LITERATURE CLUB MEETS

Scandinavian literature formed the theme for an interesting meeting of the Current Literature Club yesterday afternoon, for which Mrs. David B. Hill was hostess at the library club room. Mrs. James Johns, Sr. gave a reading from "Pelle the Conqueror," and a review of "The Great Hunger" by Johan Bojer, was read by Mrs. Fred Doherty. Poems from Stork's Swedish Anthology were read by Mrs. James Welch.

Charming musical numbers completed the program. Mrs. James Hill sang "Mon Desir" (My Desire) by Nevin, with piano accompaniment by Mrs. W. W. Phelps. "Fleur-de-Lys" was sung by Miss Mildred Berkeley, with David Hill at the piano. Two viola solos, "Cavatina" and "When Summer Comes," were played by Mrs. Vinton Robinson, with piano accompaniment by Mrs. H. S. MacKenzie.

During the social hour which followed, Mrs. W. E. Brock and Mrs. S. H. Forshaw presided at the tea table, where sweet peas and spring blossoms were attractively used as a centerpiece. The hostess was assisted in serving by Miss Mildred Berkeley, Miss Elsie Fitzmaurice and Mrs. James Welch.

BAND BOYS GUESTS

The members of the boys' band of the Hawthorne school were honor guests last night when the Parent-Teacher Association, of which Mrs.

Numbers by members of the band comprised the greater part of the program, and among the soloists was Tom Baker, seventh grade pupil who played a solo with piano accompaniment by Miss Harriett Banjamin.

Mrs. Baker sang a charming vocal solo, with violin obligato by her daughter, Miss Claire Baker and piano accompaniment by Miss Harriet Johnson. Mrs. S. H. Forshaw's pleasing solos with Mrs. F. E. Boyden at the piano, were enjoyed. Parents and teachers are delighted with the progress of the band and are planning more entertainments for the future.

Tying Ty Managers' Worry

Tying Ty Cobb has a new meaning now. It once meant tying him at the plate and on the bags. This year it will mean tying the whole Detroit ball club that is being directed by the quickest thinking brain on spikes. But Ty was never tied as a player. Tying him as a skipper will be a bigger job.
