THURSDAY CLUB MEETS.

A program of decided interest marked a meeting of the Thursday afterphoton Club yesterday in the club room of the county library, with Mrs. Willlam E. Lowell as hostess. Mrs. D. D.
Hobert read a paper on Ford H. Hueffer, an dMrs. George A. Hartman gave a sketch of the life of Stephen Leacock, as well as selections from his works. Internetive readings from the works of Walter De la Mare were presented by Mrs. W. D. McNary. R. E.
Tucker, community organizer, explained his mission in Pendleton.

Charming musical numbers complated the program, the singers being Mrs. Lyman Rice who sang "You and Love" and "The Dawn," with
