Hard Colds—People whose blood is pure are not nearly so likely to take hard colds as are others. Hood's Sarsaparilla makes the blood pure; and this great medicine recovers the system after a cold as no other medicine does. Take Hood's.

Charles Jowtraw of Lake Placid, divided honors in the first of three days international amateur skating championship meet yesterday. McWorther won the mile event after a hard struggle and Jowtraw took the 200-yard event, after skating the fastest heat of the event.

YE MAYOR PRESENTED WITH BOOK RELATING TO LAWS AS TO SPEED

George Hartman, mayor of Pendleton, has in addition to his other accomplishments become an expert on the traffic laws of the state of Washington. He has a nice book officially presented to him by a Walla Walla judge as a source of information on the subject.

Yesterday forenoon Mayor Hartman was driving towards the Garden City, accompanied by Judge Stephen A. Lowell, James D. Ziercher, of Stanfield, and E. M. Aldrich. The party was a portion of the Pendleton group bound for the luncheon at which the Ematilla rapids power development was to be discussed. In high brow language they were plied for speeding. However, His Honor, the Walls Walla judge, imposed no fine and allowed the culprits to go with an admonition as to the danger of excess speed on Washington roadways.

SALARY INCREASE FOR CIRCUIT COURT JUDGES STRUCK OUT OF BILL

Amendment Affecting State and County Officers' Compensation Referred to Ways and Means Committee, Smith's Bill Killed.

SALEM, Feb. 2.—A bill proposing an increase in salaries of circuit judges from $4000 to $5000 was amended to eliminate the increase but provide paying expenses when on duty outside of home counties but within their own districts. A joint committee on county and state officers was referred without recommendation to the ways and means committee on salary increase bills affecting state officials. The senate killed Smith's joint resolution to refer to the people the report of the six per cent limitation amendment. It passed a bill providing a penalty for frauds, including bounties on predatory animals.

Tax Revision. SALEM, Feb. 2.—(E. P.)—Smith's attempt to remove the six percent limitation on state taxes was defeated when the senate approved the adverse report on his bill, indefinitely postponing action on it.

Thousands of dollars in assessable property are expected to be added to taxables during the passage by the senate of a bill providing that the county assessor must, on written demand of any person, place on the tax rolls property subject to taxation but which is not included on the rolls. It was pointed out that some assessors neglect to ascertain the property within their counties.

The Roosevelt highway bill, which the senate passed late yesterday, probably will be defeated in the house. The bill would not pass now, but there is still a chance of its success if trading comes to its assistance. As a matter of fact, the senate passed the bill and the house due to high regard for its sponsor, Holt of Coos, Northland of Clatsop. The one objection to the bill is it does not require aid from counties through which the highway would pass. The highway commission objects to it because it would stop road progress.

NEWS OF THE COUNTY OFFICES AND OFFICERS

Case Nearly Completed.

Trial of the case of Gust Courteson vs. Art Hardin was to be completed this evening, indications in the circuit court today showed. The case was expected to be given to the jury in mid-afternoon, following completion of the arguments for the plaintiff. Courteson was shot by Hardin at Rich several months ago in an alleged triangle involving Mrs. Hardin. Courteson sued for approximately $15,000 damages, alleging that he was an innocent party. Hardin was found guilty of simple assault when tried in the criminal courts on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon in this connection.

Portland Woman Had Awful Dizzy Spells and Was in Constant Fear of Falling—Tanlac Overcomes All Her Troubles.

"I enjoy all my meals now and never sit down to the table without feeling thankful for what Tanlac has done for me," said Mrs. Ida Marvin, of 1723 Fortenmouth Ave., Portland, Ore.

"For two years I suffered from a badly disordered stomach and nervousness and was in a dreadfully run-down condition. I had no strength nor energy and could hardly drag around at all. My appetite was so poor I just had to force myself to eat. Even this caused sour stomach and indigestion which distressed me terribly, and I had such awful headaches and dizzy spells I was afraid of falling. I was so nervous and restless I could scarcely sleep, and felt miserable all the time.

"My son, who had gotten rid of a bad case of stomach and liver trouble by the use of Tanlac, brought me a bottle one day and I began to pick up and feel better right away. Well, six bottles have made a new woman of me. My appetite is the very best and I eat and enjoy just anything I want without its bothering me any. My sleep is sound and restful and I'm enjoying splendid health. I just think a world of Tanlac and gladly give it my highest endorsement."

Mr. and Mrs. Drake are popular in this city and their friends regret their departure.

PIONEERS HAVE MEETING. Sixty members of the Pioneer Ladies' Club enjoyed a meeting yesterday afternoon at the library club room. An interesting ceremony was that of the presentation of the novel, when Mrs. W. E. Mays, retiring president, handed the symbol of power to Mrs. Vina Johnson, the new president. A letter from Mrs. John Vart, first president of the club, who is now in Seattle, was read. Two solos, "I Cannot Sing the Old Song," and "Ben Bolt," sung by Mrs. T. A. Wylie with accompaniment by Mrs. Martin, and a group by Mrs. William H. Bennett with Mrs. Charles Bond at the piano, comprised a charming musical program. Mrs. F. M. Riddley sang "What's Woman Can Do," and Mrs. W. E. Mays gave a character sketch, "The Old Maid's Soliloquy." Seven new members joined the organization. A social hour followed the program.

Party Postponed—The party of the Girls' Forum which was to have been held in the club rooms of the library tomorrow evening has been postponed until Tuesday of next week. ## O'Callaghan Ready to Sail

Donald O'Callaghan (center), lord mayor of Cork, is shown here formally surrendering to Immigration Inspector J. J. Hurley, at Norfolk, Va., for the return trip to Ireland. O'Callaghan came to America as a seaman, without a passport. Hurley admitted him to the United States while his ship was waiting. Then Washington took up his case and finally decided he could remain only until his ship departed. On the left is Judge J. T. Lewis, attorney for O'Callaghan.
