OREGON LEGISLATURE OPENS WITH RITNER PRESIDENT OF SENATE

Bills for Ten Million More Bonds for Highway Construction Will be Considered and Reorganization of Fish Commission.

SALEM, Ore., Jan. 10.—The thirty-first biennial session of the Oregon legislature opened here today. In the senate there are 27 republicans, one democrat and two independents. The membership of the house is composed of 58 republicans and two democrats. Senator Roy W. Ritner, of Pendleton, was the selection for president of the senate, made some time ago, when Senator R. L. Eddy, of Roseburg, withdrew from the race. Representative Louis E. Bean, of Eugene, was unopposed for speaker of the house.

The program for the opening day consisted of organization of both houses, and the scheduled delivery of the message of Governor Ben W. Olcott.

Among the important measures to be proposed during the session, according to forecasts made by members before the opening of the legislature today, will be legislation dealing with the Japanese situation, bills for $10,000,000 more bonds for highway construction, regulating highway traffic, reorganizing the fish and game commission, making the fish commission one body and the game commission another, measure for consolidating the Portland dock and port commission, an amendment changing the tenure of office for Portland school teachers, protection for bond investors, tax credits to soldiers, sailors and marines for service during the world war, promoting the tourist traffic and amending the syndicalism and workmen compensation laws.

DUBLIN NOW GOES TO BED AT 10 O'CLOCK

DUBLIN, Jan. 10.—(A. P.)—The 10 o'clock curfew, lately put into effect, hit Dublin a hard blow. The city had accommodated itself easily to a midnight closing hour previously in force, but the 10 o'clock embargo on all activity meant the complete abandonment of all social functions in the evening. The result has been to kill all the trade serving such events.

The great stores are almost idle, and the managers of some of the most popular of them say that they are operating at a loss. There is no demand for new dresses.

The theaters are suffering most. At one house the first night after curfew, there were only eleven people in the auditorium. The moving picture houses are doing better, but they all have to close at nine to enable their patrons to get home before the curfew hour. The music halls which used to open to 1000 houses, a night have now only one or two. As they were always full for each performance this means cutting off half their income.

The tramway company's cars are now nearly empty in the evening. They lately raised the fares by parliamentary authority to enable them to meet increased expenses, but the drop due to the curfew has more than wiped out the additional receipts.

The regulation is declared to be imposed in the interest of the public to induce them to avoid the risks of being abroad after dark. In present conditions, even if there were no curfew, many people would be too timid to leave home in the evenings.

Still there is much criticism of the imposition of a curfew at 10 o'clock at night, provoked by associations which took place at nine o'clock in the morning.

LORD MAYOR OF CORK WELCOMED TO NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—(A. P.)—Daniel O'Callaghan, lord mayor of Cork, on his arrival yesterday was greeted by crowds of "Irish republic" sympathizers. Accompanying him was Peter MacSwiney, brother of Cork's late lord mayor, Harry Boland, secretary to Emmett de Valera, and Arthur Mayor, Garmon and Deputy Mayor Malone of Jersey City.

O'Callaghan's automobile was followed by a procession that waved Sinn Fein and American flags.

Crowds gathered before his hotel and O'Callaghan, responding to calls, appeared on a balcony. He spoke of his trip as a stowaway, expressed appreciation for the welcome and said he probably would remain in America several months.

O'Callaghan said Ireland would not accept home rule.

"We don't want home rule; we want nothing but freedom," he declared.

Mr. Boland announced that the lord mayor would not appear for public speaking until he had testified in Washington before the committee of inquiry.

O'Callaghan, he said, would remain here several days.

Wanted To See Cardinal

BALTIMORE, Jan. 10.—Daniel O'Callaghan, who arrived here yesterday from Norfolk on his way to New York, was disappointed in not seeing Cardinal Gibbons. No visitor has been permitted to see the cardinal since his return home because of his illness. A few citizens, friends of the Irish cause, greeted the lord mayor and his party.

At the hotel Mrs. Rebecca Hogan, a blind girl, was given a hearty hand-mixed Dewey succeeded in getting a shake because she smilingly informed the line ahead, according to reports him she was a "member of the lodge," reaching here.

Is Your Watch Right?

Here's Uncle Sam's master clock. Twice a day this tall fellow to the U. S. naval observatory at Washington flashes out the exact time to all U. S. cities and to vessels within 3000 or 4000 miles of Washington.

CARUSO MAY NEVER SING AGAIN.

Enrico Caruso, the greatest tenor the world has ever heard, will be very lucky if he is ever able to sing in opera again. That is the opinion of New York physicians who have followed closely his attack of pleurisy and empyema. Caruso is shown here with his wife and daughter, Gloria.

STEAMER QUEEN BREAKS CRANK SHAFT AT SEA

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 10.—(A. P.)—The steamer Queen of the Pacific Steamship company, bound from San Francisco for Seattle and Tacoma, became disabled off Point Arena, 100 miles north of here, yesterday, and was taken in tow by the steamer Admiral Dewey of the same line, which is bound from Seattle for this port, the company announced. The Queen has ninety passengers on board.

The company dispatched a tug from here to relieve the Admiral Dewey. The vessels are due here today.

The Queen broke her crank shaft while three miles off Point Arena and was in danger of being carried ashore before a strong wind when the Ad-Adelphi girl, was given a hearty hand-mixed Dewey succeeded in getting a shake because she smilingly informed the line ahead, according to reports him she was a "member of the lodge," reaching here.

