

C. C. RICHARDSON DIES IN SEATTLE HOSPITAL

Claude Cleveland Richardson, a native of Umatilla county, died Thursday in Providence hospital, Seattle, Wash., following an operation, according to word just received here. He was born five miles north of Pendleton on Sunday, Aug. 31, 1894, the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Richardson. Mr. Richardson has been residing three miles east of Redmond, Wash. Following his death he was buried in the Redmond cemetery, beside his father who died some years ago.

Mrs. Pearl Richardson, his widow, Mrs. Angie Wicks, of Clarkston, Wash., his mother, and four sisters, Mrs. E. Sylvia Shepard, of Alberta, Can.; Mrs. Eunice Hunt, of Denver, Colo.; Mrs. Alice Long, of Grandview, Wash., and Miss Wilda Richardson, of Clarkston, Wash., survive.

While a youth Mr. Richardson moved with his parents to Waltham where they lived 12 years, following which they went to Clarkston to reside for 10 years. In Wenatchee, Mr. Richardson met Miss Pearl Buck to whom he was married in Seattle Aug. 22, 1916. Since that time he made his home in Redmond.

FORTY EIGHTERS WANT STEEL STRIKE EXPOSED

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—(A. P.)—The committee of Forty Eight announced today that it had adopted a resolution urging that the report of the Inter-Church World Movement on the steel strike in 1915 be made a government publication to give the widest possible publicity to the alleged anti-racial practices revealed in the document.

The committee asked that the U. S. committee on labor and education, which is now considering such a bill take "constructive action" on the report.

The committee asked that the U. S. committee on labor and education which is now considering such a bill take "constructive action" on the report.

Reviewing conditions revealed in the report, the committee declared that a special investigation had shown that abolition of the 12-hour day was to the economic advantage of the owners of the industry. The three shift day, it was stated, would directly relieve 150,000 workers now on the 12-hour shift and give work to 50,000 more who are now unemployed.

JEALOUSY KNOWS NO REASON

Why is it that a jealous person will allow their suspicion to point to the most unprepossessing individuals at times. A jealous husband or wife well endowed by nature with both physical and mental graces will become insanely jealous over the homeliest and most unintelligent persons whom they happen to fancy their helpmate is interested in. Mack Sennett in his latest five-reel comedy, "Married Life" utilizes this strange fact by having Jimmie Finlayson insanely jealous of Phyllis Haver's interest in poor old cross-eyed Ben Turpin. The absurdity of it all is one of the big laughs in this mirthful picture which comes to the Arcade today.

SLUM GIRL FIGHTS WITH ROUGHS OF NEIGHBORHOOD TO BALK THEFT OF KISSES

Anita Stewart is shown in practically two characters in "Mind the Paint Girl," a First National feature which will be shown at the Alta Theatre today.

First she appears as the little slum girl, who sweeps out her father's shop and runs errands and does any handy work to help make ends meet for her parents, who are very poor. As the shop girl, she is shown in more or less ragged calico dresses, with her hair hanging down her back and hats of impossible styles. Ignorant and untutored, yet she has a strong heart and battles her way among the roughest of the neighborhood who are very much in love with her pretty face, and try to steal kisses, as chance presents itself.

Full of ambition to get out of the sordid neighborhood and to win to the better things of life, she takes the opportunity of her father's death to move. Then she applies for a place on the stage. After much discouragement, she finally gets a place in the chorus. Then through the accidental spilling of a bucket of paint, she gets an inspiration and suggests the song, "Mind the Paint," to a composer. She is given the opportunity to sing it and makes the hit of the season.

Then as the famous music hall girl and the world at her feet, she is presented in beautiful gowns of every description, gowns that every woman will want to study to see the latest in styles and the perfection of their artistry.

WOMEN ARE FAILURES IN MEDICAL SCHOOLS

LONDON, Jan. 28.—(U. P.)—The first rebuff women have experienced in their struggle for equality with men in the medical schools is causing much consternation in feminine circles.

At a recent meeting of the authorities of the London University College, it was decided to limit the number of women admitted to the medical school. It was said that women doctors have proved a failure.

ELECT HEALTH SECRETARY.

SALEM, Jan. 28.—Captain Frederick Stricker, of Grants Pass, was elected secretary of the Oregon state board of health at a meeting of the board here. He served as captain in the medical corps in the army camps along the Mexican border during the war.

ALL LACE FROCK.

Just how effective a frock all of silk lace can be is illustrated here. There is a foundation of gray silk, a tone or two deeper than the lace, then the lace in two panels and a simple spencer blouse over a bandeau bodice. A smashing flower of violet velvet at the waist and another caught to the skirt give a charming dash of color, while a tasselled cordelate of tiny silver beads in braid effect adds a last needed touch.

Do This For Constipation

THE public should know that there is a vast difference in the action of the various remedies for constipation. Some are "Bisulph" purges, others they grip and weaken.

For lasting effect use a laxative. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin acts gently and mildly so that even a tiny baby can use it with safety. It is a compound of Egyptian Senna and other simple laxative herbs with poplar and pleasant-tasting aromatics. A sixty-cent bottle will last an average family many months.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the most popular of all laxatives and more is used in American homes than any other. Last year eight million bottles were sold by druggists, the largest sale in the world.
