PIONEER CLUB MEETS

The reading by Mrs. W. B. Mays of "The Pioneers of Pendleton," written by Mrs. Nancy E. Despain, was a pleasing feature of a meeting of the Pioneer Ladies' Club yesterday afternoon in the club room of the county library. The story, after taking the listeners back to the days of '62 when the early settlers came to trace their homes in the untamed West, made the lives of the pioneers from the past to the present. Mrs. Louise Lampkin sang two solos. Mrs. J. H. Raley and Mrs. E. J. Burchill, who recently came to Pendleton to make her home, presided during the social hour at a tea table centered by pink cyclamen. Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. William Baker, Mrs. T. B. Swearingen, Mrs. H. S. Garfield, Mrs. Ellen Bond, Mrs. Frank Saling and Mrs. Wallace Cargill. Thirty-two members of the club were present.

MRS. ELDRIDGE VISITS

Mrs. Levi Eldridge, of Pilot Rock, is a Pendleton visitor. She is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Grover Pound.

P. A. R. TO MEET

Because a quorum was not present, the Daughters of the American Revolution did not hold their meeting last night. The meeting of officers will be held next Tuesday night at the library club room.

MISS SIMS RETURNS

Miss Helen Sims, who spent the Christmas holidays at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sims, has returned to Seattle to resume her studies at Holy Name Academy.

Mrs. Ebert Recovering

Mrs. A. C. Ebert, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia, is reported better today. She has been for some time confined to her home at 637 Johnson street.

CALLED BY ILLNESS

Mrs. Dave Forth, mother of Mrs. Albert Ryman of Rieth, left today for Coos, Oklahoma, where she was called by the illness of her daughter, Mrs. Sam Aljo.

DINNER PARTIES GIVEN

Several dinner parties were given in Pendleton last night preceding the dance at the Matlock home. Among them was a dinner for which Judge and Mrs. G. W. Phelps were hosts. Covers were laid for a number of guests at a table centered by pink roses and greenery. Mr. and Mrs. James B. Welch were hosts for an informal dinner at their home on Madison street, their guests numbering ten.

MRS. CLARKE IS HOSTESS

Mrs. W. J. Clarke was hostess yesterday afternoon for the North Side bridge club. Three tables were in play during the afternoon and high score honors were won by Mrs. Henry Dixon Jones. Besides club members, Mrs. Clarke entertained as her guests Mrs. J. C. Snow, Mr. Richard Sims, Mrs. J. K. Thompson and Mrs. L. L. Rogers. The hostess was assisted in serving by Mrs. H. H. Hattery, Mrs. George Haslett and Mrs. Rogers.

MEDAL IS WON

The local union of the W. C. T. U. has won the silver medal for contests, by virtue of having held more declamatory contests during the past year than any other union in the state. Under the direction of Mrs. Marietta Jones of this city, five silver medal contests and one gold were held here in 1920.

NEWS NOTES OF PENDLETON

Thomas Murphy Returns
Thomas Murphy has returned to University of Oregon to resume his studies. He was called home before the holidays by the illness of the late Mrs. Arnes Nelson, his grandmother.

"FUR AND VELVET"

This fascinating combination of mink, fur and embroidery is but one of several interesting adaptations offered this season—silk and a deep, rich old blue velvet, for instance, squirrel with gray silk duvety, and the tracery done in tarnished gold, if you please, or black velvet and fox.

Trees Are Cut

Workmen for the Pacific Power & Light Co. are cutting the topmost branches from trees in the streets of Pendleton. The growth interferes with the electric current during wet weather as the current leaks down the trees. The wood cut from the trees is given to the owners when desired.

Several Trainmen Removed

Between 25 and 40 passenger conductors, brakemen and other trainmen on the O. W. R. & N. system working in and out of Pendleton, were laid off on Jan. 1. Included in the number are quite a few veterans of the service. Physical disabilities are said to have been responsible for most of the removals, an examination for hearing, eyesight and other senses having recently been given the men. As a result of the dismissals, a large number of new and younger men in the service are holding runs from here to Portland and to Huntington.

