ANNUAL HOLIDAY TRIPS TO B. C. ARE DESIRED

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Cal., Jan. 27.—(A. P.)—Annual Christmas holiday trips to British Columbia are being planned by the Stanford University rugby team, which recently returned from the north with a record of two games won and one lost.

"The northern trip is a valuable asset in preserving and developing the splendid relations between Stanford and the Canadian colleges," Harry Maloney, rugby football coach, said recently. "The Canadian look forward to our coming and treat us like brothers. I never have experienced such cordiality in my life as they showed us up there."

He Falls Sometimes
"The weather yesterday was not what you predicted."
"Maybe not," snarled the weather man. "But do you let me the fellow who tries to pick the races for you day by day?"—Louisville Courier-Journal.
