

People Here and There

E. F. Bahr is in Pendleton today from Portland on business.

D. C. Brownell, prominent Umatilla realty dealer and owner of a large amount of west end land, is registered at the Pendleton hotel.

Adrian Miles, former Pendletonian, is in town today calling on users of stationery. He is representative of the road for Bushong & Co. of Portland.

Bingham Springs has been deluged with torrents of rain during the past week, says William Koch, who was in the city yesterday. Mr. Koch is proprietor of the hotel at Bingham.

Three of the local boxing colony that arrived in Pendleton this morning registered at the Pendleton hotel today. They are: Frankie Murphy, of Denver; Johnny Fish, of Rock Island, Ill.; and Babe Herman, of Sacramento, Cal.

T. J. Walter, of Milton, was a business visitor in Pendleton today. He brought a coyote scalp on which to collect bounty.

Robert Withycombe, who is in charge of the Eastern Oregonian experiment station at Union, is a son of the late Governor James Withycombe. Mr. Withycombe is in Pendleton today on his way to Stanfield where he will address a stock feeders meeting tonight under the auspices of the Umatilla county farm.

NEWS OF THE COUNTY OFFICES AND OFFICERS

Weston Delegation Wants Road
Thirteen residents of Weston Mountain and Weston appeared before the county commissioners today to ask that the grade on the Weston Mountain road be changed. It is at present impassable for automobiles and in places wagons cannot pass without damage, a spokesman pointed out. The new grade would require nearly three miles of new road but would make it possible for automobiles to traverse that territory.

Mrs. Sanderson Appointed
Mrs. Julia Sanderson of Prosser, today was appointed to the county library board to succeed Mrs. H. M. Cockburn, of Milton, whose term has expired. The county commissioners also entered an order for work on the Pilot Rock road to be resumed and completed as soon as possible.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Sophomores Give Assembly Program
A student assembly was given this morning by the sophomore class with George Childs, president. He introduced the varied entertainers. A skit entitled, "Scenes About School," which was a farce on several of the teachers, was given. Students slipped around to the teachers' coat room and "dressed" their coats and hats without detection. A vivid impersonation of each was rendered, Miss Dorothy Giegel, class advisor, had charge of the program.

Former Student Visits—Lowell Rugg a former student of the school and who attended Pandema high school in California during the first of the winter was a visitor at the school yesterday. He is now working on his father's farm near Echo. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Rugg of this city.

First Debates of District Held Tonight—The first debates of this district are to be held this evening, but Pendleton is not a participant. At the drawing Pendleton drew a bye for the first debate. Pendleton will debate next Friday. The two dual debates for this evening are Echo vs. Pilot Rock in the west end of the county and Milton vs. Umatilla in the east end of the county. Miss Elizabeth Severance and Miss Oliver Rosche of the local high school faculty will go to Pilot Rock this evening as judges.

Williamette Glee Entertains—A few members of the Williamette Boys Glee Club who appeared in concert in the city last evening came to the school yesterday afternoon and entertained the students with several readings and solos. The club planned to have the quartette sing but one of its members failed to arrive. The students enjoyed the solos and readings.

HIGHWAY COMMISSION

Provide Mileage
SALEM, Feb. 4.—The Umatilla senate delegation introduced a bill providing mileage for county judge and county commissioners in Umatilla county.

Reapportionment Plan
SALEM, Feb. 4.—(A. P.)—The reapportionment plan reported under consideration provides that the joint senator from Clackamas and Multnomah would be transferred to a district senator from Clackamas and Marion, while Multnomah would be given one more senator. It is also proposed to take one representative from Washington, Marion, Linn and Jackson county and distribute them in eastern Oregon.

Sub-committee Appointed
SALEM, Feb. 4.—(A. P.)—Senator Vinton today moved to recall the Roosevelt highway bill from the house. The motion was seconded, but when it was found that Senator Hall had gone to Marshfield and would not return until Monday Vinton agreed to table the motion until then. This action was followed by a hearing last night in which Chairman Booth of the highway commission, vigorously opposed the bill.

Reapportionment plans which are expected to cause lively debates, were launched with the appointment of a sub-committee including Galtisner, chairman, and Styles and Hurd, to draft the reapportionment bill. It is understood a general plan has been agreed upon.

Here Is a Fine Laxative For a Little Baby

Millions of Mothers find Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin safe for infants

WHAT young mother has not often asked herself the question, "What is the best thing I can give my baby for constipation?" It is a very important question, as constipation is the basis of most ill of infancy and childhood.

Give half a teaspoonful of a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin. You can obtain it at any drug store under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is a mild, gentle medicine that children willingly take, and a bottle that costs only sixty cents is enough to last an average family several months.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin has been used by millions of mothers, for the prescription has been sold in drug stores for thirty years. It is the same prescription Dr. W. B. Caldwell, who is now in his 82nd year, used in his extensive practice for half a century. It is the largest selling liquid laxative in the world. Last year eight million bottles were bought in drug stores. You can make no mistake in giving Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin to your baby.

TRY IT FREE
Send me your name and address and I will send you a free trial bottle of my Syrup Pepsin. Address me Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 513 Washington St., Montreal, Illinois. Everybody now and then needs a laxative, and it is well to know the best. WRITE ME TODAY.

DRIVE AWAY HEADACHE

Rub Musterole on Forehead and Temples

A headache remedy without the dangers of "headache medicine." Relieves headache and that miserable feeling from cold or congestion. And it acts at once. Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister. Used only externally, and in no way can it infect stomach and heart, as some internal medicines do.

Excellent for sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, neuralgia, neuritis, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, all pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frozen feet, colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia).
