DANCE THE DREAM AWAY.

(By Frank L. Stanton.)
If life's a dream—a riddle,
As still the signs say,
We'll keep time to the fiddle
And dance the dream away!

In winter we'll be singing,
And reap the joys of June,
But still this world comes ringing,
"The music stops too soon!"

Yet while the time is racing
To meet another day,
It's joy that we're embracing,
So—dance the dream away!

GIVE OREGON THE PROFITS

A PUBLIC service corporation operating in Oregon and having its head offices in New York City, recently advised its managers in this state to curtail to the utmost any new development of properties. It urged this conservation not because it does not want to serve the people of Oregon but because money for financing such additions or extensions cannot be obtained, either in Oregon or in the money channels of New York City.

This is probably but one concrete instance of many throughout Oregon where a legitimate business concern is finding finance right now the most important problem. Oregon has made a fair start toward developing manufactures, yet, in their infancy, many mills and factories are either running on short shift or are closed pending better business and financial conditions.

Oregon can help its industries and its manufactures by keeping the profits at home. Pendleton can do its share. The lesson of buying "made in Oregon" goods was demonstrated clearly through a week of exhibits held here a few months ago. If Oregon money remains in Oregon and the profits of sales accrue in Oregon, that means capital for operation and money for payrolls, in Oregon. The brighter future is coming and it can be hastened by a bit of concentration in home channels.

HELP KEEP CLEAN STREETS

PENDLETONIANS are proud of Pendleton and they are behind every good move for their city's advancement. They vote bond issues and pay increased taxes willingly in order to make Pendleton a bigger and better community. And now they have a chance to make their city better without its costing them a cent.

Main street, and the other thoroughfares of the business district, are not clean. Too much rubbish finds its way to them. Inherent carelessness in the human race is responsible for the newspapers, empty cartons and other trash dropped to the sidewalk or street. Too many never notice that there are iron receptacles placed at the curb at short intervals to catch the discarded cigarette carton or the banana skin.

In European cities it is said Americans learned the lesson when, upon casting aside some bit of refuse, a police officer politely informed them of their transgression of the law. They were obliged to return, pick up that which they had cast aside, and place it in the receptacle provided. Pendleton has not sufficient police for such law enforcement, but it has the ordinances if they need to be invoked. Application of our civic pride to this little detail in our daily life should preclude the necessity of enforcing the ordinance to its limits.

THRIFT IN PRACTICE

THE old adage, "a bird in the hand is worth two in the bush," has its counterpart today in the advice of financial men. "A dollar today will be worth two dollars in six months," they declare. They are preaching the gospel of thrift and of saving. The thrift propaganda of the recent war time stayed with some. Others need to have the lesson recalled. National thrift week is the designation for January 17 to 23. It will be observed in schools and advertised by banks. The lesson of saving will be spread broadcast over the nation.

Thrift, in its broadest sense, does not imply saving of every penny. If that were the case, the very purpose of thrift would be defeated. Wise expenditure of money is a measure of thrift. Full utilization of one's resources is thrift. Elimination of waste and practice of conservation is thrift.

Stoppage of buying would tend toward paralyzing of industry. But elimination of needless buying is thrift. Expenditure of money for non-essentials parallels speculation and both are under ban while this country seeks to return to a healthy, normal state. Wise and careful investment, continued purchases of necessities and a little closer application by many to a standard of living within their means are measures of thrift that will help the country soon to get into the channels where all may breathe easier.

What is MOTHERS FRIEND

Simply and tersely stated, MOTHER'S FRIEND is just exactly what the name implies—a friend and help to mothers. It has been made and sold for more than half a century. If it did not possess the value claimed for it, MOTHER'S FRIEND could not possibly have remained on the market. For only that which is really worth while and beneficial can survive.

The mothers who appreciate MOTHER'S FRIEND the most, and who are loudest in their praise of it, are those who unfortunately did not use it with their first baby, and who, through its use with the second one, were able to fully realize the relief it gave them.

DIDN'T EVEN NEED THE DOCTOR
"Dear Sir: I am willing and anxious to tell any mother about MORRIS'S FRIEND. It did me so much good that I wouldn't be without it if it cost $5.00 a bottle. With my first two children I had a doctor and a nurse and then they had to use instruments, but with my last two children I only had a nurse; we had no time to get a doctor because I wasn't very sick and only sick about ten or fifteen minutes. Any mother can write me and I will only be too glad to give her advice. Yours truly,"

SICK ONLY THREE HOURS, "MOTHER'S FRIEND" USED, COMPARED WITH FOUR DAYS SUFFERING WITHOUT IT
"Before using MORRIS'S FRIEND I suffered from Wednesday till Sunday. With my next child I used MORRIS'S FRIEND and was sick only about three hours."

SCREEN'S BEAUTY PICKS
ROLE OF GAMBLER GIRL

As the most famous and richest woman in Monte Carlo, Katherine MacDonald, whose past motion picture success and feminine charms have earned her the title of "The American Beauty," is seen in "Passions Playground," adapted from the world famous story "The Guests of Hercules," by C. N. and A. M. Williamson, and which will be shown at the Arcade Theatre, today.

It has been said that no other book dealing with the royalty and wealthy persons who frequent the famous gambling resort and the experiences they encounter there has been so favorably received by the public as "The Guests of Hercules." The novelty of the picture embraces the story of a convent girl whose great winnings become the gossip of Monte Carlo. As Mary Grant, the convent girl, Katherine MacDonald has a role of exceptional dramatic value.

ALTA TODAY
MASTER WRITERS
MAKE BIG FILM

Gouverneur Morris is famous for his tales of love and adventure—stirring, vivid and true to life.
George Randolph Chester is equally noted for his stories, such as the "Rick-Quick Wallingford" series—rapid moving, interest holding, breathless narratives.

It is no wonder, then, that when the two master writers combine forces, as they have in "Trumpet Island," the great special Vitagraph screen production, to be shown at the Alta theatre today, the result should be a dramatic offering of rare power and beauty.

The absorbing story was written by Gouverneur Morris, adapted for the screen by Rudolph de Cordova and edited by Mr. and Mrs. Chester. To make sure that the production would live up to the standards set by the writers, the direction was put into the capable hands of Tom Terris, who has done nothing better than this special, and the acting was taken care of by a wonderful company, headed by Marguerite de La Motte and Wallace Macdonald.

An airplane accident in a terrific thunderstorm, a fight for life and the girl on a cliff's edge are but two of

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

This is a pleasant, safe and reliable medicine for coughs and colds. It has been in use for many years and is held in high esteem in those households where its good qualities are best known. It is a favorite with mothers of young children, as it contains no opium or other harmful drug. Try it when you have need for such a remedy.

Worth Considering

The question is not so much how you contract a cold, but how to get rid of it with the least loss of time and inconvenience. If you will consider the experience of others under similar circumstances, who have been most successful in checking their colds, in their beginning, you will secure a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy without delay, and use it faithfully. There are many families who have used this preparation successfully for years and hold it in high esteem. It is excellent.

Constipation

Constipation of the bowels is a stoppage of the sewerage system that removes waste matter from the body. It is as necessary that your bowels move regularly once each day, to carry off this waste, as it is that the waste pipes of your home be kept open and clear of the waste from the house. If you would enjoy good health, keep your bowels regular by taking Chamberlain's Tablets when needed.

Bilious Headache

When you have a severe headache, a disordered stomach and constipation, take three of Chamberlain's Tablets. They will correct the disorders of the liver and bowels, effectually curing the headache.
