

Social and Club News

CLUB MEETING INTERESTING.

The life and works of John Massfield, Mr. Augustine Birrell, and Stephen Phillips, English poets and dramatists, formed the subject for a meeting of the Thursday Afternoon Club for which Mrs. Guy L. Boyden and Miss Beth Smith were hostesses yesterday afternoon in the library club room.

A brief sketch of the life of each of the three men was given by Mrs. George Hartman. Mrs. L. M. Spalding read three selections from the poems of Massfield, giving "The Harp," "Beauty," and two sea poems, "The Daurer," and "The Loch Arroy." Mrs. A. L. Schaefer gave a review of the tragedy, "Paola and Francesca," by Phillips. Oswald Olsen sang "The Two Grenadiers" and "Out on the Deep," Mrs. B. A. McDonald playing the piano accompaniment.

A basket of brilliant red and white blossoms and greenery formed the centerpiece for a charming candle lighted tea table for the social hour which followed the program. Mrs. E. L. Smith and Mrs. S. R. Thompson poured, and the hostesses were assisted in serving by Mrs. James Thompson, Mrs. Herbert Thompson, Mrs. John M. Dolph and Miss Vera Temple.

As grand past installation officer, Mrs. Anna Peterson as grand vice president and Mrs. Sarah McBrinn, grand secretary and vice president, as assistant, Mrs. Ella Ross acted as grand usher. Mrs. Emma Tompkins of Rieth, played the installation music.

The new officers installed are past president, Mrs. Lottie Long; president, Mrs. Agnes Williamson; first vice-president, Mrs. Olive Allen; second vice-president, Mrs. Celestine King; financial secretary, Mrs. Myrtle Farley; recording secretary, Mrs. Carrie Dale; treasurer, Mrs. Ella Ross; usher, Mrs. Agda Anderson; assistant usher, Mrs. Dessie Nelson; outer watch, Mrs. Angie Newton; musician, Mrs. Ava Edwards. Captains for the membership campaign for the coming year were also chosen, they being Mrs. Mary McGee, captain No. 1; Mrs. Ava Edwards, captain No. 2; and Mrs. Marietta Jones, captain No. 3.

Preceding the installation, Mrs. Cecil Hampton was initiated into the order. Mrs. Tompkins played two instrumental solos.

Mrs. Lottie Long and her committee are winners in the past membership campaign, and will be entertained at some future date by the two losing captains and their committees.

Captain No. 1 and committee will entertain the lodge on the next social day, held January 19.

INSTALLATION IS HELD.
Installation of 1931 officers for the Degree of Honor was held yesterday afternoon in the I. O. O. F. hall, with Mrs. Marietta Jones, grand president, as installing officer, Mrs. Carrie Dale deemer were elected at a meeting in the Parish Hall yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Lee Moorhouse, for many years vice president of the Parish Aid, was elected president of the organization. Mrs. Charles H. Marsh, retiring president, was chosen vice-president. Mrs. Clarence Whitman was re-elected secretary and Mrs. H. E. Bickers was re-elected treasurer.

Mrs. Frank Frasier was chosen as president of the Auxiliary and Mrs. J. F. Robinson as vice-president. Mrs. John Halley was re-elected secretary and Mrs. Lucy Donaldson re-elected treasurer.

For the Sanctuary Chapter, Mrs. W. D. Humphrey was elected warden. Mrs. H. E. Bickers was re-elected vice-warden and Mrs. Norborne Berkeley was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

About twenty members were present.

SOCIETY WILL MEET.
Miss Alice Greenwood will act as hostess for a meeting of the Missionary Society of the Christian church tomorrow night in the reception rooms of the church. The subject for the meeting will be "The Translation of the Bible in Indian," and Mrs. Ross Maloney will use this as her topic for a paper. There will be music by the quartet. Mrs. R. L. Bussabarger will be in charge of the devotional. Mrs. Earl Williams will read a paper on "A Day With the Bible Women," and Mrs. Campbell and Cleo Campbell will recite. The program will be followed by a social hour.

The society's special meeting, held on Sunday, was very successful. A generous offering, to be used for carrying on missionary work, was received from the members.

NEW OFFICERS ELECTED.
New officers for the three women's societies of the Church of the Re-

HOSTS FOR CARD PARTY.
Dr. and Mrs. C. S. Terpening were hosts last night for an informal card party, their guests being Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hamley, Mr. and Mrs. James Johns, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Henry Vogler, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Cochran, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. Arlie Terpening, Mrs. Alice Munro and Mrs. F. J. McMonies. A pleasing feature of the evening were readings by Dr. Terpening, who recited by request "Christmas Night in the Quarters," "The Years," and "Everybody Dances."

