George F. Gilmore left on No. 1 this morning for The Dalles from whence he will go to Bend by rail and on to La Pine by stage. He will spend a month or more visiting in the Central Oregon country, emulating Irwin Cobb, also a journalist. Mr. Gilmore, since leaving Pendleton last spring, has been engaged in newspaper work in Southern Idaho and will now take a change and a rest in the woods of Deschutes county.

Shrivers in Pendleton have designated Judge J. W. Maloney as official reporter on the ceremonial which is to be held in Portland this week end. Judge Maloney was recently appointed representative of the potentate in this city and has decided to respond by attending the doings in the metropolis. He left at noon today. Rex Ellis, also a Shrivers, may go to the city tonight, although he was not certain that he would when seen today.

There is a little wool selling but the situation for the wool and sheep men has not taken on an encouraging tone as yet. Fred W. Falconer said today, Mr. Falconer, owner of the Cunningham Sheep Co., in this county and interested in large sheep holdings in Walla Walla county and southwestern Idaho, returned to headquarters here yesterday after an absence of two weeks in which he has visited most of his properties and the wool markets of the coast.

Rudy Moller, teller at the American National Bank, left for Portland on No. 23 last night to spend the week end visiting at his home in the Rose City. He will return to Pendleton Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Anderson, who farm the Fred Raymond ranch north of Helix, came to Pendleton this morning on a shopping and business trip.

Rudolph Leisinger, who farms in the vicinity of Helix, is among the Pendleton visitors today.

Mrs. W. H. Stewart came to Pendleton this morning from Boardman and is a guest at the Pendleton Hotel.

Thomas M. Spencer, of Portland, arrived in the city this afternoon on business.

NEWS OF THE COUNTY OFFICES AND OFFICERS

Local Colored Folk Licensed.

A marriage license was issued Thursday afternoon by the county clerk to James Spencer and Mrs. Alice Carlisle, local colored folk. They were married Thursday.

Clerk's Books Being Audited.

The books and records of the county clerk are now being audited by Max Crandall, of Crandall & Roberts, Portland accountants. The audit of the sheriff's books for 1929 has been completed by Mr. Crandall.

Trial District Not to Lose.

No loss will accrue to the Trial District through the forcing of that district's bonds in Spokane, Miss Grace A. Gilliam, county treasurer, said who had been informed today. No new angles on the Millholland & Hough situation have developed and the district is believed protected.

Poe Gets Two Year Sentence.

James William Poe, colored, was sentenced Thursday afternoon to serve two years in the state penitentiary for the theft of a large number of furs from persons at the St. George hotel in September. He was to have had a trial on Monday but witnesses were ill and the trial was put over until Jan. 31. In the meantime he

MRS. F. W. WOOLWORTH

One of the richest women in the United States is Mrs. F. W. Woolworth of New York, widow of the 5-and-10-cent store magnate, who died recently, leaving her a fortune of $27,265,283. Some authorities on fortunes say no other American woman has a fortune so large.

changed his plea to guilty. Mrs. Marty Poe, his white wife, was held as an accomplice in the robbery and had been in jail since their arrest. She was released without a trial.

Three Waive Examinations.

Frank Evans, James Oliver Howe and George Hippensteel, held by the government for the larceny of shoes from a box car, were taken before U. S. Commissioner S. A. Newberry this morning by Deputy U. S. Marshal Robert Carter. All three waived preliminary examination and were bound over to the federal grand jury in default of bond placed at $1,000 each. Marshal Carter will take the trio to Portland on Saturday.

Two More Released from Jail.

Mrs. Marty Poe, against whom charges of larceny were dismissed by Circuit Judge G. W. Phelps yesterday afternoon, has been released from the county jail where she has been in custody since arrest in September. Frank Evans, held for the federal government, was turned over today to Deputy U. S. Marshal Robert Carter and removed by him to the city jail for keeping until their departure for Portland tomorrow. The release of these two from the county jail lowers the number in custody today to seven.

One More Ready for Salem.

Sheriff Houser plans to leave in a few days for Salem to take James W. Poe, colored, under sentence to two years. Some talk has been heard that Earl Allen, who is also colored, will be returned to the penitentiary for violation of his parole, in which case both will be taken at once. If, however, Allen is held for trial here rather than returned for his breaking parole, the sheriff probably will make the trip with Poe alone. The next jury session of court will not open until Jan. 31 when the State vs. Joe Kerley case comes up.

28 YEARS AGO

(From the Daily East Oregonian January 21, 1893.)

C. P. Davis left today for Walla Walla on business for the Hartman Abstract Co.

William Roesech is putting up 40 tons of ice, taken from the mill race. Pat Kline has commenced the work of harvesting ice at his place on the river above Pendleton. The ice is being cut from a spring.

The city council announces that permission is given to remove bodies from the old to the new cemetery.

The little son of Levi Hays was rescued from drowning last night by Robin Fletcher who exercised considerable bravery, good judgment and presence of mind. The Hays youngster was one of a party of small boys who were skating on the ice along the river below town, and fell through. Robin crawled to the edge of the hole and managed to extract the child from the icy bath.

MINING ENGINEER SAYS HE SUFFERED 30 YEARS

Well Known Oregonian Declares Tanlac Has Given Him A New Lease on Life

"For the first time in thirty years I am now able to eat whatever I want, without suffering afterwards," said F. C. Rogers, a well-known mining engineer living at 1675 East Nineteenth Street North, Portland, Ore.

"I now know what it is to enjoy fine health, for Tanlac has built me up until I have gained fifteen pounds and to-day I am feeling better than I have in 25 years. In 1899 my stomach went back on me and in spite of everything I went down hill until I was a nervous and physical wreck. Everything I ate soured on my stomach and I would have awful spells of indigestion.

"For days at a time I couldn't retain a thing I ate and I had a burning like a coal of fire in my throat and chest. These spells were so bad sometimes I could neither lie down nor sit up with any comfort.

"I had pains all over my body. I suffered from nausea and gas and bloated up so tight I could hardly breathe. My nerves broke down and I seemed to be playing out altogether.

"Nothing in the way of medicine did me any good until I got hold of Tanlac and now I can hardly remember the day when I felt better. I eat like a bear and never have a sign of indigestion afterwards. The pains and gas have all disappeared and my breathing is free and regular. My nerves are as strong as iron and I sleep as sound as I ever did in my life. I am as sound as a dollar, never miss a day from my work and I feel that I have a new lease on life."

Tanlac is sold in Pendleton by Thompson Bros.

CARNEGIE MEDALS GIVEN FOR ACTS OF HEROISM

Hooks and Eyes

IT'S easy to see that Gloria Swanson has "hooked" Tom Meighan and now she's making him reciprocate by hooking her. It's also so easy to see from the look in his eyes that Tom doesn't care for his job and if he isn't patient, a misunderstanding may develop which may lead him to change his wife. Many a domestic tragedy has found its inception in just such a trivial incident. "Why Change Your Wife?" Cecil B. DeMille's latest Paramount-Artcraft picture shows how far Tom's impatience led him and points a moral to young couples who have been recently "hooked up."
