PORTLAND MAN GAINS 30 POUNDS

Morris Feels Better Than In Twenty Years Since Tanlac Bait Him Up.

"Before I started taking Tanlac I was so bad off I couldn't do a lick of work, but now I am back at work and am thirty-three pounds heavier than before and feel better than I have in twenty years," said R. R. Morris, 1615 Huron street, Portland, Oregon.

"Twelve years ago I suffered a general breakdown and I got worse and worse each year until finally I had to quit work. I was living in Colorado at the time and after spending lots of money on different medicines without getting relief I thought a change of climate was what I needed so I moved to Portland, but instead of getting better I grew worse. I had rheumatism in my arms and shoulders and the pains would go up my back into the back of my head, and at times my wrists gave out completely and I could hardly pick up my hat. My appetite went down to nothing, sometimes I even hated to go to the table and what little I managed to eat did me more harm than good. I lost weight and strength, and was so weak I felt like there was hardly any life or energy left in me.

"Well, by the time I had finished my second bottle of Tanlac I was eating better, feeling better and picking up in weight right along. Since taking four bottles I have gained thirty-three pounds and feel just like I have been made over. The rheumatism has disappeared altogether and the pains in my neck and head have all gone. My big gain in weight shows that I have the finest kind of appetite, and nothing I eat ever gives me any trouble at all. I am back at work and never miss a day and I give the credit for my health and strength entirely to Tanlac.

Tanlac is sold in Pendleton by Thompson Bros.

'VIVE LA FRANCE' SAYS PREMIER LLOYD GEORGE AT SOLDIER'S FUNERAL

Ceremony Followed Time When Allied Conference Threatened Disruption, and Nettle Britisher Favored Leaving.

PARIS, Jan. 31.—(U. P.)—An unknown French soldier momentarily reunited the allied diplomats whose conference was threatened with disruption. The allied officials, joined by ambassador Wallace of the United States, stood together at the arch of triumph, where the body of an unknown warrior was buried. Lloyd George of Great Britain, who threatened to leave the allied council meeting if France didn't show a compromising spirit, was greatly moved by the ceremony. "Viva La France," he shouted.

Month's Totals Given.
The month's total rainfall was two inches, which is above the normal of 1.59 inches. The snow, according to Major Lee Moorhouse's official report, reached 2 1/2 inches. There were 12 clear days, 12 partly cloudy and two cloudy. The warmest days were on January first and fourth, when the thermometer registered 56 while the coldest was January 11 when the mercury fell to 16 above zero.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Advertising Begun on Annual.—Advertising has begun on the high school year book. Letters have been written to alumni to get their support. Tassels have been printed and a campaign will be waged sometime this week for subscriptions for the book. The whole school is taking an interest in the work and several have contributed stories, jokes and pictures in the contribution box in the lower floor. This is the school's first attempt at an annual and to make it a success the contents will be mostly pictures. The senior pictures have been taken and the senior editor hopes to have that branch of the work complete by February 19. Skruk Annie has contracted for all photographing in the book and all work must go through his hands. Most of the book will be given over to the seniors, as it is their book. The picture of each member of the class with a nickname, a quotation and all high school offices that have been held will be in the book. About forty seniors will graduate, and all these will have the above mentioned space.

Miss Iva Dale, business manager, announced yesterday that the campaign for advertising would be resumed in a short time so that everything will be in the hands of the publishers by March 19. The West Coast Engraving Co. of Portland, has contracted for all the engraving work. As yet no company has been signed for the printing but it is thought by the editor, Ivan Houser, that an Oregon house would do the work.

The motif for the annual will be an Indian one and the beautiful side of the life of the Indians will be emphasized. Major Lee Moorhouse has loaned several of his pictures from his historical collection for the annual which has been named Nox-in-Murich, meaning "From Year to Year." The staff includes Ivan Houser, editor; Harry D. Chisholm, John Beckwith and David Swanson, associate editors; Iva Dale, business manager; John H. Simpson, senior editor and Miss Elizabeth Severance, head of the English department, who is in charge of the work.

New Student Enrolls.—Walden Byers entered the high school this morning in the sophomore class. "Byers" formerly attended this school but left to take a course in aviation in Portland. Later entering Jefferson high school in that city. He made the trip by car from Portland. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Byers.

HOUSE KNOCKS OUT IRISH RECOGNITION

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—(A. P.)—Indirect recognition of the "republic of Ireland" was knocked out in the house today on a point of order.

During consideration of the diplomatic appropriation bill Representative Mason, republican of Illinois, a member of the foreign affairs committee, offered an amendment providing a salary of $10,000 for a minister to Ireland.

Mr. Mason declared the question of policy with respect to Ireland should be determined by congress on its merits and not on a parliamentary point. As the appropriation is authorized, would not be available until July. Representative Connally, democrat, Texas, also a member of the foreign affairs committee, asked if Mr. Mason had any indication or assurance that Mr. Harding would designate a minister.

"I have no promises but I have hopes," Mr. Mason replied.

Made from the white meat of coconuts and fat-freed milk

Here is your chance to try, free, a sweet, delicate nut butter churned from dainty nut fats and fat-freed milk.

You will like it as well as the finest butter, if you are a butter user, and the price far better. If you are now using some other brand of margarin, the deliciousness of Troco Nut Butter will be a surprise and a revelation. It's the finally perfected brand of nut butter.

Troco Nut Butter has the true flavor of gilt-edged butter, put in by a famous butter expert. It has the same food value.

But where the price of butter makes it a costly luxury and an excessive tax on the average pocket-book, Troco costs about half as much. You can usually buy two pounds of Troco Nut Butter to every one of butter.

This puts an end to skimping and saving—you can afford to use all you want. This means a richer diet as well as enjoyment at the table.

Fats in abundance are necessary to good health. You and your family suffer if you skimp on this most necessary food.

Made by Hoffman

A. E. Hoffman, for 30 years a butter maker, famous for the unusual sweetness and delicacy of his butter, supervises the making of Troco Nut Butter. He puts in the same wonderful flavor.

He churns it from fat-freed milk, twice pasteurized. He flavors it with the same scientifically ripened milk which made his butter famous for delicate flavor.

He works in the new Troco plant, built exclusively for the production of nut margarin. This plant provides him with every possible facility, laboratory and mechanical, for his exacting work.

With flavor superb, food value the highest, and price right, Troco Nut Butter finally solves the butter problem. Accept the gift pound we offer, and prove that we can't describe the goodness of Troco Nut Butter.
