NEW REVOLUTION IN MEXICO LED BY ARISTOCRATS

Lives of Americans in Mining Camp Reported in Danger From Attack of Strong Force Hot on Rebellious War Path.
ARIETA BROTHERS WHO ARE PETTY KINGS LEAD
Force Said to be Under Command of Powerful Men Who Are Popular With Thousands and Well Practiced in Revolutions.

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 26.—(U. P.)—Fears are felt for a large number of Americans in the mining camps at Tepic, state of Durango, which is reported to have been attacked by a strong force of bandits led by the Arieta brothers. The Arietas revolted several days ago, according to advices reaching here and went on the war path in Durango with a big following. Americans and other foreigners in the mining camps are believed well armed. It is considered here that the Arieta campaign will be long protracted as the bandit leaders are now operating in a portion of Durango which has many hiding places, particularly in the mountains. The government has ordered General Martinez, who brought about the surrender of Francisco Villa and who has a reputation as one of the best bandit hunters in Mexico, to start on the trail of Arieta's men. The Arietas are understood to be attacking travel eastward to effect a junction with smaller bandit bands which have not yet been "mopped up" by government troops. The Arieta brothers were formerly among the wealthiest of Mexico's land holders. Under Diaz they controlled vast areas in Durango and were as powerful as kings in their own domain. They joined the Madero revolt and after Madero's assassination threatened to give their support to Villa. When Villa broke with Carranza and became an outlaw, the Arietas retired to their estates, and little was heard of them for two years. The report that they had attacked the mining camp, came as a shock here. The Arietas have a tremendous following, thousands of peons and cattlemen are pulling their power above the federal government in Durango.

BOARDMAN MAY OPERATE FERRY OVER COLUMBIA

(East Oregonian Special.)
BOARDMAN, Jan. 26.—At the monthly meeting of the Boardman commercial club last night the construction of a ferry across the Columbia river was discussed. Cooperation is expected with Prosser as the distance from Prosser to Boardman is but 28 miles, at which point the Evergreen highway of Washington and the Columbia highway of Oregon are nearest together and there are satisfactory conditions for road building. Mack Cleveland, editor of the Standard, and J. D. Zuercher, attorney and secretary of the commercial club of Stanfield, addressed the meeting and there was a general discussion favorable to the establishment of a ferry for Boardman and for further activity in support of the John Day project. It was also voted to endorse the northwest tourist association bill now before the legislature.

JAIL DELIVERY SENT GOVERNOR TO PRISON

SHANGHAI, Jan. 26.—(U. P.)—After many years of service as governor of the Kwangsi Provincial Military Prison, on the outskirts of Shanghai, Hsiao Yin-ting today occupies a cell there. He is under sentence of three years incarceration for embezzlement of prison funds. The former governor of the prison was caught in his speculations in a most peculiar manner. Last August there was a jail delivery at the prison and more than 200 convicts escaped. Many of them are still at liberty. Widespread search for the fugitives was begun and a rumor was circulated that the governor was involved. His home was searched. None of the fugitive was found. But documents showing his embezzlement came to light.

ALTHOUGH AT DEATH'S DOOR, WOUNDED BANDIT REFUSES TO GIVE NAME

SEATTLE, Jan. 26.—(U. P.)—Although perhaps fatally wounded, the bandit who was shot while attempting to hold up the Motor Inn, near Auburn, at 4 a. m., has refused to give his name to the officials. Two companions of the gunman escaped. One is believed wounded. Three of the bandits entered the inn, with drawn guns, and ordered four people sitting at tables to throw up their hands. A. Marco of Tacoma, drew a revolver and fired twice, dropping one of the would-be holdups. The other two fled and escaped in an automobile.

Movement is in Line With State Wide Effort to Make Red Cross Kind of Clearing House for Other Similar Bodies.
The designation of the Umatilla county Red Cross as the official community charity council of the Associated Charities, Commercial Association, Salvation Army, American Red Cross, City of Pendleton and the county court, marks a step in a state-wide movement for use of the Red Cross as the official agency. In Oregon, Baker, La Grande, Astoria, Bend, Medford, Albany and in Idaho, Nampa and Caldwell, the Red Cross has been designated as the organization to act as community council. It co-operates with other relief agencies, with the county court and city officers and has demonstrated a great saving in time, money and service as well as to show tangible results of rehabilitation of families under its care.