WILL HOLD INSTALLATION.
The ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic will hold installation of officers tomorrow afternoon in the county library. Mrs. Loretta Williams, of Milton, will be here for the event.

MISS BEAN IS GUEST.
Miss Eleanor Bean, of Portland, arrived last night from Portland to be the guest of her aunt, Mrs. John Endicott. Miss Bean was accompanied by her cousin, Lee Endicott of this city, who has been visiting in Portland.

SENATOR PENROSE
(Continued from page 1.)
cause increased food prices. Penrose joined other supporters of tariff in saying the prohibitive duties it carries are necessary to save the farmers of the west. The majority of democrats with the help of Wilson's almost certain veto, hope to prevent enactment of the measure on the ground the bill would cause immediate price increases in clothing and food and wreck American foreign commerce by the establishment of retaliatory tariffs.

Claims Discrimination.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 6.—(U. P.)—Higgenbotham said that wool from Uruguay had been selling for twenty cents per pound here, while western wool of the same quality sold in Boston for 14 cents. He also exhibited samples of western wool which sold in Boston for nine cents.

WANTS TERRITORY BACK.
PARIS, Jan. 6.—(U. P.)—Russia's forthcoming military campaign would end until the lost territories of Russia are restored, according to advices to the French foreign office. The advices said that bolshevik agents are already active in Esthonia and Latvia, attempting to foment soviet revolutions.

CATTLE WEAK TODAY.
PORTLAND, Jan. 6.—(A. P.)—Cattle are weak, hogs and sheep steady; eggs lower, the buying price unchanged at 45 cents; selling, candied at 48 to 50 cents; select 52 to 54 cents.

ELEVATOR PLANT BURNED.
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 6.—(U. P.)—Fire did half a million dollars damage to the plant of the Otis Elevator Construction Company here early today. Warehouses, machine shops, a quantity of hardwood lumber were burned and a large stock of steel severely damaged.

NEWS NOTES OF PENDLETON
Patent in Hospital.
C. C. Robinson is a patient in St. Anthony's hospital. He underwent an operation today.

Miss Robb Convalescing.
Miss Marie Robb is convalescing from a recent operation. Miss Robb had her tonsils removed.

Tom Elliott in Hospital.
Tom Elliott, of Pilot Rock, is a patient at St. Anthony's hospital. He was operated upon today.

N. P. Officials Here
H. E. Ruppel, general road master for the Northern Pacific railroad, and Charles Selch, assistant road master, are here today on business.

Heavy Frost Last Night.
A heavy frost fell last night and the temperature dropped to 27, the mercury being lower than at any time in the past several nights. The maximum today is 42, says Major Lee Moorhouse, official weather observer. The barometer registers 29.62 and there is no prospect of a storm.

Court Meeting Uncertain.
It is undecided whether or not the federal district court will hold its meeting in Pendleton this year, according to S. A. Newberry, clerk. The meeting date is the first Tuesday in April, which falls this year on the fifth.

Bills Are Being Raised
Five dollar bills that have been raised to $20 by counterfeiters are being circulated in Walla Walla, Jack Flynn, traveling salesman for Blake-McFall Co., of Portland, told Pendleton friends last evening. Mr. Flynn arrived from the Garden City last evening on business. He declared that Pendleton merchants would do well to look over their $20 bills as some of the spurious money might easily migrate this far.

Oddfellows to Install.
The three branches of the Oddfellows will hold a joint installation and follow with a social meeting and refreshments tomorrow night. Officers for the Rebekahs, Encampment and I. O. O. F. will be installed jointly and a big time is being planned by persons in the three branches.

Interesting Program Given.
An interesting assembly was held this morning in which the high school orchestra and the Girls' Glee Club were the features. The glee club sang three numbers which were well received. This was their first appearance before the school this year. The orchestra, of which Bert McDonald is instructor, gave two numbers.

Tickets for Senior Play on Sale.
Tickets for the senior play which is to be presented January 14 and 15, are on sale at Thompson's Drug store. All general admission tickets are 25 cents with the reserved seats 50 cent. General admission tickets are also in the hands of the senior class.

Students Working on Essays.
Students of the English classes are working on essays for the prize essay contest which is being carried on by the Knights of Pythias. The subject is "Americanism" and essays are to be from 500 to 750 words in length. Prizes are to be given for the best work. Every English student in the school is obliged to compete.

Lantern to Be Larger.
The next edition of the Lantern, which will make its appearance tomorrow, will have six pages due to the extra news over the holidays and the advertising of the senior play. The Lantern this year is a paying activity with John Beckwith Jr., as editor and Miss Thelma Blanchette, business manager.

