JUDGE DENIES CHARGE OF 'RAILROADING' TRIAL

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Jan. 25.—(A. P.)—In a written statement Judge Horace C. Wilkinson, special assistant attorney general, today denied the charge of a Tuscaloosa mass meeting that nine members of Company M, state militia, were being "railroaded" to trial on murder counts in connection with the lynching of Wm. Baird. The statement referred to the mass meeting as "a smoke screen designed as an agency for the creation of propaganda calculated to produce public sentiment favorable to the accused."

MEMORIALS TO ANIMALS WHO DIED IN WORLD WAR

LONDON, Jan. 25.—(U. P.)—The hundreds of dumb animals who made the supreme sacrifice in doing their bit for Britain are to have a National war memorial. Few people realize how many classes of beasts and birds contributed their share towards the final victory. A list of animals that were of inestimable value to the allies has now been published and comprises Horses, dogs, mules, camels, elephants, oxen, mice, reindeer, pigeons, canaries, cats, goldfish. Hundreds of elephants lost their lives on the eastern front, where they acted as patient beasts of burden for the haulage of heavy guns. Reindeer were invaluable to the Russian campaign. No fewer than 120,013 camels were killed. The horses sacrificed their lives in thousands. On the western front alone 364,120 were killed. Faithful dogs of all classes proved themselves wonderfully intelligent in fulfilling their duties of carrying messages, transporting field-telephone instruments, Red Cross service and sentry duty. Gold-fish rendered valuable military service, too. They were placed in the water in which gas-helmets had been washed and absorbed in their bodies the chemical that had been employed by the Germans in the preparation of the gas, and from the knowledge thus gained chemists were able to counteract the effects of such gas.

The Secretary of the Royal Society of Prevention of Cruelty to Animals states that public subscriptions for a memorial are rolling in steadily.

PERFUME WITCH WHO ROBBED CO-ED HAS CHICAGO COPS BUSY

CHICAGO, Jan. 25.—The police hunt for the "perfume witch," who recently drugged and robbed Miss Ruth Shea co-ed, has been accelerated, following the story of Miss Marie Franckle, saleslady, who says that she, too, was the object of the wiles of the "witch."

Miss Franckle told the police a woman sought to persuade her to smell what she described as an Oriental perfume. The girl was on the point of doing so when two customers entered. The woman left hurriedly and never returned.

Mrs. Meta Herne, 23, was found, bound hand and foot, behind the piano in her home Sunday. She may have been drugged. She was not attacked. Her home was robbed. The last thing she remembered was an encircling arm from behind.

BRITISH-AMERICAN WAR ABSURD, FACTS PREVENT

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—(A. P.)—The Outlook, which apologizes for "inflicting on the reader the painful subject of an Anglo-American war which is rightly not considered thinkable by most of us," considers that under existing conditions of mine and submarine warfare, the British fleet, were it twice as big as it is, could not venture into American waters, nor could the Americans, with thrice the number of dreadnoughts they possess, venture to approach the British coast.

Incidentally the Saturday Review puts in a strong plea for the sale of the West Indies by Britain to the United States, in order to reduce British indebtedness to America, without sacrificing British trade interests.

WOMAN'S FAITH HELPS HUSBAND

"I owe my good health to my wife who had faith in a newspaper ad she saw of May's Wonderful Remedy. I was down so badly with stomach and liver trouble after 15 years of suffering and trying every known remedy that I had no faith in anything. This medicine has certainly been a 'God-send' to me." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.—Druggists everywhere.