Speakers at Rotary Club

John L. Vaughan, L. C. Scharpf, Roy Raley, George Hartman and James Sturgis were the speakers at the Rotary Club luncheon today, their topic being the improvement of Pendleton as a community and business center. The luncheon which was well attended was held at the Elks' club.

NO COMPROMISE WITH ETHERIDGE SAYS EVANS

PORTLAND, Jan. 5.—(A. P.)—John Etheridge conferred with attorneys following his release late yesterday on $20,000 bond. District Attorney Evans said he is considering no compromise with Etheridge.

BANK SUPERINTENDENT NAMES NEW DEPUTIES

SALAM, Or., Jan. 5.—F. C. Bramwell, newly appointed superintendent of banks at the conclusion of a meeting of the state banking board held here yesterday announced that he had selected Marshall Hooper as assistant superintendent and examiner. Other appointments include W. M. Adair, S. L. Stewart and Fred W. Bland, as examiners; T. H. Gilbert, assistant examiner, and Miss Edna Simonton, stenographer. Examiners Adair and Stewart will have charge of field examinations, while Examiners Bland and Gilbert will look after office examinations. The board authorized Mr. Bramwell to employ an additional examiner, but the name of this man has not yet been announced. The department will exercise all its authority and power for the enforcement of the banking laws and in every way assist in placing the banking business in Oregon on a sound basis," said Mr. Bramwell yesterday. "Every effort will be made to protect depositors, and to this end the banking board has assured me that it will co-operate to the fullest extent. "I anticipate some amendments or extensions of our present banking laws at the next session of the legislature. There will be presented, no doubt, a bill providing for control and supervision of all financial institutions within the state where the funds of innocent people are solicited for investments on deposit. "The present financial conditions are without precedent. Money is plentiful, but the people are marking time before making investments. I feel that there is no cause for alarm if the people will exercise their usual good judgment."

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Junior Tryouts Today—Tryouts for parts in the junior play, "Green Stockings" were held today with Miss Ada St. Peter, class advisor, Miss Kathleen Meloy and Miss Elizabeth Severance as a committee to choose the cast.

Advertising Begun on Senior Play—Advertising has begun on the senior play "The House Next Door" which is to be staged January 14 and 15. Large posters have been made with a picture of the cast in the center. The play is in three acts and the scenes are laid in England. A change had to be made in the cast at a late date. The play is to be given two nights and at much smaller admission fee than usual. Donald Woodworth is in charge of the advertising.

Drama Club Chooses Play—"You Never Can Tell," by Bernard Shaw has been chosen by the Drama Club for their mid-year play. It is in four acts and has five men characters and four women characters. The play will not be given until March as the senior and junior plays have taken all the convenient dates. It will first be studied in the club and tryouts will be held later to select the cast.

MRS. CHARLES WELLMAN DIES AFTER OPERATION

FREEWATER, Jan. 5.—Word was received here this week of the death in Rochester, Minn., at Mayo Brothers' hospital, of Mrs. Charles Wellman, who underwent an operation for cancer there the day before Christmas. Mrs. Wellman formerly lived at Umatilla and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Phillip and had been living in Alberta about a year. She made a short visit to her parents before going to Rochester. Mr. Wellman accompanied her and is now on his way home with the body. It is expected the funeral will be held at Walla Walla. Besides her husband and parents Mrs. Wellman is survived by a 4-year-old daughter, Caroline, and two sisters, Mrs. J. Kelly of Prescott, Wash., and Miss Della Phillip, Cmapine.

KANTLEEK

It Can't Leak, Because It's Made in One Piece

A KANTLEEK is built like a bottle—all in one piece. Most hot-water bottles are made in sections, then cemented together. When cement dries and cracks, the bottle leaks.

Every Kantleek Hot-Water Bag is moulded of pure soft rubber—one continuous piece. No parts, patches, cement. Even stopper socket is moulded in.

And guaranteed for a full two years' service—or a new Kantleek free.

Don't wait until your old bag leaks. Get a Kantleek. Your old one may break open tonight.
