

FILM LAND

ALTA SUNDAY AND MONDAY

Anna Q. Nilsson and James Kirkwood at Their Best.

In "The Luck of the Irish," the film version of Harold MacGrath's novel, which comes to the Alta Theatre next Sunday, Allen Dwan has presented a tale of love and adventure which reminds one of the great love stories of days of old. The characters are drawn true to life, with usual dramatic attention to detail. James Kirkwood as William Grosan, the young plumber who turns the world after inheriting a fortune, is at his best and considers it the best screen work he has done. The part allows him to display his histrionic ability and physical prowess. Anna Q. Nilsson, as Ruth Warren, the heroine, is the type of girl we want our sisters and sweethearts to be—Sweet, demure and courageous and loyal.

PASTIME SUNDAY AND MONDAY

Something different in plot and characterization was presented at the Pastime Theatre when Anne Cornwall appeared in the new Universal feature, "The Girl in the Rain," and kept a large audience thrilled, interested and often amused during the entire length.

Anne Cornwall was almost a stranger to most of the audience, although she had formerly appeared in important roles with such stars as Lloyd Farrimore, Eddie Lyons and Lee Moran, and had also been featured in a Universal photodrama. But a star she was making her first bow to a local audience. However, her future appearances will be looked forward to with great delight, for in the role of Judith, torn between devotion to her erring brother and love for the man who comes into her life and trusts her to the utmost, she gives as charming and girlish a portrayal as has been seen on a local screen in some time.

She is Wisconsin's attractive, appealing in her helplessness and admirability in her resourcefulness. And she is well supported by James Liddy as the young man who rescues her from the flood and then proceeds to fall in love with her; by Lloyd Bacon as her brother who is keeping just a few laps ahead of the law; by Jessilyn Van Trump as his wife; by James Farley as the government secret agent; by George Kunkel as a friend of the law; by Ned Hardin as a private investigator and by a score of other people who play their parts acceptably.

Rollin Sturpeon, who directed "The Girl in the Rain," displays the same skill and the same care for detail that have characterized his former productions. The scenes on the Potomac River, on the Washington boat, in the thunderstorm and in the hunting lodge, all give evidence of finished artistry.

ARCADIE SUNDAY AND MONDAY

ITNE COMEDY IS "THE ROOKIE'S RETURN"

Douglas MacLean Main Feature in Strong Comedy Picture.

Innumerable well conceived comedy situations, as unusual as they are laughable, are presented in Douglas MacLean's latest Paramount picture, which comes to the Arcade Theatre next Sunday.

The youthful soldier, no longer a rookie, but a seasoned veteran of months at the front, returns to wrestle with the problems of adjusting himself to the humdrum existence of civilian life. However, he finds that post-war conditions are not as devoid of action and excitement as he had thought, and his fighting blood, roused by a household of rebellious servants, a rival for the hand of the young lady of his choice, an adopted father, and other things supply him with as much excitement as did ever the treacherous Hun.

The comedy was directed by Jack Nelson and photographed by Bert Cann under the supervision of Thomas H. Ince. Doris May heads a capable supporting cast.

3467 STUDENTS LISTED AT O. A. C. THIS TERM

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, Jan. 15.—(U. P.)

Registration has been steadily increasing each day until now the total number of regular students registered is 3467, as compared with 3359 at the end of the second term last school year. A few students are registering each day.

The showing is gratifying to the administration in view of the depressed conditions in rural districts, particularly in eastern Oregon. Many students indicated at the close of the first term in December that they might not be back in college for the second term because of the fact that the wheat was still in the bins.

Engineering, in all its branches, leads in registration with 977, although the school of engineering which includes civil, electrical, mechanical, mining and industrial art, numbers but 746 in comparison with 821 for the school of agriculture. Forest and logging engineering attracted 99, chemical engineering 64 and the school of mines 74.

The school of commerce has taken a jump, now having 794 students. Home economics comes next with 345, and in pharmacy 177 are listed. The school of music has 65 regular students and many others who take the work as elective.

The registrar's record shows that 2423 men are registered and 1044 women in the regular course. Of the 3467 registered, 1322 are new students and 1955 are old. Collegiate students number 2116 and vocational students 351. Total registration for the entire year, including short course students, is 2955.

