BIRTHDAY IS CELEBRATED

Seventeen little maids were guests today at the home of Mrs. Anna Furrish, to make merry the ninth birthday of her daughter, Kathryn Furrish. Streamers of pink floated from the chandelier to the table, where dainty cards and baskets of candies marked the place for each guest. A birthday cake, resplendent in frosting and lighted candles, was an especially charming feature. The guest list includes Juanita Pool, Amy Aldrich, Pearl Bullock, Betty Bond, Mary Howland, Daphna Howland, Marion Getts, Mireal Rudd, Lois Schaff, Francis Jack, Dorothy Wyrick, Thelma McCormack, Nadina Griswold, Evelyn Struve, Florence Fletcher and Emily Isaacs. Mrs. Furrish was assisted in serving by Mrs. Henry Struve and Mrs. William Hanson.

Mrs. James Johns, Sr., read five important bills before congress which affect the welfare of women and children. Mrs. Johns explained the measures for which the National Federation of Women's Clubs asks the endorsement of clubs throughout the country.

Two pleasing vocal solos were given by Mrs. H. E. Inlow, who in her charming voice sang "Morning" by Olie Speaks; and "On the Shore," by Nedlinger. The piano accompani-

PROHIBITION ENFORCEMENT APPROPRIATIONS ARE CUT BY CONGRESSMEN

House Went Down Ladder in Making Appropriations Designated for the Enforcement of Volstead Act.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The house went up and down the ladder in voting today on appropriations for enforcement of the prohibition law. First rejecting an amendment to the pending appropriation measure under which the bureau of internal revenue would be given $100,000,000 to fight the outlaw liquor traffic, the house adopted $8 to 48 an amendment by Representative Volstead, father of the law, increasing the total from $5,000,000 to $7,100,000. Before this vote was taken, the house defeated an amendment limiting the amount to $100,000,000.

There was a tinge of old-time prohibition bitterness in the half-hour debate preceding the clearing away of the question as to how far congress should go in making the country "bone dry."

Pleading for a larger sum than had been fixed by the appropriations committee in framing the legislative, executive and judicial bill, Mr. Volstead warned that the country would be heard from if it was the policy of congress to cut-down appropriations and make the job of enforcement a joke.

Representative Gallivan, democrat, Massachusetts, proposed to make the appropriation $10,000,000. Taking up the statement of Mr. Volstead that much of the money would come back in fines, he said:

"Why this mite? Let's go the limit. Let's help the new administration by bringing back a hundred million."
