VICTROLA CONCERT TOMORROW
Songs by Alma Gluck and John McCormack will be a pleasing feature of the Victrola concert in the county library tomorrow afternoon at three o'clock. The records will be supplied by Mrs. Lina Sturgis. Following is the program:

- Lo, Hear the Gentle Lark (Blahop)—Alma Gluck.
- Song of the Chimes (Worrell)—Alma Gluck.
- Who Knows? (Paul L. Dunbar)—Ernest R. Ball—John McCormack.
- Maushla (Howe-Macmurrough)—John McCormack.
- Scherzo-Tarantelle (1899)—Wienawski, op. 16—Yascha Helfferich, piano—Alma Gluck.
- The Brook (1891)—Lindgren—Alma Gluck.
- Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms (Moore)—John McCormack.
- The Moon Has Raised Her Lamp Above (Jules Benedict)—John McCormack—Reinold Werrenrath.
- Gavotte in G (Mozart)—Mitscha Kiman.
- Carmena—Alma Gluck.
- My Wild Rose (Chauncey Olcott)—John McCormack.
- Sweet Genevieve (Cooper-Tucker)—John McCormack.
- Whispering Hope (Alice Hawthorne)—Alma Gluck—Louise Homer.
- Spanish Dance, No. 1 (Sarasati, op. 26)—Jan Kubelik.
- Du, Du Lieb Mir Im Herzen—(You live in my heart)—Alma Gluck—Paul Reimann.
- Silver Threads Among the Gold (Hexford-Danias)—John McCormack.

Tambourin Chinois (Kreiser, Op. 2)—Fritz Kreisler.
Bercuse—Lullaby from Jocelyn (Godard)—Alma Gluck.

VISITORS IN CITY
Mr. and Mrs. Bert Campbell are visitors in Pendleton at the home of Mr. Campbell's mother, Mrs. Rose Campbell. They are en route to Los Angeles where Mr. Campbell has sold a half interest in a patent he has perfected. They will make their home in the southern city.

CLUB HAS MEETING.
Hungarian, Hindu and Japanese literature formed the topic for a meeting of the Current Literature club yesterday afternoon in the library club room, with Mrs. Lee Moorhouse and Mrs. George H. Clark as hostesses. Of decided interest was the review of "St. Peter's Umbrella," by Mikagatt, given by Mrs. E. P. Aldrich. A reading from Tagore's "Chitra," by Mrs. E. U. Temple, and Japanese poetry, by Mrs. J. C. Shaw, were excellent numbers. A charming musical program was given, the numbers being: "Allah Gives Light in Darkness," and "The Northern Days Are Short," by Chadwick, sung by Mrs. Thomas Vaughan, with piano accompaniment by Miss Beth Smith.

"Perhaps," by Dorothy Forester, and "The Lass of Kileen," by William Stickler, sung by Mrs. William H. Bennett with piano accompaniment by Mrs. Charles Bond.

"Moon Moths," a group of three piano numbers by Albert Kussner, played by Mrs. David B. Hill.

MEETING IS HELD.
Mrs. A. H. Cox and Mrs. F. J. McMonies were hostesses yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Cox for a meeting of the Spizzierkintum Club. Thirteen ladies were present and two quilts were tied, one for the poor and the other for sale, the proceeds to be used toward buying materials for clothes for the needy, continuing the work begun last fall. Two new members, Mrs. N. P. McLean and Mrs. Charles Cole, were admitted to membership. Refreshments were served by the hostesses. The next meeting will be in two weeks at the home of Mrs. A. T. Perkins.

WEDDING IS SOLEMNIZED.
Miss Mabel Cordella Peebler became the bride of John R. Wagner this afternoon at a simple wedding at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Peebler grandparents of the bride. The bride is a charming girl and the groom is well known in the McKay creek region where the couple will make their home. He is a returned soldier. The wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. J. M. Cornelison, Presbyterian minister.

MISS NEILL IS GUEST.
Miss May Neill arrived in Pendleton last night and is a week-end guest at the home of Miss Claire Haloy.

NEW CLUB ORGANIZED.
"Why's Who and Why" is the name of a new club organized recently by members of the Christian church choir—and the young married people's Sunday school class. Ross Maloney is president; Jack Winer, vice president and Harry Hopper, secretary-treasurer. The meetings are on the second and fourth Thursdays of each month, following choir practice, the first being held Thursday night at the home of Mr. Maloney. Thirty-one guests were present and the evening was spent in games. Refreshments were served.

MISS WEST WEDS.
At a ceremony this morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. McKinney, Miss Mary West became the bride of Ernest A. Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. McKinney attended the couple and Miss Iris Little was an additional guest. The groom is engaged in the automobile business in Arlington where the couple will make their home.

MRS. LIEULLEN CHOSEN.
Mrs. Fred Lieullen was chosen president of the Delphian Club at a business meeting of the organization yesterday afternoon in the committee room of the county library. Other officers chosen were Mrs. Sylvan G. Cohn, vice-president; Mrs. Akler Fee, secretary-treasurer and Miss Barbara
