

People Here and There

R. E. Bean came down from Umatilla this morning by train, the commissioners being still in session.

Carl Engdahl, Holix wheat man and bank director, is among the business visitors in Pendleton today.

C. O. Rinehart left by train this morning on a business trip to Heppner and Ione. He will be gone until Friday.

S. B. Sanderson, publisher of the Times, at Freewater, was among those from the east end of Umatilla county on No. 1 into Pendleton today.

Rex Ellis, who has sold Dodge cars on the road and in Pendleton until he knows their every bolt and nut, is back in Pendleton today after a business visit to Walla Walla.

Wheat for next year is looking very good in the fields north of Pendleton, says Dr. Thomas Vaughan, who has forsaken the dental profession to farm the Smith ranch near Vantage. Dr. Vaughan is spending a few days in the city, a guest at the E. L. Smith home.

Today is the birthday of Rev. Alfred Lockwood, pastor of the Church of the Redeemer, and also of his daughter, Miss Dorothy Lockwood, Roswell and Morris, known in Pendleton as the "Lockwood Twins," also arrived on an anniversary, having been born some years ago on Christmas Day.

Max J. Kuncy is here today from La Grande.

E. C. Niles is in Pendleton today from Walla Walla.

O. P. West, a businessman of Portland was among the morning arrivals in the city today.

Chicago is represented on the Pendleton Hotel register today by M. A. Smith, a traveling man.

A. S. Thompson is in Pendleton today on business. He makes his headquarters in San Francisco.

The name of Pendleton headed the register at the Pendleton Hotel this morning. J. H. Pendleton, of New York City, arrived here today on business.

J. E. Pinson left last night for Portland to see his brother, Gus Pinson, who has been there for the past several months treating in hope of regaining his eyesight. He was now blind in Grant county a year ago and attempts thus far to restore his sight have proven futile.

J. H. Hager, of Gibbon, has been putting in his spare time killing coyotes and as a result of his work there will be seven fewer families in the county next spring. He was in town Tuesday afternoon and collected bounty on seven female coyotes and one male. His trouble netted him $21.

The odor of burned wheat pervades Pilot Rock since the big $75,000 grain fire occurred Sunday night, says P. W. Robbins, forest ranger who is here from Pilot Rock today. The fire is still smoldering and crews of men are kept busy putting water on the grain and building. Farmers who had grain in the warehouse are busily engaged in salvaging the wheat from the ruins, says Mr. Robbins.

NEWS OF THE COUNTY OFFICES AND OFFICERS

Crigler Will Admitted
The will of the late A. J. Crigler was admitted to probate today and French J. Crigler and E. J. Davis appointed executors, as nominated in the will.

Indian Held in $500 Bond
Henry Charlie, Indian, held on a charge of larceny by bailee, was bound over to the grand jury today in default of $500 bond and is confined to the county jail.

Two Couples Licensed
Marriage licenses were issued today by the county clerk to two couples. Cecil Harland Madden, of Hermiston, and Miss Dorris Cleghorn, of Echo, and Alonzo A. Murphy and Miss Sue Creaman, of Athena, were the couples licensed.

Bond Exchange Comes Soon
In preparation for the exchange of fourth liberty loan coupon bonds for permanent bonds, the government has just sent out notices to all banks notifying them that they may accept bonds for conversion. The new bonds will be sent to banks about Feb. 1 and the old bonds will then be sent to the federal reserve bank.

Pendleton Figures Reversed
An error in reporting the totals for Pendleton's contribution to the Red Cross roll call was discovered by County Chairman C. K. Cranston Wednesday. Instead of $2844.75, as was reported by Mrs. S. G. Cohn, local chairman, there was turned over to the fund $2844.75.

Road Work Ordered Stopped
Road work on the extension of the Little Walla Walla highway was ordered stopped yesterday afternoon after a visit there by the county commissioners. No more progress can be made until the right of way through the Dorothy place is obtained and the present weather conditions are not right for making roads, say the commissioners. A small force was retained to put the rock crusher in good shape to start the spring work.

Thomas to Go to Salem
Harry Thomas, whose application for parole yesterday was denied, probably will be taken to Salem tomorrow. Karl Allen, also in the county jail, may go along if word comes from the parole board to return him to the penitentiary. He will not be tried here unless the parole board fails to order him sent in for breaking his parole.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Girls To Make Trip—Members of the girls' basketball team will leave tomorrow for La Grande where they will meet the girls' team of that city in their second game of the season. Both teams are evenly matched and a close outcome is predicted. The lineup for the La Grande game will probably be as follows: Mildred Rogers, center; Iva Dale, side center; Mary Clarke and Jane Cheney, forwards; Alberta McMonies and Marie Fletcher, guards.

Forum Party Postponed—The Girls' Forum party which was to be given this week end has been postponed until Feb. 2. The purpose of the Forum is to establish a feeling of friendship among all the girls of the school and to do away with cliques. This is the third social event of the Forum during this school year.

SCHWAB WEEPS BRINY TEARS AT CHARGE OF PINCHING $100,000

Says the Matter Lies Deep in His Heart Since it is the End of a Forty Year Business Career, Foster Praises Him.

NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—(A. P.)—Overcome by his emotions, Charles M. Schwab temporarily broke down on the witness stand today before the Walsh congressional committee investigating affairs of the shipping board. With tear-filled eyes, he denied charges of witnesses that $100,000 of a $282,000 voucher charged to his account in the office of the Bethlehem Shipbuilding corporation had been allocated to expense of construction of government ships. Mr. Schwab had been recalled to give testimony regarding ship construction matters while he was director-general of the emergency fleet corporation. After his testimony, his attention was called by Representative F. M. Foster to testimony that since making his denial last Friday of the charges, he had conferred with Percy Morse of Peley Morse and Company, auditors, who found the alleged voucher.