MINISTER WILL PLEAD THAT FAST BE ENDED

ELDORADO, Ill., Jan. 15.—(U. P.)—Rev. G. S. Payne, minister of the church of God, will go to Danville immediately and plead with Mrs. Eddie Harrington, now in the 46th day of her hunger fast to force her husband to join church, to give up her fast.

Arrangement for the trip to Danville were made by the United Press after it located Rev. Payne, a nation wide search by friends and relatives of Mrs. Harrington having failed. The woman had indicated she would give up the fast if Rev. Payne advised her to do so and has been pleading for him since she started the hunger strike.

"I'll pray with her and urge her to give up her fast," Payne said. "The church of God doesn't sanction such fasts to obtain conversions."

Lives to See the Prescription He Wrote in 1892 the Worlds Most Popular Laxative Remedy

DR. W. B. CALDWELL TODAY
Born Shelbyville, Mo., March 27, 1839
Began the manufacture of his famous prescription in 1892

It is particularly pleasing to me to know that the biggest half of those eight million bottles were bought by mothers for themselves and the children, though Syrup Pepsin is just as valuable for grownups. The price of a bottle holding 50 average treatments is sixty cents; such a bottle will last a family several months.

I have never made a secret of what is in Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is a compound of Egyptian Senna and other simple laxative herbs with pepsin and pleasant-tasting aromatics. These ingredients are endorsed in the U. S.

TRY IT FREE Send me your name and address and I will send you a free trial bottle of my Syrup Pepsin. Address me Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 513 Washington Street, Monticello, Illinois. Everybody now and then needs a laxative, and it is well to know the best. Write me today.

Founder of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, the largest selling liquid laxative in the world, long past Biblical old age, but hale and hearty—Still sees patients daily—Wonderful achievement of a "country doctor."

WHEN I started to practice medicine, back in 1875, there were no pills or tablets or salt waters for the relief of constipation, and no artificial remedies made from coal tar.

The prescription for constipation that I used early in my practice, and which I put in drug stores in 1892 under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is a liquid remedy, and I have never had reason to change it. I intended it for women, children and elderly people, and these need just such a mild, safe, gentle bowel stimulant as Syrup Pepsin.

I am gratified to say that under successful management my prescription has proven its worth and is now the largest selling liquid laxative in the world. The fact that over eight million bottles were sold by druggists last year proves that it has won the confidence of mothers whose chief interest is the health of their children.

Pharmacopoeia. I consider Syrup Pepsin today in the serious 82nd year of my age, as I did in 1892, the best remedy a family can have in the house for the safe relief of constipation and its accompanying ills, such as headaches, biliousness, flatulence, indigestion, loss of appetite and sleep, bad breath, dyspepsia, colds and fevers.

Millions of families are now never without Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and I believe if you will once start using it you will also always have a bottle handy for emergencies.

BRITISH TAKE STEPS TO RETAIN OWN IMMIGRANTS

LONDON, Jan. 15.—(A. P.)—The British government is beginning to put into effect its plan to keep within the boundaries of the British empire the emigrants from England, Scotland, Wales and Ireland who want to seek new homes in distant parts of the world.

This empire settlement scheme has been held in abeyance since the war because there were so many soldiers to be repatriated; but the first large party comprising 1100 emigrants has just left for Australia. This party is under government direction and the emigrants received a certain amount of government assistance.

Sir James Connelly, agent here for Western Australia, announces that for the next two years 1000 emigrants will be sent to Australia each month, their passage being paid by the government.

The government has openly expressed its disfavor toward schemes for emigration from the British Isles to South American countries. In consequence a campaign by Peru to induce English and Scotch to come there and settle has been abandoned after hundreds of them had accepted offers for free transportation to that country.

TAKES CARE OF 5 CHILDREN

Mrs. Taylor's Sickness Ended by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Roxbury, Mass.—"I suffered continually with backache and was often dependent, had dizzy spells and at my monthly periods it was almost impossible to keep around at my work. Since my last baby, some two years ago, my back has been worse and no position I could get in would relieve it, and doctor's medicine did not help. A friend recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I have found great relief since using it. My back is much better and I can sleep well. I keep house and have the care of five children so my work is very trying and I am very thankful I have found the Compound such a help. I recommend it to my friends and if you wish to use this letter I am very glad to help any woman suffering as I was until I used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. MAUDE E. TAYLOR, 5 St. James Place, Roxbury, Mass.
