

News Notes of Pendleton

Lowell Kern Ill.
Lowell Kern, of Sturgis & Storie's, is ill at his home on Court Street. He is suffering from an attack of quinsy.

Forest Perrin Returns.
Forest Perrin has returned from Portland where he spent three months at the Hemphill Trade School studying ignition and magneto work.

Over Half Crop Sold
About 65 per cent of the wheat crop of last harvest has been sold, according to estimates. While there is a noticeable tendency to hold the grain, a number of farmers have sold since January 1.

Will Leave for East
Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Morse expect to leave Thursday evening on No. 13 for a visit to New York and other Eastern cities. They will be absent from Pendleton for five weeks and Mr. Morse will purchase stock for the new store. The Crescent, to be opened here

Children Have Bronchitis
Til Taylor Stone, two year old son of Mrs. David Stone of Athena, is at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Camper Woodward, on Jackson street suffering from bronchitis. Little Mary Jane Woodward has also been afflicted with the same ailment.

Are Joining Farm Bureau
The Umatilla County Farm Bureau has a membership of over 200 at present and new members are constantly joining, says Fred Bonnell, county agent. A membership of 500 has been set as the goal for the bureau, although no intensive membership campaign is planned.

Dealers to Draw for Spaces
Pendleton automobile dealers will draw for their spaces at the fourth annual auto show tonight at a dinner and business meeting of the Pendleton Automobile Dealers Association. The dinner will be served in the Elks dining room at 6:30 o'clock. Other plans for the auto show to be given March 16, 17 and 18 will be reported on and adopted, it is expected.

Funeral Is Held
The funeral of M. Okamoto, Japanese who was brutally murdered Saturday morning by Shaza Shibata, Hawaiian, was held yesterday afternoon from the Brown chapel. Rev. J. E. Ireland, and Captain Jennie Conrad, of the local post of the Salvation Army, officiated and a Christian service was conducted, with about 15 Japanese present. Okamoto, who was about 50 years of age, has a wife in Japan.

Pageant May Be Given
So successful was the Indian pageant given at the La Grande Christian Endeavor convention last week end that it is possible that it may be repeated here under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor society of the Presbyterian church and of the C. E. society at Tutulla. Rev. J. M. Cornelison, directed the pageant and those who took part were local people and Indians from the reservation. If given here, the pageant would be for the benefit of the C. E.

Indian Will Case Continued
Taking of testimony in the contest of the will of Tamassasim, an Indian woman, occupied all of yesterday and was continued until Thursday morning when it will be resumed. The case is being heard before Major E. L. Swartzlander, Indian agent, at the agency. Joe Craig, it developed yesterday, is not a claimant in the case, the sole person interested in breaking the will being Mrs. Rosa Emmett, niece of the deceased. James Kash-Kash, to whom 150 acres of valuable wheat land was willed, is a third cousin of the deceased and his wife a fourth cousin.

S. H. Thompson to Attend
S. H. Thompson, secretary of the Pendleton Rotary Club, is planning to attend the Northwest Conference of Rotary Clubs to be held in Seattle March 14 and 15. James Sturgis, president, is undecided whether or not he will be able to attend. Other Rotarians may go to Seattle for the conference. The visitors will represent 15 cities in Oregon, Washington and British Columbia, and it is expected that the attendance will run between 1500 and 2000 Rotarians and their ladies. The set program of entertainment includes a luncheon at the Hippodrome at noon and a banquet with "starlets" at the same place in the evening of the first day. A luncheon at noon and a dance at the Hippodrome in the evening of the second day, supplemented with such personal entertainment by members of the club as the time will afford. Besides Pendleton, delegates will attend the conference from Nantiamo, Vancouver and Victoria, B. C.; Astoria, Portland and Salem, Oregon; Aberdeen, Bingham, Centralia, Chehalis, Everett, Houlam, Olympia, Spokane, Tacoma, Walla Walla, Wenatchee and Yakima Washington.

Wool Crop Looks Excellent.
The 1921 wool crop looks excellent at present, according to local wool men. The crop probably will be better than the average, some declare, and the quality will be fine. There has been a better feeling prevalent in the Boston wool market of late, some Texan fine wool in the grease having sold for 26 to 30 cents a pound. An increasing demand for wool is reported and constant moving of the 1920 clip is noted.

Spring Lambing Started.
Lambing is already under way in a number of the sheep camps in the Pilot Rock vicinity, according to Mac Hoke, secretary for the Cunningham Sheep Co. On the Cunningham, Alfred Smith and Tom Boylen. Finches lambs are already coming on and they will be fattened for the early markets at Chicago in the spring and summer. All is shed lambing at present and good results are reported. It is considered earlier than usual for lambing but the open winter and present condition of the weather is expected to be favorable for the early arrivals.

J. C. Kuhns Returns
Range appraisal, which will probably be taken up by the forest service in the future, was discussed by J. C. Kuhns, Umatilla forest supervisor, at a meeting of the Wenaha Wool Growers Association held recently in Walla Walla. Mr. Kuhns, who returned last night from Walla Walla, says that the plan includes the readjustment of grazing fees and would fix them according to the appraised value of the range instead of charging a standard fee. Appraisal would be based on the type of forage, accessibility of water, topography, etc. Officers of the Wenaha Association were re-elected for the coming year, with B. L. Dickinson, of Dayton as president and H. A. Barrett, of Athena, as vice-president and Elmer Bryson, of Walla Walla, secretary.

Dr. Temple Better.
Dr. I. U. Temple, who has been suffering from a severe attack of influenza, is convalescing. Two nurses have been employed on the case but
