W. G. Harding as president will receive something like $18,000 less compensation annually than Woodrow Wilson received. The treasury will pay Mr. Harding the same amount in pays Mr. Wilson-$75,000-but inter-nal revenue bureau officials say Mr. must return nearly one-Harding fourth in income tax. President Wilson was exempted from the income tax under a suprem ourt ruling because he came into office before enactment of the 1915 ret enue laws, under which taxes were sought to be imposed on the salaries of the president and of federal judges. DUTCH SAY SABBATH The supreme court held that the tax could not be collocted in the case of incumbents because of the constitu-tional inhibition against reduction of the salaries of the executive and fed-eral judges during their term.

The solicitor-scheral has ruled that the tax could be collected from officials taking office after the law bebring about any reduction in salary and the term of office.

Revenue bureau officials say Mr. Jug to forbid amusements, curtail arding, of course, will be allowed train service, etc., on Sundays. Harding, of course, will be allowed the usual exemption of $2000 a year for a married man and may claim octain business exemptions. Placing his exemption at $200 yearly however, they figure his normal income tax at would lead many to seek amusement $5,480, and his surtax at $12,940, a to- in a less innocent way. The reduction tal of $18,420.

President Wilson is understood to prevent people who were shut up in have paid some taxes under the 1918 close homes and parrow streets all the week from enjoying fresh air and nature on the Sabbath."
