IT HAS BEEN SAID

that half the money spent on advertising is wasted.
THAT PROBABLY WAS TRUE SIX YEARS AGO.
IT CERTAINLY IS NOT TRUE NOW.
TO THE AUDIT BUREAU OF CIRCULATION IS DUE much of the credit for the difference.
SIX YEARS AGO SPACE WAS BOUGHT BY GUESSWORK
Now it is bought with a definite knowledge of circulation:—how many copies are printed, how they are distributed, how many paid for and how many given away.
THE ADVERTISER WHO DOES NOT PROTECT HIMSELF by asking to see the A. B. C. reports of the publications he uses is reactionary and invites a return to the wasteful methods of former years.

SUGAR CROP WILL BE HEAVY IS FORECAST

HONOLULU, T. H., Jan. 7.—(A. P.)—There are prospects for an enormous sugar crop to Hawaii in 1921 with comparatively low prices prevailing, according to a review prepared by the Hawaiian Trust Company and published by the Honolulu Star-Bulletin. According to this source, Hawaiian planters will receive an average price of not more than six cents for the next year's crop. On the other hand, says the review, there are indications for an increased consumption of sugar next year. The Hawaiian plantations are represented as being on a sound financial basis despite the present depression, but some of them, says the review, will show little, if any profit, next season. The Hawaiian Trust Company's report says that the Crockett Refinery in California, approximately 90 per cent of the stock of which is owned in Hawaii, has suffered a loss of several million dollars this season owing to inability to dispose of sugar at a price in keeping with the figure at which purchases were made. Consequently, the review points out, while many of the Hawaiian planters seemingly have made large profits in 1920, their losses incident to the situation of Crockett refinery have reduced income considerably. The report adds: "We understand that since July 14, 1920, the Hawaiian sugar plantations under the contracts have shipped to the Crockett refinery in the neighborhood of 12,000 tons of raw sugar. We understand also that the carry-over on December 31, as now estimated, will be in the neighborhood of 30,000 tons."

What Are They Talking About?

What are they talking about—Mrs. Warren G. Harding and Mrs. Calvin Coolidge? Inauguration gowns, maybe, or cooking for their husbands. The next first lady of the land and the next "second lady" were snappily as they chatted in the winter sunshine outside the Harding home at Maricao, O.

friend, both of whom are jointly charged with the murder. They placed the entire responsibility for executing the crime squarely on Wade. The defense started its testimony today.

Entertainment for Elks Tonight

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy
This is a pleasant, safe and reliable medicine for coughs and colds. It has been in use for many years and is held in high esteem in those households where its good qualities are best known. It is a favorite with mothers of young children, as it contains no opium or other harmful drug. Try it when you have need for such a remedy.

Worth Considering
The question is not so much how you contract a cold, but how to get rid of it with the least loss of time and inconvenience. If you will consider the experience of others under similar circumstances, who have been most successful in checking their colds, in their beginning, you will secure a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy without delay, and use it faithfully. There are many families who have used this preparation successfully for years and hold it in high esteem. It is excellent.

Constipation
Constipation of the bowels is a stoppage of the sewerage system that removes waste matter from the body. It is as necessary that your bowels move regularly once each day, to carry off this waste, as it is that the waste pipes of your home be kept open and carry off the waste from the house. If you would enjoy good health, keep your bowels regular by taking Chamberlain's Tablets when needed.

Bilious Headache
When you have a severe headache, a disordered stomach and constipation, take three of Chamberlain's Tablets. They will correct the disorders of the liver and bowels, effectually curing the headache.

ular enough "ers Mitzi flits from these parts on tour. The piece is sparkling with humor and the music will undoubtedly be pointed into the public's ears via phonographs and dance orchestras before the season is much older. Mitzi portrays a bankrupt Roumanian countess, who poses as a boy and is thus discovered by an American engineer-tourist, who prevails upon the "lad" to accompany him to America to make a fortune as a boy soprano. The first act is laid in Roumania, and the balance of the action takes place in New York's Greenwich Village section. Of course, everybody but the hero knows that Mitzi is not a boy and the third act is devoted to breaking the news to him. The best part of the whole business is that Mitzi must romp through two whole acts clad in knickerbockers, which she certainly becomes.

ed, his own pal, Elwood Wade took up the fight for his life in court here where he is on trial for the murder of George Nott, husband of his mistress. The defense faced the task of breaking down the testimony presented by Mrs. Ethel Nott, widow of the murdered man and John Johnston, Wade's Mitzi sings and dances as charmingly as ever, and is exceedingly "easy to look at." Her mere appearance on the stage provoked an ovation which was intensified after her brilliant performance. Boyd Marshall, as the American hero, acts in an agreeable and manly style, is an excellent singer, and in Mr. Mitzi in private life. Here's domestic concord! Sydney Greenstreet, as a butler, deserves mention, and his song, "The Worm's Revenge," brought him forth many encores on opening night. The chorus can really sing and dance and these in minor roles fill them most capably. It is feared that road cities will be compelled to wait some time for Mitzi. Her tours have created for her a large following and her appearance in the West and South is to be eagerly looked forward to.
