PHUSSYFOOT JOHNSON LAUDS PROHIBITORY STATUTE

NEW YORK, Jan. 24—(A. P.)—Wm. E. (Phussyfoot) Johnson, prohibition leader, speaking today at a union ministers' meeting here declared that the prohibition law in New York, "with all its shortcomings, is better enforced than the old license law ever was."

"Mark you this prophecy," he said. "If America makes good and enforces the law everywhere as she is already enforcing it in most parts, the whole world will follow in our footsteps. But the moment she relaxes the cause of prohibition throughout the world is dead for one hundred years. A short time ago the prime minister of England told a friend of mine that if America made good with her prohibition law that England herself would be dry within ten years."
