

You Might Ask Yourselves

"What kind of a sale is this $8,500.00 sale that they're advertising so strong at The Peoples Warehouse?"

Our Suggestion Is This

Don't ASK yourselves or your neighbors ANYTHING about the sale for you'll be "mightily" disappointed when you find that the lady next door bought for $16.00 or $18.00 the most beautiful dress or suit or coat that originally sold for as high as $60.00.

1921 AUTOS TO HAVE 45 SPACES IN ANNUAL LOCAL SHOW, MAR. 10-12

Forty-five of the 53 spaces to be filled with automobiles of the vintage 1921 were allotted to Pendleton dealers last night at a dinner held in the Elks dining room by members of the Pendleton Automobile Dealers Association. The cars will have their locations determined by lot but no division or booths will be made, the dealers have decided.

Sam Wright is busy making additional scenery and adding to the decorations which have accumulated during the past two years. The fourth annual auto show, March 10, 11 and 12, will be the most lavishly decorated of any and Happy Canyon pavilion, where the display will be held, will look its best, the auto men declare.

A space will be donated by the association to the new Eastern Oregon Automobile Club to be used in enlisting new memberships. It is the plan of the club to make a drive for a strong membership here and the show will provide that opportunity.

The few spaces not drawn for last night were reserved for members not present at the drawing. Autos and accessories are expected to require every bit of space within the pavilion and trucks and tractors will be parked in the arena. Last year a tent was erected outside the main entrance to the pavilion.

Three members were admitted to the association last evening. McLean & Shavey, auto dealers, and the Automotive Battery Station and Graham Electrical Co., battery dealers, were those added. The cars for which space was allotted last night included Chalmers, Chandler, Haynes, Winton, Oldsmobile, Buick, Cadillac, Ford, Cole, Rex, Dort, Studebaker, Dodge, Paige, Oakland and Franklin.

NO CUT IN PENDLETON OF UNION SCALE IN BUILDER'S TRADE CRAFT

Clem Wurst Says Matter Was Taken up in Council Meeting But it Was Decided Cost of Living Must Drop First.

A cut of 20 per cent in the scale of employees of the Master Builders' Association of Seattle was announced Saturday. Inquiry of Pendleton builders, affiliated with the American Federation of Labor disclosed that no such action has been taken here nor by the building trades in Portland, although it has been the topic of discussion.

Portland has, through the master builders, announced a cut but as yet it has not been recognized by the unions there. Other western cities have taken a similar action, according to a Portland trade journal, but in most instances the unions have decided that the time is not yet ripe for them to come down.

"We have considered lowering our scale here," Clem Wurst, a well known building contractor, said today. "In two meetings of the building trades council we have taken up the matter from every angle and decided that our wages cannot come down until the necessities of life first drop."

Building materials here took a decided drop Dec. 1 and have made other drops since that time. Lumber, plumbing materials, hardware, glass and brick have all been reduced in price, master builders report. The basic scale here for skilled building craftsmen is $1 an hour, according to Mr. Wurst.

The reductions announced in the big cities of the coast, Mr. Wurst said in hearing out the article of the Portland trade journal, have been put into effect only with non-union labor, or in the open shops.

WORK OF LEGION IN VET RELIEF HINDERED

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—(A. P.)—Charges that a government bureau having to do with soldiers' relief is packing committees of the American Legion with bureau employees who are members of the legion were made before the legion's executive committee today by Abel Davis, chairman of the hospitalization committee. "As a result the work of the legion in soldier relief is being greatly handicapped," said Davis.

Fruits of a Foul Mouth

Decayed teeth cause indigestion, mental backwardness, infectious diseases; trouble with the eyes, the ears, the heart, have been traced to trouble with the teeth. Why take these chances? Watch for small decayed spots, tartar, receding gums, discolorations; they are a warning to you that all is not well with your teeth.
The most important thing in the world to you is the state of your health; you may be ever so careful in other things but if you neglect your mouth your health is in danger. Examine your teeth and if you are in doubt, remember