COLLINS RE-ELECTED PRESIDENT PENDLETON ROUND-UP FOR 1921

Other Officers Are Also Returned by Vote of Stockholders, Except for Director in Place of Late Sheriff Til Taylor.
H. W. Collins last night was re-elected president of the Pendleton Round-Up and other officers were likewise returned by vote of the stockholders. Decision was made to raise the admission price to the 1921 show, on the basis of the financial report which was presented by Whitefield Whitcomb & Co., certified public accountants. Officers and committee chairman, as well, were retained but no director to succeed the late Sheriff Til Taylor was elected. The filling of this vacancy will be left to the board of directors. The stockholders voted, and in the meantime the position of arena director held last year by President Collins, L. H. Collins, was re-elected. Mr. Collins will direct competitive events, Mr. Haer the business management, Mr. Chloupek the finances, Judge Marsh the office publicity, J. H. Estes parade, L. G. Frasier as grounds, D. S. Tatom accommodations, Chaney Bishop, Indiana, S. H. Thompson livestock and J. W. Earl non-competitive events. Directors were authorized to charge $2 plus war tax, for grandstand seats hereafter. Boxes and bleachers will be increased accordingly. Higher rates on freight, express and transportation, together with increased demands from performers make added revenue imperative, officials today said. The books showed a slight deficit for the 1920 show, due to poor weather which prevented there being a maximum attendance on Thursday and Friday. The show was a success in itself but with the cost and depreciation distributed over the entire year, the net loss was arrived at. September 22, 23 and 24 were confirmed, as dates for the 1921 show. The directors also authorized a new lease with the city for the use of the grounds in Round-Up park.

The jury, which included three women, returned its verdict after four hours' deliberation. Colagino will probably receive sentence Saturday. McGibbon was shot down in a quarrel over the alleged theft of some chickens.

DOES IT PAY TO HOLD WHEAT CROP FOR BETTER PRICES? ASK FARMERS

Does holding the wheat crop pay? A great many farmers in Pendleton and vicinity are asking themselves this question. Some of the veterans, who have sold early and have held, with alternating conditions, are a bit prone to say that it does not. The example of this year's crop, to date, strengthens them in this belief. "In seven cases out of 10, I believe selling at harvest time is better," one pioneer in wheat growing declared today. "I have tried both ways and in the long run the early sales have netted more." Another farmer, who in the past five years has sold early three and held twice, is also converted to the early selling idea. "Even if the price does rise when one sells early, it may not mean more than the interest, storage and other carrying charges for that time." "And the headache it saves," a third says, "makes early selling worth something."

Ministers Secor and Lockwood, and Ernest Crockett Present Different Angles of National Question, Banquet Follows.
Immigration from its various angles was discussed by Rev. John H. Secor, Rev. Alfred Lockwood and Ernest L. Crockett, local news writer, last night before the Men's Forum of the Presbyterian church. Close to 75 persons were present in the auditorium of the church to hear the lectures and general discussion, which followed, in which several of the audience spoke. Fred Sietver, listed as fourth speaker, was unable to attend owing to illness in his family. The addresses were preceded by a banquet, served by the Ladies Aid of the church, to 50 members of the Forum. Dr. David B. Hill, president, acted as toastmaster. Twenty-five additional persons attended the discussions. The next meeting of the Forum, about a month hence, will be the annual business meeting. Officers will be elected at that time and reports presented.

NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—(A. P.)—Will H. Hays, chairman of the republican national committee, announced today that $210,000 had been contributed since the election toward the republican campaign deficit of approximately $1,300,000. WOMAN OFFERS TO BUY CLERGYMAN HUSBAND, DICKERS VIA HYMNAL

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 26.—(U. P.)—Armed with a copy of "Hymns of the Heart," Mrs. Charles A. Wheatley has started looking for her husband. She also wants to find a woman whose writing appears on the leaves of the hymnal. Wheatley is a lecturer at the Spiritualist church. According to Mrs. Wheatley, the woman sitting next to her Sunday morning handed her a hymn book. "How much will you take for your husband?" was written on the fly leaf. "He's not for sale," Mrs. Wheatley wrote and handed the book back. Wheatley at that moment was occupying the pulpit. "Why, he's mine, I love him," Mrs. Wheatley read when the book was returned to her. "So do I," she wrote, handing back the volume. And then "negotiations" began in earnest. The strange woman wrote at length to the effect that she was ready to go to any extreme to get Wheatley, according to his wife. "I cannot believe you," was Mrs. Wheatley's parting notation. But yesterday, Mrs. Wheatley reported to the police she had received a message from her husband saying he would not return, so she has started out today to look for him.

