WILL RESIDE HERE.

Pendleton friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Richardson will be pleased to learn that they plan to return to Pendleton to reside. Mr. Richardson is employed by the O. W. R. & N. and his headquarters will be in this city. They have been making their home in La Grande. Mrs. Richardson was a prominent member of the Woman's Club and popular socially during her residence here.

SOCIETY WILL MEET.

The meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary Society, scheduled for tomorrow, has been postponed. It will meet Wednesday afternoon. Member have asked to bring thimble and scissors.

CHOIR MEMBERS GUESTS.

Members of the Methodist choir were honored in a charming way on Saturday night when Rev. and Mrs. John Secor were hosts at an informal party at the Methodist parsonage. A musical evening was enjoyed, among the numbers being a "musical romance." Refreshments were served by Mrs. Secor. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Owen, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Caldwell, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schmidt, Mrs. M. L. Woodyard, Mrs. H. E. Inlow, Glen Robbert, Miss Henderson, Mrs. G. W. Rugg, Mrs. Lavelle Bishop, Miss Grace Gilliam and G. H. Mowry.

HOSTS FOR PARTY.

Mr. and Mrs. James Rhenshaw entertained with a progressive 500 party at their home on East Alta street on Saturday evening. Mrs. Charles Cross and Henry Snyder won the honors in the evening's play. The hostess was assisted in the serving of a four course luncheon by Mrs. Harold Hackett, Mrs. Gross, Al Tolen, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hopper, Mr. and Mrs. Verne Hobbs and Mr. and Mrs. John Molliken.

ORGANIST MURDERED IN KITCHEN WITH HAMMER

ALGONA, Iowa, Jan. 17.—Mrs. Minnie Benjamin, 49 years old, wife of L. T. Benjamin, for 15 years organist at the Congregational church here, was found dead in the kitchen of her home here last night with her skull fractured in four places. A blood spattered hammer was found a few feet from her side. Her husband, who is ten years her senior, is in the county jail, charged with her murder.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Exams This Week

Examinations for the semester ending this week will be held on Thursday and Friday. The exams will take only two days this year because of only four periods. Heretofore they have taken several days. The new semester begins January 24.

Annual Sign Contract

"Nox-In-Mu-rich" the high school annual, has signed a contract for the engraving work with the West Coast Engraving Company of Portland. As yet Miss Irma Dale, business manager, has not let the printing work. The school is patronizing Oregon houses in preference to eastern concerns who have sent bids for the work. An official photographer will be chosen at the meeting of the staff to be held this evening. The staff consists of Ivan Houser, editor; Irma Dale, business manager; Mary Douglas Chisholm, John Beckwith and David Swanson, associate editors. John Simpson is section editor and Mary Clark literary editor. Gilbert Struve is assistant business manager.

Tryouts for Debating Team Tomorrow

Tryouts for the high school debating team have been again postponed. Several people in the senior play who wished to try out have not had time to prepare. Six debaters will be chosen, two on each team and an alternates on each.

Miss Severance Ill

Miss Elizabeth Severance, head of the English department, was absent from school this morning with a severe cold. Her place was filled by Miss Laura Jerard, who is substituting for Miss Carol Wurtenberger, who is also ill in Portland and will not return to school until February 15.