DETROIT LAYS TRACKS DESPITE INJUNCTION OF THE CIRCUIT COURT

Railway Manager Who Had Restraining Order is Held Close Prisoner While Policemen Guard Workmen.

DETROIT, Jan. 10.—(A. P.)—Guarded by about 200 policemen, 100 laborers employed by the city early yesterday laid tracks of Detroit's new municipal street railway across tracks of the Detroit United Railway company at St. Jean and Mack avenues, after Circuit Judge H. J. Ditzeman had issued an injunction restraining the city from crossing.

While the work was being accomplished, E. J. Burdick, assistant general manager of the Detroit United Railway, who had the restraining order, was a virtual prisoner on Belle Isle, due, he said, to his being taken to the park by the police.

When the work was begun, Burdick is said to have demanded that the work be halted. He was about to produce the injunction papers, it is said, when he was taken into custody by a policeman and taken in a patrol wagon to the island for investigation on a charge of disturbing the peace. He was soon liberated, but was unable to return because the tender of the Belle Isle drawbridge would not close the span. The bridge had been closed to permit the patrol wagon to cross the later to permit it to return. Burdick was unable to cross until daylight. The Belle Isle bridge is closed to all except police traffic at midnight.

Burdick declared contempt of court proceedings would be started against the city and that he intended to file a personal suit against the city for false arrest.

PEACE NEGOTIATIONS WITH IRELAND CEASE

DUBLIN, Jan. 10.—(A. P.)—All peace negotiations in Ireland have broken down, according to reports in official circles. Definite information is lacking, but it is said Premier Lloyd George has refused to consider the Sinn Fein's proposal for the withdrawal of the home rule bill.

Officials here take a gloomy view. Increased activity recently by the military and republicans in the martial law areas are considered as indicating an extension of guerrilla warfare.

"Beauty Spots"

Chicago doctors are busy scratching arms. Every family physician is urging his patients to be inoculated against smallpox and public health officials admit they are worried by the steady spread of the epidemic in East Chicago. Dr. H. E. Betz is shown vaccinating Miss Agnes Vera. Girls don't mind the scars, Dr. Betz says; rather, they regard them as "beauty spots."

U. S. LEADS IN SOLDIER VOCATIONAL TRAINING

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—The U. S. is doing more along the line of vocational rehabilitation of former service men than any other country in the world, the senate educational committee said in a report today accompanying a bill which would extend training benefits to Americans who served in the allied armies and also to widows and children of men who lost their lives.

The committee's report said 75,000 men had taken advantage of the training law and that 2900 had been restored to industrial activity.

WANT STREET LITTER PLACED IN CONTAINERS

A cleaner Pendleton is being sought by the street committee of the city council. Manuel Friedly, chairman, has started to obtain the co-operation of the citizens, the street department and the police, to bring about cleaner and healthier conditions, especially along Main street.

Educating the public and the merchants to use the numerous galvanized iron rubbish containers along the streets is one of the first steps to be taken. Paper boxes, cigarette containers and the other material which is carelessly thrown to the street by pedestrians and by some store keepers should go into the containers, Mr. Friedly declares. The city ordinance covers that request, he says, and the police will be asked to enforce the ordinance.

"We cannot keep Main street clean with the trash alone," Mr. Friedly says. "We must have cooperation from the public."

SALINA POST UPHELD BY KANSAS LEGION IN TOWNLEY ACTION

Say Townley Stands Convicted in Minnesota for Acts of Disloyalty When Country Was Engaged in War and is Dangerous.

NEWTON, Kas., Jan. 10.—(A. P.)—Action of the Salina Post of the American Legion in opposing the Non-Partisan League movement in Kansas was upheld today by the executive committee of the American Legion, Department of Kansas. Resolutions were adopted denouncing A. C. Townley, head of the league.

The resolution said: "Whereas, A. C. Townley stands convicted in Minnesota for acts of disloyalty committed when our country was engaged in war, and the presence of said A. C. Townley and his paid assistants in Salina and vicinity has brought about a condition of stress that endangers the peace of the community, therefore, be it

"Resolved that we heartily approve the action of the officers and members of Salina Post, No. 82, against A. C. Townley and such other radical agitators and paid assistants, and we commend the officers and members of said post for the orderly manner in which they are conducting the fight."

FEASTING AND PRAYING BEGINS TO GET RESULTS

DONSVILLE, Ill., Jan. 10.—(U. P.)—Constant prayer and fasting are beginning to work a divine miracle on Ernie Harrington, according to his wife, who on the 43rd day of her hunger fast to save her husband's soul, she told the United Press. "I know Ernie won't admit he's being saved, but I'm sure he is," she said. "I've walked close to God for several years and know his power." She said this was the second time she resorted to prayer and fasting to overcome Satan. "About a year ago, while visiting with an unfortunate in our little jail, I met a delinquent girl," she said. "I prayed and fasted two weeks. The girl's soul was saved. She was released from jail. The Bible tells us prayer can even move mountains. Is it too much then to believe it can save Ernie's soul?" Mrs. Harrington refused again to partake of chicken broth which was placed beside her bed by her mother. "I'm being nourished by 'spiritual manna' from on high," she told her mother.