TRADE DEALS TO BE FACTOR
(Continued from page 1.)
this year a program of closing to fishing one stream each year in this county. He would have the stream closed for possibly two years before allowing resumption of fishing. In that way, he believes, trout would have an opportunity to grow and the rapid depletion of game fish stocks in the streams of the county would be halted.

Local sportsmen are in accord with most of the suggestions made. The Multnomah Anglers Club and the Oregon Sportsmen's League, of Portland, have recently met to consider needs and will present their suggestions to the commissioners on Saturday.

To Cure a Cold in One Day
Take Grove's LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE tablets. The genuine bears the signature of E. W. Grove. 30c.—Adv.

DEMPSEY WILL APPEAR AT MILWAUKIE JAN. 26
PORTLAND, Jan. 6.—(A. P.)—Jack Dempsey will box six rounds at Milwaukie Jan. 26 with an opponent yet to be chosen it was announced here today.

WATCH YOUR HEALTH
IMPROVE WITH ITS USE

OLD MONK OLIVE OIL

The highest standard of quality. Made and bottled in Nice, France, for people who discriminate.

Gray Bros. Grocery Co.
THREE PHONES QUALITY

THE THOMAS SHOP

BLOUSES

OUR ENTIRE STOCK OF BLOUSES AT

One-Half Regular Price

Inventory time is close at hand and we would rather clean them out (even though it means a sacrifice) than put them down on the inventory sheets.

Clever tie-on effects, Russian Blouses, rare dinner blouses of satin georgette, crepe de chine, jersey, exactly one-half their former price.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Probation and will be automatically dropped if their grades fall to satisfy the scholarship committee under Dean G. A. Covell. This committee determined at the first of the year to weed out all loafers and to do everything possible to raise the standard of scholarship.

First Lieutenant John E. Selby, cavalry, United States army, has been detailed as assistant professor of military science and tactics at the college, according to word received at the military department yesterday. Lieutenant Selby has been stationed at the southern branch of the University of California. He will assist Major Cushman Hartwell in handling the cavalry unit here.

The new commerce building plans have been posted for inspection in the office of Dean J. A. Besell. It is expected that work on the structure will be under way in early spring.

O. A. C. NEWS EVENTS

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE Corvallis, Jan. 6.—Students are back for the second term of work, classes having started Wednesday. Up to the end of the first day of registration 59 new regular students had registered as well as 57 short course students. This brings the total number of long course students for the school year to 1136 and makes a grand total, including short course students of 3723.

Fourteen students have been suspended for the remainder of the school and many have been placed on probation on account of low grades. Names of those suspended are being withheld. Students suspended who return to college next school year will be placed on

CLOSING OUT OUR PHONOGRAPH Records

All $1.00 Records at 75c each or 7 for $5.00

THOMPSONS' DRUG STORE

Furniture Sale

OUR ENTIRE $30,000 STOCK REDUCED AT ONE-HALF OF THE FORMER PRICE

Living Room, Dining Room, Tea Room and Kitchen Furniture, Chairs, Rockers, Library Tables, in fact nearly our entire stock will be reduced at 1-2 former price.

NOTICE—One-third off on Peninsular, Jewel and Copper-Clad Ranges, Steel Beds, Steel Springs, Phonographs—the Pathe, Stradivari, Mandel, Aeolian Vocalion, Librola, Table Phonographs; Window Shades, Kitchen Cabinets and Congolectum Rugs.

THIS SALE IS FOR A FEW DAYS ONLY AND FOR CASH ONLY

Crawford Furniture Co.

Corner Court and Main Sts. Phone 496 Pendleton, Ore.

HOPF'S UPSTAIRS SHOP

GREAT One-Half Price Sale

WOMEN'S AND MISSES' SUITS, COATS, WOOL DRESSES AND SILK DRESSES.

A special rack of garments offered at just one half the regular price.

OVER TAYLOR HARDWARE CO.

Beard's Cash Store

Showing Complete line TRUNKS, SUIT CASES AND BAGS AT POPULAR PRICES

Jim Beard's Cash Store

Phone 432 FOR GROCERIES—LOW PRICES Quality and Service Always

WE CARRY A FULL SUPPLY OF

Chicken Food, Hog Food, Cow Food

And are able to give you the LOWEST PRICES possible.

If you trade any place without asking our PRICES first you are the loser.

---

UMATILLA FLOUR & GRAIN CO.

220 E. Court St. Phone 1014-351

COSTS LESS TO USE

20 MULE TEAM BORAX SOAP CHIPS

It's The BORAX In The SOAP That Does The Work