Freeze-Outs Not Feared.
 Farmers today were welcoming the snow which fell Saturday night and Sunday. It adds to the visible water supply from the mountains when spring comes and does no harm to the growing winter wheat. The only danger from frosts comes when the ground is dried out, they say. The fall of snow in the higher altitudes was considerably heavier than locally.

The Nickles and Dimes Have Reformed

It actually seemed true that during the past few years the purchasing power of Fifteen cents had shrunk until it did not amount to much. They were forlorn shopping companions unless you had a pocket full.

We have good news for you. Fifteen cents has returned to its old time proportions and is ready to lead a useful and busy life, every bit as active as it ever was.

George Hamilton Featured.
 George V. Hamilton, formerly agent for the O. W. R. & N. Co. here and later cashier of the Pendleton Savings Bank and the American National Bank, is featured in a full page story in the magazine section of the Oregon Sunday Journal of Jan. 16. Mr. Hamilton was author of the first freight way bill for through freight east, ever shipped out of Portland. The shipment was a mare that had belonged to John Muir, of Portland, and with it Mr. Hamilton penned a verse on "The Oregon Mare." This later became famous and postcards of
