HELIX CLUB BANQUETS BASKETBALL TEAMS

HELIX, Feb. 1.—Helix and Pilot Rock high schools played a spirited game of basketball Saturday night at Pilot Rock, the Helix boys winning by a score of 45 to 29. The local girls team was defeated by 4 points the score being 27 to 23. About 45 Helix people attended the game despite inclement weather and bad roads.

The commercial club of Helix entertained the two basketball teams, coaches and faculty at a banquet Thursday evening in Masonic hall. The banquet tables were beautifully decorated with sweet peas and carnations, streamers of the high school colors, maroon and gold, being draped from the ceiling and in an artistic effect around the tables about 25 were seated, the menu consisting of every good thing imaginable. A. G. McIntyre, president of the commercial club acted as toast master. Responses were given by Mr. Reed, Miss Ault and Mr. Davidson of the faculty. De Looe, Robertson, Myron Shannon and Harold Tozier of the boys team. Elva Alexander, captain of the girls team responded in their behalf. Among those speaking the sentiments of the commercial club were Fred Moss, Albert Tate, Roy Penland, Letcher Norvell, M. L. Morrison and Jack Thomas. Mrs. Roy Penland spoke in behalf of the ladies of the community, voicing their sentiments in co-operation with the commercial club towards the support of Athletics in the school.

Mr. and Mrs. John V. Ross, returned from a honeymoon trip Friday morning. Upon their arrival at the P. Depot, they were welcomed in true Western style. After placing the young married couple under arrest, they were placed in a chariot drawn by six bronco-steeds. A body guard of six business men, armed to the teeth, was in attendance. The local band with martial strains also contributed to the program of welcome. Led by a drum-major the procession paraded the principal thoroughfares of the city and thus extended to the newly-weds, a hearty welcome.

Roy Penland is in Pendleton where he is serving as juror during the present term of court.
Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson have returned from a pleasant trip to Walla Walla.

OLD TERRITORIAL SCENES FOR NEW INDIAN CHIEF

BOISE, Feb. 1.—Scenes of the old territorial Idaho days were re-enacted here recently in the office of Governor D. W. Davis when Targee Elk, chief of the Hanoock tribe on the Fort Hall reservation near Pocatello, in full regalia as is worn by the Indians of the present day, came to the chief executive of the state to be confirmed as the tribe's leader. Wallace Green, Targee Elk's brother and former chief of the Hanoock tribe died recently and the new chief was required to be officially appointed after being duly elected by the tribe.

Governor Davis wrote a "to whom it may concern" letter and after having it attested by the secretary of state, stamped it with the great seal of Idaho, and decorated with colored ribbons, presented it to Chief Targee Elk who swelled with pride as he vanished from the governor's office down the corridors of the capital.

The new Hanoock chieftain brought a similar document with him which had been presented to his brother, the late Chief Wallace Green, by Senator Frank R. Gooding, then governor of the state. The document showed evidence of having been opened and folded many times. Governor Davis' letter to Chief Targee Elk was of formal character and wished him every success as chief of his tribe.

DUTCHMEN PROHIBITED FROM SERBIAN TRAVEL

THE HAGUE, Feb. 1.—(A. P.)—The rupture of diplomatic relations between Holland and Jugoslavia has resulted in the virtual prohibition of travel of Dutchmen in Serbia. The Jugoslav government has announced it will not grant visas to Hollanders.

The break occurred over alleged bad treatment of M. Rappaport, an Austrian subject, who was Dutch consul at Belgrade during the war. The Serbians contended he was an enemy subject, unfriendly and in effect, a spy.

MILITARY WRECKS SINN FEIN CLUB BUILDING

BELFAST, Feb. 1.—(A. P.)—Cullinwood House in Ramelagh was wrecked Sunday night by the military. The house was owned by the aged mother of P. H. Pearse, once "provisional president" of Ireland, who was executed after the 1916 rebellion.

The building had been rented and part of it was occupied by a Sinn Fein club. It was the only source of income for Mrs. Pearse. It is said the soldiers were seeking Richard Malahay, member of the Gaelic League and he reputed chief of the republican army. The interior was demolished with pickaxes and crowbars.

Local opinion seemed to be that he was wrecking was in reprisal for the ambush at Terenure.

PICTURESQUE CHINA DISAPPEARS FROM BUTTE

BUTTE, Mont., Feb. 1.—The Chinatown of Butte with its shacks and dilapidated one-story buildings, its picturesque joss house and its aggregation of pig tailed, wide-bloused Mongolians has passed into history. The respraying coils with his two baskets of laundry suspended from the two ends of his shoulder pole has disappeared from the streets.

The Chinaman has not departed from Butte, however. He merely has prospered and to some extent changed his environment and appearance. The pig tail disappeared with the fall of the Manchu dynasty and the subsequent proclamation of the Chinese republic. The wash baskets on the pole have been succeeded by automobile delivery wagons and the old ramshackle buildings have been replaced with ones of brick. Two brick hotel buildings and many other store buildings now are the property of Butte Chinese who washed clothes or peddled vegetables about the Butte streets of so many years ago.

PORTLAND'S PAVING PLANT PLAYS BIG PART IN CITY CONTRACTING

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 1.—Portland's municipally owned paving plant did in open competition with contractors on nineteen major projects in the city in 1920 and won them all according to the annual report on the plant made to the council. The difference made to the council. The lowest private bid for one job and the price for which the city plant completed the job was reported to total $68,419.

In addition to putting down pavement at record low cost, the report said, the plant paid its own operating expenses and turned into the city general fund a profit of $11,824, available for public use. A total of 156,875 square yards of pavement was put down during the year and in addition 242 patches were put on old pavements.

Martens Cheered

A crowd turned out at the dock in New York and cheered Ludwig C. A. K. Martens, "ambassador" from Soviet Russia, when he left by order of the U. S. government for home. Martens and his secretary, Gregory Weinstein were deported. The other members of his staff sailed with him, voluntarily. Martens is here shown with Weinstein's mother at the pier.

Income Tax

Income Tax Returns were never as difficult to prepare as now. That is provided the taxpayer gets the benefit of all the provisions of recent decisions. The farmer who is holding his wheat or the sheepman who has unsold wool or sheep on hand can take the benefit of his inventories and adjust returns for all past years. The man who has sold his crops or livestock and owes some tax for the past year, may have a sufficient refund coming in prior years to take care of the 1920 tax.

The merchant has special problems this year on inventories. The man who has sold a farm or an outfit may not be required to pay on profits therefrom if a recent decision is upheld.

Your Income Tax advisor should be an accountant who is thoroughly familiar with all the "ins" and "outs" of the Revenue Service.

We have handled thousands of cases of Income Tax Returns. We have cases in the files just like yours and know just what the Department has ruled on these in the past.
