SINN FEIN HAS 300,000 FIGHTERS UNDER ARMS

DUBLIN, Jan. 13.—(By Charles M. McCann, U. P. Staff Correspondent.)—The Sinn Fein organization has 300,000 men under arms in Ireland, it was informed authoritatively today. This republican army represents five percent of the Irish population, according to an informant. He pointed out that America's manpower contributed in the world war was four percent. The army has military discipline, is organized into some groups with commanders of each, all under orders from central headquarters, is partially uniformed and has a number of secret arsenals and armories. Members of the army pursue their ordinary farm and city life except that they are subject to call for ambush duty or secret service and a weekly military lecture or drill. A farmer may toil for a month under the eyes of the British military. On the thirtieth day he may be called to fight four or five hours in ambush. In the city the young men work in shops and factories. Once a week they slip away to a secret meeting place to listen to a military lecture or take part in drill. Often the volunteer is called from the counter or lathe to shadow government agents.

TRAINS OF WOUNDED WIND WAY TO RELIEF

CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 13.—(U. P.)—The roll of artillery echoed through the hills surrounding Brusa as long trains of wounded wound their way back to the Greek base. The Turkish nationalists are reported retreating vigorously the Greek advance without success. Important Greek successes are claimed in the Brusa, Usiak and Meandro sectors.

rell who alluded to Hinton as "my old pal." They indicated that the incident was closed.

The train probably will reach Toronto tomorrow afternoon. They intend leaving Toronto for New York at 8 p. m.

Lieutenant Hinton suffering from swollen feet as a result of the long trip from Moose Factory on snowshoes. The others apparently are in good shape.

Lieutenant Kloor said he had written nearly 10,000 words telling of the trip. Much of it was written by candle light and many of the candles he made himself from tallow.

"I do not want to appear selfish," he said. "I have had a wire from Secretary Daniels authorizing us to talk, but I have written a story of the trip myself and it contains some dope that has not been printed."

Daniels Makes Statement. WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—Mr. Daniels said that the committee of inquiry had not been ordered and he was not sure whether the order would be issued.

from his office or the matter left to the commandant at Rockaway. Whatever course is pursued, the precept and powers of the court, he said, would be broad.

The court, in its investigation of the reported sale of the aeronauts' letters, Mr. Daniels said, probably will inquire into rumors that letters were offered for sale by persons in the naval service. Also reports that the balloon left Rockaway with insufficient provisions and no fire arms will be investigated, he added.

Mr. Daniels was asked if Lieutenant Farrell would have an opportunity to ask the court to investigate any charges he thought might have been made by brother officers detrimental to his character in connection with the exploit.

"If Lieutenant Farrell thinks that anything has been said injurious to his reputation, he can present it to this court," Mr. Daniels replied.

The secretary earlier had "deploded" the clash between Lieutenants Farrell and Hinton.

Rush Clothes to Men.
ROCKAWAY, N. Y., Jan. 13.—Lieutenant W. A. Evans of the air station here left today for Toronto, taking new clothing for the balloonists stranded in the frozen north.

Upon arrival at New York the men will be tendered a luncheon and then come here to head a parade of soldiers, sailors and citizens of Rockaway after which they are going to their station.

SINGER IS LAUDED.

GENEVIEWE GILBERT
Dramatic Soprano
Columbia Symphony Orchestra

The dramatic soprano, Miss Genevieve Gilbert, who sings here with the Ladies Columbia Symphony Orchestra on Wednesday, January 19, at the Oregon Theater, is said to be one of the finest American artists now before the concert public. Of statuesque appearance and with a most engaging personality, Miss Gilbert has won for herself a place on the national concert platform that has been attained by few native artists.

Commencing her musical studies when she was but seven years old, her singing and dramatic reading kept her before the public much of the time since her childhood. Miss Gilbert had an opportunity rarely afforded a student of singing, the personal friendship of Madam Modjeska the greatest Shakespearean actress of all time, with whom she studied the works of the great master. Her dramatic talent was so marked that it was only when she saw the possibility of combining her dramatic ability with her voice, that she gave up the spoken drama to become a singer, and now her knowledge of the drama has made it possible for her to attain the highest art of interpretation of song. She spent several years in New York studying with the best teachers of the metropolis and it was there in her seventeenth year that she made her professional debut.