EMERGENCY TARIFF BILL RUNS INTO FILIBUSTER FROM SENATOR'S ATTACK

North Dakota Solon Claims it Will Make Farming Worth While and the Call of the Soil Attractive.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—(A. P.)—The Fordney emergency tariff bill was brought into the senate for consideration today, but immediately ran into a small filibuster. Merits of the bill and reasons for its early enactment had scarcely been outlined by senator McCumber, republican, North Dakota, before Senator Harrison, democrat, Mississippi, launched an attack which continued until adjournment. Senator McCumber appealed for action, on the ground that the bill would affect more than 20,000,000 people. "You want to make the farm attractive," he said. "You know how well it is doing. It is the glory of the south; that is attractive and that's why this measure should be passed quickly." Senator Harrison charged that the North Dakota senator wanted "to save a few people by making the rest of the country pay the bill." Such a tariff as asked on wheat, he said, could do nothing but increase the price of bread.

P.)—Oscar Von Windshagen, a naturalized American citizen, charged with treason through having served in the Austrian army while that country was at war with the United States, was arraigned here today. RAILWAY BOARD CONSIDERS SLASHING WAGES OF MEN TO KEEP ROADS FROM RUIN

CHICAGO, Jan. 26.—(U. P.)—Slashes in wages of railway employees are being considered by the United States railway board. This follows a petition presented by President Hux of the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic railroad, asking that wages be reduced "to a level so as to keep the roads from the hands of the receiver." Hux declared his road was losing $100,000 per month. He attributed this to wage increases amounting to $2,400,000 annually since 1914. Other roads are expected to file similar petitions soon. Chairman Barton of the board agreed the case is pressing and promised an early decision. A canvass of the railroads showed they are curtailing all expenses in 1921 budgets due to lack of funds. "Tight money" and depression in business are reasons ascribed by the officials for the curtailment. Falling off of business threw 20,000 employees of the western roads out of work, one official said. The officials, however, believe business will return to normal by spring and industrial plants will again operate full blast and idle men will be back to work.

"FALSE AS JUDAS" SCHWAB BRANDS THEFT CHARGES

Steel King is Petulant and Acts Like Sensitive Boy Who Had Ben Punished for Some Misdemeanor, Feelings are Hurt
"MOST PEOPLE KNOW I AM INNOCENT," SAYS
Maintains After Forty Years of Honorable Business Career He Would be Above Thought of Petty Dishonesty.
NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—(U. P.)—The insinuation against me is as false as Judas, but they hurt—God knows how they hurt," these were the words of "Charlie" Schwab to the United Press as he sat in his riverside mansion with his white-haired wife. "Of course, I know, and my friends know, and I believe the vast majority of the people know I am innocent," he continued. "But it is cruel even that one person should suspect, even for a moment, that after an honorable business career of 40 years, I could entertain a mere thought of dishonesty, let alone petty grafting from my country." Schwab had every appearance of a sensitive boy who had been punished for some misdemeanor which he had not committed. Hurt was evident in his face, voice and words. "Why, he hasn't slept for four nights," Mrs. Schwab interjected, and there was a world of pity and understanding in her intonation. Statement Exonerates. WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—(U. P.)—A statement exonerating Charles Schwab following the allegation of a $100,000 out of a general expense voucher for 259,996 in which the Delichem Steel corporation account was charged to the government for ship construction, is being prepared by members of the Walsh investigating committee, it is learned here. Charges Disproved. WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—(A. P.)—Charles M. Schwab received payment from the government for expenses while serving as director general of the emergency fleet corporation were not proven and that the Walsh committee declared in an authorized statement.

FRENCH AND BRITISH PREMIERS CONTINUE TO BICKER OVER GERMANY

Lloyd George Threatens Never to Return to Paris and Objects to French Newspaper Criticism on Disarmament.
PARIS, Jan. 26.—(U. P.)—Bickering between the French and British premiers in the allied supreme council has reached such bitterness that Lloyd George has threatened "never to return to Paris," according to L'Ceuvre. The newspaper said Lloyd George objected principally to press criticisms of his attitude toward German disarmament. "Since I am treated in this way," L'Ceuvre quoted him as saying, "I shall never return to Paris." PARIS, Jan. 26.—(U. P.)—The friction developed at a sitting council, the paper said, when Lloyd George branded Marshall Foch's report on the German armament as "inconclusive, and referred to the marshals' political high conceptions." Later, when General Wilson of Britain and Foch disagreed on their reports of German conditions, Lloyd George rapped the table with a paper knife, and remarked testily, "If those gentlemen are not in accord, let them discuss it elsewhere, and return when they have agreed." The officers left the room the paper said, the disarmament question was then dropped and the council program rearranged.

SALEM, Jan. 26.—(U. P.)—Elimination of Percy Copper as state engineer and appointment by the Desert Land Board of a new engineer possessing the qualifications of education and training not possessed by Copper and the shifting of Copper to a position on the desert land board is contemplated in a bill which is being considered by joint committees on irrigation and drainage.
